URSDAY, MAY 28, 1920

Barrett entertai

uests on Sunday in honor

eventh birthday anniver

Mrs. William Cawley of Park were guests Sunday

t the William Barrett

norink family will more awood avenue to Highland win Johnson entertained

Neighbor chain luncher

mg society of the Ho

mcheon and card party on June 4, at the home of et McGuire, 913 Wanke

e Devine who has spent inter with his parents.

D. D. Devine in Ber

eky, is visiting at

ROOM

eating Co.

cientist

Park

iers

Res. Phone

hland Park 1342

Deerfield, will hold a

HIGHLAND PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

HIGHLAND PARK ILLINOIS

In Memoriam

On this coming Memorial Day, we fering, and inhumanity of war; and of poetry. hopes of peace for the world will Poetry is a type of literatur be uppermost in our mind.

bly to the absurdness and hopeless- scarcely any person who has

"The Fight for Peace," by Devere

"Peace and the Plain Man," by Sir Norman Angell. "The Fight Against War," by Al bert Einstein. "Disarmament," by Salvador Madariaga.

"The Outlawry of War," Charles Morrison. "Cry Havoc," by Beverly Nichols. "An Inquiry Into the Nature of Peace and the Terms of Its Perpetuation," by Thornstein Veblen. "Why Wars Must Cease," by Carrie C. Catl, Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt,

Jane Addams, and others. "The Unseen Assassins," by Nor-

"What Would Be the Character of a New War," by the Inter-Parliamentary union. "Merchants of Death," by H. C. Engelbrecht.

The Public Library will be closed Memorial Day.

PAUSE WITH RESPECT TO HONOR THOSE WHO HAVE GONE, RESOLVING TO BETTER SERVE THOSE WHO REMAIN

Before you discard that broken auto part, or other metal piece, find out from us whether or not it would be possible and practical to weld it. Our rates are very reasonable, and you save almost the full to Deerfield

Stop Light . .

Poetry Week

This week, May 24 to 31, has been will honor and remember those who set aside by libraries and other edu have died as a result of war. Our cational institutions as a week to thoughts and emotions will be di- call attention to and further the in rected against the destruction, suf- terest of the public in the reading which has always had only a limited To call our attention more forci- group of readers-though there is ness of war and to direct our efforts read some poetry or does not have towards peace, many helpful books a favorite poem. Some modern have been written. The following poetry is often difficult to understand worth-while books on this subject but still interesting to read. Other may be obtained from your Public modern poets as Mrs. Wylie, Miss Millay, Mr. Robinson and Mr. Frost are not, in any special sense, difficult poems. And the older poets, both English and American, are still the favorites to the mass of people. The following list of books on poetry which are available at the Public Library will be helpful to you if you read poetry for mere enjoyment, or are attempting to understand poetry, or beginning to write poetry. Also you may locate a favorite poem of yours through aids at the Public Library. There is also a special magazine for the publication and encouragement of new poetry.

Poetry of the Year "A Book of Poems for Every Mood," by Harriet Monroe, ed. "Break the Heart's Anger," "Fear Is the Thorn," by Rache

"Best Poems of 1935," by Thomas "Unpublished Poems of Emily

"Flowers of Evil," translated from the French of Charles Baudelaire by George Dillon and Edna St. Vincent

"Strange Holiness," by Robert Coffin (Pulitzer prize winner). "The Vision of Piers Plowman," by William Langland. "Death and General Putnam," by

Arthur Guiterman. "King Jasper," by E. A. Robinson "Solstice," by Robinson Jeffers. "Selected Poems," by Robert

Venturing Into Poetry "Discovering Poetry," by Eliza-

by A. E. Housman.

"Poetry," by John Masefield. "Poetry, the Appreciation and En-

"The Poetic Way of Release," by Highlands sec 25. Daringer.

A Magazine of Verse "Poetry," edited by Harriet Monroe. A wise eclecticism renders Poetry the only true "Magazine of Highland Park. Verse,", an inestimable repertory for the understanding of recent Anglo-Saxon poetry.

How To Find the Poem "Index To Poetry and Recitations," with supplement, edited by City of Highland Park, sec Edith Granger. A practical reference manual including over fifty thousand titles.

"The Reader's Guide To Magazine Articles," also indexes poetry published in current magazines.

Mrs. L. L. Klinkert of Chicago is visiting her daughter Mrs. Stanley

The Quid Nunc club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Kilroy.

on a perfect, heavily ticular and personal attention; and where - - - kind of people; and ress smoothly without rowding; and where --

by phoning Deerfield

31 you may reserve

INTRODUCE YOUR-

SELF TO CHARLIE

NASH - HE HAS A SURPRISE FOR YOU.

starting time

Deerfield Woman's Club Party Gala Affair

delightful spring card party, spon-sored by the Deerfield Workin's club on Tuesday afternoon, May 19.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was a style show at which the following local and nearly shops were represented Garnett featuring summer silks and beach Lucille Lingerie Shop, displaying Easton, and Alex Willman.

Tea was served at daintg tea tables which were attractively dccorated with spring flowers, the gift of Mrs. A. R. Warner, and lighted The proceeds of this affair will used to clear the indebterness on

The officers and members of the Deerfield Woman's club wish to 374 Laurel avenue with "chuck" bethank the various committees for ing served from a covered wagon operation and the directors of Brierhill club for their generosity in ex- "away out west," Reservations for tending the use of the club parlors, the supper are to be phoned to Highsuccess as well as an enjoyable so-

Local merchants who were so generous in their donations were: Kottrasch nursery, Franken nursery, Deerfield Press, Green Mill Beaners, Nelson laundry, Brand Chandlers, Christ bakery, Connett's, Meadowbrook dainy, Sol Northbrook Printing Co.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Filed in the Lake County Recorder's office May 18, 1936 to May 23 1936. Deerfield and Shields town-Furnished by Howard Scott, recorder.

Bower wd lot 35 in Brierhill sec 33. ship of the association by signing A. Hertel to W. R. Hertekand wf the board purpose card. jt tens wd lots 6, 7 and N 5 1 lot 8, "The Name and Nature of Poetry" blk 16, Deerfield Park Land Imp.

tle, E. C., R. C., and H. T. Millhoft versity this Thursday, May 25. Emd lot 7, blk 2, 1st add to Havinia ily Marks was re-elected president V. W. Little et all to E. Will- meeting.

"The Poet's Craft," by Helen F. hoft qcd lot 7, blk 2 1st add to Ravinia Highlands sec 25, Continental Ill. Natl Bank & Trust Co of Chicago, Tr to G. L. Hamilton trustee's d N 60 ft (ex 30 30 ft thereof) of lot 13, blk 67, thity of K. M. Saumer and hus to J.

Kodym d lot 8, J. S. Hovland's 1st add to Deerfield, sec 3: K. W. Moore and wf to Modern Suburban Homes, Inc. wd le 1 (ex W 5 ft thereof) and all lot Folk 16 M. E. Dyer to Fa H. Bastlett & Co wd lot 6, blk 3, Highland Park woodlands, sec 15. W. F. Blades and wf to W. Curotto and wf jt tens wd lot & blk 5, Ridgewood Park sub sec 26.

M. J. Flynn to Chicago T T Co. tr d in trust lots 11 and 12 and W hf lot 10, blk 6, Port Clinton E. L. Wallace and wf to L. Wil lison and wf jt tens wd lot a blk 5, Ravinia Highlands sec 36. E. Wichert to L. A. Tupper and wf jt tens wd lot 31, Lakeside Manor bert qcd lot 75, Goldman's North Shore Golf Links sub, sec 33 M. B. Heafield and hus to M. Johnston wd E 110 ft of pt W gr of SE gr sec 28. W. L. O'Connel, rec West Town

State bank to C. E. W. Karifman qcd lots 11 and 12, resub of cavine Manor, sec 31. C. E. W. Kauffman and witto J.

H. Marling Jr. qcd lots 11 and 12 resub of Ravine Manor, sec Master in Chancery to First Natl Bank of Chicago d lot 1 Clarke's sub of lot 8 blk 40 Highland Park.

Quality Cleaner RELIABLE LAUNDRY DRY CLEANING CO

Phone H. P. 178

GREENSLADE Electrical Contractor Electric Shop

4 South First Street

The Friendship club, whose mem attractive robes, pajamas and lin- bers plan something interesting to gerie; Evelyn P. Miners and Deer- do at the Y.W.C.A. on their Thursfield Knit shops showing hand knit days off, are having a fall program apparel. In addition to professional this Thursday, May 28. A tour to models these clothes were a tractive- Zion city, visiting a broadcast staly modeled by the following mani- tion there and stopping at Orphans kins: Misses Marijane Concon Jane of the Storm, will be followed by a Hopkins, Betty Muhlke, Jane Bow- weiner roast supper in the forest man, Jean Boyle, and Margaret preserve. The party is in honor of Finch; and Mesdames Rox Clavey, a club member, Betty Hossack, who Irving Brand; Charles Piper, Donald is leaving soon for a visit to her home in Scotland. Any household employees who would like to join sented to the club by Mrs. Thomas future parties may leave their name Porter, mother of Mrs. Ropert L. and phone numbers with Miss Ames Johnson, was awarded to Mrs Harry at the Y.W.C.A. any time as there is always some feature planned for every month.

Cowgirls, tem gallon hats, western trail campfire songs, and other Colorado local color will be featured at the Little Convention party to be given for Y.W.C.A. members on the field house, which has been a Thursday, June 4. A chuck wagon project of the club for the past two supper, such as the delegates attended at the Garden of the Gods will be reproduced in the garden at at 5:30. Guests are asked to wear sport clothes or any western outfits land Park 675 by June 3. A clever favor will be given each caller at the chuck wagen for supper are cordially invited to drop in later to hear the program. Mrs. Theodore Osbon, Mrs. Harry Renner, Miss Estelle Buser, Mrs. Einar Paulsen, and Mrs. Alfred Burdick will review some of the experiences and inspirations gained at the national Y.W.C.A. convention which they recently attended in Colorado Springs. Cards announcing the Little Convention have been mailed to all members but all who would like to become members are also invited to come to the program. There is no fee for membership and every girl and woman in Highland J. L. Surples and wf to L. A. Park is invited to enjoy the fellow-

Pi Delta, business girls' club of the Y.W.C.A., will attend the Pag-Master in Chancery to V.W. Lit- eant of Youth at Northwestern unifor the coming year at the last

Softball League Now

The Twilight Softball league sponsored by Community Service and the Park Board of Highland Park has started play on a regular schedule which calls for games every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings at Lincoln playground, all games starting at 6:30 p.m. All the teams in the league are evenly matched and some very exciting games are in store for softball fans. In the games played up to this week, the Nields have defeated the urday.

Merchants, and have lost to Lencionis; the Merchants have defeated Playing Regular Schedule Deerfield and the Horse Shoe Boys have won from Highwood.

The schedule for the week of June is as follows; Monday, June 1, Nields vs Highwood; Tuesday, June 2. Deerfield vs Horse Shoe Inn: Thursday, June 4, Lencionis vs

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Potterton attended the funeral of Mr. Pottertons grandmother, Mrs. Foster Potterton in Dodgeville, Wis., on Sat-

RELIABLE LAUNDERERS AND CLEANERS

618 North Green Bay Road, Highland Park, Ill.

--- Telephones ----Highland Park 177 - 178

TT'S easy and economical to change over to fully automatic Oil Heat as any time of year - but it's especially easy and convenient to modernize your home with Oil Heat right now.

Prepare now for economical heat during variable Fall weather. Get set for adequate warmth next winter - with the only form of automatic heat which puts the fuel supply under your own control. Take advantage of the season, use the easy credit terms available now. Profit by Spring fuel oil contracts which protect you against cold-weather price increases!

Consult any reliable oil burner dealer or use the convenient a free copy of LOW-COST AUTOMATIC HEAT from the Chicage Oil Heat Committee. Phone the Committee at Harrison 2457 for unprejudiced information on oil beat at any time. Send for the booklet now!

616 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois

Send a free copy of the booklet LOW-COST AUTOMATIC HEAT to the address below.

CAS

gera-

that make en servants ints. Use a t water on every day!

. or come