

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Weddings

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok of St. Paul's church, officiated at three weddings this past week. On Tuesday evening, June 16, Warren Lee Pettis and Evelyn T. Swan of Deerfield, were married at St. Paul's church. Their attendants were Arline Brady and William H. Halstrom, both of Deerfield. On Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock Carl Hofmeier of Vernon township and Dorothy Mayer of North Northfield, were married at the G. T. Leach farm on West County Line road, where the groom is employed. Mr. and Mrs. John Haemker of Arlington Heights witnessed the ceremony. Later the same evening at the Walker estate on Saunders road (the farm adjoining the Leach property) occurred the wedding of Ethel E. Birns and Chester L. Sims, both of Chicago. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Walter Toll, who lives at the Walker home and the groom is a nephew of Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr. Miss Elaine Birns was her sister's bridesmaid and Fred Bickmeyer of Chicago served as best man. A wedding supper and dance followed the ceremony.

Miss Marcia Hunt and Donald E. Trumbull of Evanston were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in a lovely garden ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emily Parsons Hunt, 2719 Sheridan road, Evanston, with Dr. W. F. Weir officiating.

Koller-McGarvie Nuptials

Miss Florence Mary Koller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Koller, was married Saturday afternoon at four o'clock to James McGarvie II, of Deerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGarvie of Hamilton, Scotland, at the Deerfield Presbyterian church with Dr. W. F. Weir officiating.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in a white satin dress, long tulle veil with halo, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Hazel Bubert, in a pink net dress, carried the bride's veil. Miss Dorothy Kiel of Winnetka, in a pale French blue frock and pale pink picture hat, was the bridesmaid, carrying blue and white flowers. William Jones of Michigan City, Ind., served the groom as best man. Thomas Turnbull, nephew of Mrs. James McGarvie, acted as usher. The groom is a nephew of Mr. James McGarvie of Deerfield.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Frances Biederstadt played the wedding march.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the church service, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Quebec, Canada. Upon their return they will live at the Koller home on Springfield avenue.

The Weirs Go West

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Weir are leaving July 5 for the Pacific coast for a month's stay. Dr. Weir will represent the Chicago Presbytery at conferences in Washington, Oregon, and California. He will conduct two periods of the Washington synod at Wallawalla on July 7, 8 and 9. On Sunday, July 12, he will preach in Seattle. At the Oregon conference in Eugene, Ore., he will have three hours on July 14 to 17. He will occupy the pulpit of a San Francisco church on July 19 and then go down to Pasadena, Calif., for a period each day from July 23 to 29.

Noted Men Speak Here

During Dr. W. F. Weir's absence the pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be occupied by various men of outstanding ability.

July 12—Dr. Robert Lee Sawyer, president of the Presbyterian college.

July 19—Dr. W. O. Ruby, assistant executive of Chicago Presbytery.

July 26—William E. Hunter, staff of Presbyterian college.

Aug. 2—First of Union services.

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok of St. Paul's church.

Engagement Announced

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Charlotte Brand, daughter of Mrs. George L. Brand of Deerfield, to Rev. A. J. Belder of Los Angeles, Calif., was made last Thursday evening at a party at the William Guyot home in Highland Park. Mrs. Guyot and Mrs. W. W. Clark were the hostesses. Miss Brand is organist at the Bethesda church and has taught piano music for a number of years. Rev. Belder, who is pastor of an Evangelical church in Los Angeles, was formerly at an Elgin church, at the time Miss Brand was organist there. The romance developed last summer, when he was visiting in this vicinity and it had been kept a secret until last Thursday. The wedding will take place in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Youngs have leased the Harold M. Marsha house at 434 Grandale road in Highland Park and moved this week from the Edgewater Beach hotel. The Marks family went to Beverly Hills, Calif., for a year on account of the illness of their youngest daughter.

Arline Haseman of Long Grove is spending this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Schar of Park avenue.

Misses Peggy and Anne English of Evanston spent Saturday with their sister, Mrs. Irving Brand.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok and their two sons, Helmut and Frederick, left on Monday to spend two weeks at their cabin near Hayward, Wis.

Rev. Frank C. Lowry, pastor of the Turner Memorial African Methodist Episcopal church of Chicago, will occupy the pulpits of St. John's church in Highland Park and St. Paul's church, Deerfield, on Sunday, June 28. The colored pastor will preach in St. John's church at 9 a. m. and at St. Paul's church at 10:30 a. m. Reverend Piepenbrok will announce the speaker for Sunday, July 5, next week. The church schools will continue at the usual hours.

Sisters Mary Leonette (Lucy O'Connor) and her companion Sister Ann Rose of Immaculate Convent, Chicago, visited on Wednesday at the home of Sister Mary Leonette's father, James O'Connor, with her two brothers, Frank and Joseph and at her aunt's home, Miss Margaret O'Connor, in Bannockburn. The two nuns, accompanied by Miss Margaret O'Connor, Miss Rose O'Connor, Mary-Theresa, "Buddy" and James O'Connor II, visited at the Richard O'Connor home in Highland Park. Mrs. Richard O'Connor has been ill for several weeks and her daughter, Sister Gerald Marie (Elizabeth O'Connor), was home from the convent in Mobile, Alabama, for a visit with her parents. Dr. W. F. Weir addressed a meeting of St. Paul's Men's club on Tuesday evening in St. Paul's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Knaak have moved to a farm on Milwaukee avenue near the Tripp school. Virgil Haggie has leased the Knaak house on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Walter Sprinson (Mable Hamner) and two children, and Mrs. John Dahlstedt of Chicago were guests on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bruce Blaine.

Mrs. G. M. Koch and children have gone to California to visit her sister. Belores Koch has been attending the Conaty School for Girls at Los Angeles, this past year.

C. C. Kapschill spoke at a meeting of the Waukegan Lions club last Thursday evening held at the Glen Flora Country Club. He talked on the Legion's efforts to obtain the passage of the bonus bill. On Monday evening he addressed a group at Hyde Park, Chicago.

Robert Ginter, who attends the University of Illinois and his brother, John, who was graduated in June from Deerfield-Shields high school, have gone to their summer home at Pontiac, Mich. They are sons of the E. J. Ginters, who moved from Bannockburn to Detroit last month. The boys are nephews of Dr. C. Johnston Davis. Their other brother, E. Davis Ginter, who is in Chicago, will join them later.

Mrs. Walter Mann of New York spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Edwin A. Wood of Rosemary terrace. Mrs. Mann was the former Elizabeth Knapp and was a member of the Elm Place faculty a number of years ago.

Edwin Wood of the U. S. Navy will be home for a month's furlough in August with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood of Rosemary terrace.

A lawn party has been planned by Dorcas Circle Two of the Deerfield Presbyterian church for Saturday evening, June 27, on the grounds of the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Weir. Heading the committee are Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Andrew Decker.

The menu includes ice cream, cake, apple pie and coffee.

Mrs. J. G. Myers and son Jack of Madison, Wis., spent Sunday visiting friends in this vicinity.

The Evangelical Daughters, a group of young married women of St. Paul's church, have planned an ice cream social for Wednesday evening, July 22, on the church lawn, or in the church activity rooms if the weather is unfavorable for an out-door affair.

Sonny Rouse is professional golf instructor in Waukegan and has charge of the Waukegan Recreation project.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and daughter Dorothy and Miss Bertha Freese were guests at the William Schinleber home in Northbrook on Saturday.

Miss Vivian Haggie, with two other teachers from the Irving school in Maywood, left on Wednesday for Boulder, Colo., where they will attend the University of Colorado this summer.

Edward R. Seese of Bannockburn was elected president of the Kenyon College Alumni Council last week. Mr. Seese, who is affiliated with the Chicago office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., is also president of both boards of education of the Bannockburn grade school and the Deerfield-Shields high school.

The Deerfield Fire Department was called out Thursday evening to extinguish a roof fire at Hallstrom Brothers Point Comfort roadside inn. A faulty chimney caused the fire and the estimated damage was fifty dollars, as reported by Fire Chief Jack Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hunt announce the birth of a son on Thursday at the Highland Park hospital. They have named him Stephen Earl.

Mrs. Robert Page and Mrs. Arthur Merner are acting as hostesses today at a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Bethlehem church.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frick had as their Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frick of Crystal Lake and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Frick and children of Chicago.

Dr. W. F. Weir will be in Indianapolis, Ind., on Monday to conduct a coaching conference in Chicago Administration for the Indianapolis Presbytery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore Jr. and two children were Sunday guests of the Arthur Merners. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are missionaries who are here for a year's furlough from Africa. Mrs. Moore addressed the young people of the Bethlehem church Sunday evening and Mr. Moore spoke at the evening services which followed. The Moores are staying with his parents in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Eugene Carlson of Chicago were Sunday guests at the George Stamer home on Forest avenue.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson was invited to the luncheon contract bridge club on Tuesday at the Moraine Hotel. Mrs. R. E. Pettis entertained the group last Thursday at Three Acres Tea Room west of the village. Mrs. Ann Daniels is the next hostess.

Electrolux IS JUST AS SILENT

Less than 15c
brings you an
Electrolux Gas Refrigerator

EVERYONE WHO EVER has seen or owned an Electrolux gas refrigerator has marveled first at its silence. Not a sound ever comes from an Electrolux! It is permanently silent because it has no moving parts to wear or make noise. A tiny gas flame circulates the simple refrigerant. Here is a basic difference... an advantage only an Electrolux gas refrigerator can offer.

Ownership of an Electrolux is exceptionally easy. Now as little as 15c a day installs an Electrolux in your kitchen! And you save more than enough in food and refrigeration costs to make this small payment. Don't wait any longer to enjoy Electrolux gas refrigerator convenience and economy!

Besides making cold silently, without moving parts, Electrolux offers dependable, uniformly low temperatures that are safest for all foods... large storage capacity... plenty of ice cubes quickly frozen... and every practical, worthwhile convenience.

Before making up your mind about any refrigerator, see Electrolux! Visit our display and ask for a demonstration.

Buy Electrolux! Get these vital features

- Permanent Silence
- No Moving Parts to Wear
- Lasting Efficiency
- Continued Low Running Cost
- Fullest Food Protection
- Savings That Pay for It

This simplified diagram shows why the Electrolux gas refrigerator needs no moving parts, and makes no noise. Parts that do not move cannot wear. This means a real saving, greater efficiency and dependability.
