Monogenerian Celebrates

Mrs. C. S. Fehr's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren assisted in making her 90th birthday anniversary on Sunday, July 5, a joyous occasion. Forty-one guests partook of the birthday dinner. There were her two daughters, Mrs. Isaac Rapp, at whose home she lives, and Mrs. Chester Wessling, also of Deerfield. Her three sons, Ira W. Fehr of Freeport, Ill., William C. Fehr of Manhattan, Ill., and Clayton C. Fehr of Oak Park were there with their families. Mrs. Fehr's brother, Conrad Matter, age 88, made the trip from Freeport to be at the party. Another brother, James Matter, age 80, was unable to come from Topeka, Kansas, but sent greetings, as did her sister, Mrs. Leah Toole in her 93rd year, at her home in Ackley, Iowa. Mrs. Fehr's pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Earl J. Bruso of the Bethlehem church were also dinner guests. Mrs. Fehr has five children, 14 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. One of Mrs. Fehr's great grandchildren, Delbert Fehr (grandson of Ira) who was unable to come from his home at Rock City, Ill., celebrated his tenth birthday anniversary on the same day and exchanged greetings with his great grandmother.

Friends from Manhattan, where she formerly lived, sent her a shower of birthday cards and the W. M. S. of her Deerfield church, as well as many other friends and relatives unable to attend sent gifts, letters of greeting and telegrams.

Other names included in the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Farnum and daughter, Barbara, and Miss Vivian Fehr of Freeport, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson, Arlene, Lois, Eugene and Charles Fehr of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wandless and three children and Miss Helen Fehr of Gary, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. John Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hills and two sons of Joliet and Mr. and Mrs. George Puddicombe and two daughters of Oak Park.

Buehler-Phillips Nuptials

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Buehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Buehler of Chicago and Lewis Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Phillips of Chicago and Deerfield was solemnized on Saturday, June 20 at the Church of the Holy Apostles in Chicago. The bride taught in the Elm Place school, Highland Park, this past year and previously had taught in Northbrook. Several parties were given by the Highland Park teachers preceding the wedding. The groom is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Henry Croft, whose home is now Orphans of the Storm. The Croft's daughter, Julia, and her husband, Mr. Phillips, have a summer home just west of the Orphans of the Storm. The bride has visited here many times. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will reside in Chicago.

Bakery Sale

The choir members of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will sponsor a bake sale on Saturday beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the Deerfield A. and P. store.

The local editor was reminded this week by several interested readers that there are many more octogenarians in this vicinity, who are hale and hearty—Mrs. William Gastfield, Mrs. Theresa Kottrach, who was 85 in January, and August Winter, age 81, are some of them. Can you name more?
