Lawrence Tibbet Prize for Poetry

Miss Theo Winters, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Winters and the late Leander LeRoy Winters of 359 Laurel avenue, Highland Park, won the second prize in the Lawrence Tibbett award for college poetry with her poem entitled, "The Great Hunter." This award, given by Lawrence Tibbett, is under the auspices of the College Poetry Society of America for which students from thirty colleges are eligible to compete. The judges in commenting upon the award said, "Theo Winters has a touch which more famous poets might envy." Miss Winters prepared for college at Roycemore in Evanston and entered Northwestern university in the fall of 1932. She is graduating from the university on June 13.

Be Held Here from June 1 to June 6

The city administration has designated the week of June 1, to June as annual Clean-Up Week and announces collections to be made on certain days in certain districts. No ashes will be hauled away by the city trucks, and all tins, cans and other rubbish must be placed in containers and put out on parkways. The city workmen will not go into basements or yards to collect the materials.

The days of collection in the several districts are as follows: * Monday, June 1: Vine avenue north to city limits.

Tuesday, June 2: Vine avenue to Laurel avenue. Wednesday, June 3: Laurel avenue to Lincoln avenue.

Thursday, June 4: Lincoln avenue to Roger Williams avenue, Friday, June 5: Roger Williams avenue to County Line road.

Flower Day For Ravinia Each Friday

Friday is flower day in Ravinia and it is hoped that those people in Ravinia who have flowers to share with the less fortunate in Chicago will remember this and contribute freely each Friday. This is being sponsored by the Ravinia Garden club division of the Chicago Plant Flower and Fruit Guild Flowers should be delivered to the Chicago Northwestern station by 8:30 o'clock. Your consideration will be appreciated.
