

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Mr. A. H. Muhlke was guest of honor at a party given Tuesday afternoon at his home in celebration of his 74th birthday anniversary. Mr. Muhlke was born in Deerfield, of pioneer parents, his grandparents settling here in 1843. The eastern part of Deerfield including the Briergate Golf club and the property on the north side of Deerfield avenue from the bridge as far west as Warrington road was all part of the Muhlke ancestral farm. Mr. Muhlke has held the distinction for many years of being Deerfield's oldest native son.

Penick-Seago Nuptials
Miss Nell Muir Penick, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Penick of Springfield, Ill., and Erwin Seago of Deerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Seago of Chicago, were married Monday, June 1, in Chicago, with only the immediate family attending, which included the bride's two sisters, Mrs. E. D. Oliniger and Mrs. Harvey A. Smith, both of Springfield. They are spending three weeks in the east.

The bride, who has been teaching in Springfield, is an alumnae of the University of Chicago where she received her Ph.D. degree in 1929. She also holds a Master's degree from Columbia university in 1931.

The groom is a senior member of the firm of Seago, Bradley and McRoy, engaged in the general practice of law in Chicago. Mr. Seago attended James Millikin university and the University of Colorado, receiving an A.B. degree from Millikin in 1926. He attended the University Law School, receiving a degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) in March, 1930. He is a member of the following fraternities: Sigma Alpha Epsilon, social, and Phi Delta Phi, legal. He is an Alumni trustee of James Millikin university, a director and vice-president of the Deerfield State Bank and a trustee of the Sarah Hackett Stevenson Memorial.

Plans for their future residence have not been revealed.
