

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neville of Elm Street will celebrate their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday, April 28, with a reception for the community. Open house will be kept from two until nine o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville were married April 28, 1881, at Watson, Effingham County, Illinois. They moved to Deerfield from Desplains about twenty years ago. Mr. Neville was assistant manager of a County Line Road farm and later became engineer of the Deerfield Grammar School. His grandson, Ray Dobbins, has succeeded him as engineer for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville have taken an active part in the work of the Deerfield Presbyterian Church, in which Mr. Neville has served for eighteen years (and still serves) as elder. He has also served his former church in the same capacity for eighteen years, giving him an outstanding record of thirty-six years of eldership.

The Nevilles have one daughter, Fern, Mrs. Roy Dobbins of Arlington Heights; six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. One grandson, Ray Dobbins, and his wife and little daughter, Patricia Ann, live with the Nevilles.

The community is invited to attend their wedding anniversary reception.

George Rockenbach, aged 66, has an enviable voting record. At the primary election last Tuesday he voted at the state primaries for the 72nd time. Few can equal such a record. Mr. Rockenbach, a staunch Republican, told the election board members that it was getting a little too difficult to mark his ballot this time as his eye sight had been failing this past week. Mr. Rockenbach's first presidential vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln in 1864. In all the following years he has never missed but one election and that a local one, because he was in California visiting a son at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elmer (Maizie Selig) announce the birth of a daughter, Shirley, on Monday, April 13, at Waukegan.

Mrs. E. H. Selig entertained her sewing club yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stryker are staying at the Eugene Boyer home on Osterman avenue while the Boyers are visiting in Missouri.

Members of the Deerfield-Sields High School Band will attend the state band contest at Urbana this week-end.
