Pretty Wedding Held

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Dorothy Schwall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwall of Clifton avenue, and Mr. Matt Maiman, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Maiman, which took place Saturday morning at ten o'clock, at St. James church, Highwood. Father Holley officiated.

The bride was charming in a gown of white satin, trimmed in rose points lace, with a long tulle veil held in place by a coronet of lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Anne Schwall, as maid of honor, was attired in blue mouseline de soie with small matching hat and she carried a bouquet of yellow daisies. The two bridesmaids, Miss Nancy May and Miss Pearl Jones, both wore frocks of yellow mouseline de soie with matching hats and carried bouquets of blue snapdragons.

Little Joan Knot of Chicago, as flower girl, was attired in blue dress matching the maid of honor's dress, and carried a small bouquet of yellow roses. Donald Yahl of Wilmette attired in a white linen suit, served as ring bearer.

Edward Haines of Evanston was the groom's best man and the ushers were Henry Claypole, Al Clayton, and Fred Leffert.

A wedding breakfast followed the service at the church, at the home of the bride's parents. The house was attractively decorated in summer flowers.

The young couple are enjoying a honeymoon in Manitowish, Wis., and upon their return will reside with Mr. Maiman's parents.

Koon-Grant Nuptials

At eight-thirty o'clock Friday evening, in the spacious living room of the George Koon home on Ridgewood drive, Miss Helen Mae Koon and Mr. Charles Keith Grant were united in marriage by the Rev. L. W. Sherwin, pastor of the Highland Park Presbyterian church. An improvised altar was formed at the end of the living room by a background of palms and ferns before which the young couple exchanged vows. The living room was beautifully decorated in huge bouquets of white gladioli.

The bride was very pretty in a gown of pearl satin with a long tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Virginia Grant, sister of the groom, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of pale blue organdie and carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The wedding march was played by Miss June Stockwell.

Mr. Robert Grant served his brother as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony, the dining room being decorated in red, white and blue flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant left on a short trip following the ceremony and will be at home after the 15th in their apartment in the Koon building on First street.
