

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Wedding

Mrs. Elouise Feldbaush Collins, 21 years old, of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Capt. Volney W. Wortman, 43 years old, of Champaign, Ill., were married Tuesday evening by the Rev. Robert W. Hartness, chaplain of Fort Sheridan, at the minister's home, 1156 Chestnut street, Deerfield. Capt. Wortman, a professor of military science at the University of Illinois, is at Fort Sheridan to train R.O.T.C. students. The couple met last year at Champaign, where Mrs. Collins was studying music. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Feldbaush.

Kress Reunion

The home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress of Hazel avenue, Deerfield, was the setting of a big family reunion on Sunday. It was the first time since the World War that the entire family had met under one roof. The occasion was in honor of the visit of the eldest son, Earl, with his wife and two children, Earlene and Loretta of Rutherford, New Jersey. The ten Kress children and their families which included sixteen grandchildren are: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clavey (Marie) and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Willman (Loretta) and son; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kress and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kress and three children, and Gordon Kress, all of Deerfield; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greenslade (Ruth) and two children; Mr. and Mrs. George Hessler (Margaret) and two sons, all of Highland Park; Mr. and Mrs. John Kress of Winnetka; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kress and two daughters of Rutherford, N. J., and Arthur Kress of Terra Haute, Ind.

Mr. Kress is a former Mayor of Deerfield and was for years a member of the grade school board, serving at the time the old wooden structure burned in May, 1913, and was one of the three directors in office when the first unit of the present school was erected. Mr. Kress has allied himself with the public spirited group which worked energetically to bring water, gas, electricity and subway to Deerfield as it emerged from a tiny rural community to a suburban village. Mr. Kress has been in the employ of the C. M. & S. P. railroad for over forty years.

There were fifty guests at the party. Twenty-one years ago the Kress family had a picture taken. Sunday the same children, now grown, took the same positions around their parents, with the exceptions of the two sons, Arthur and Gordon, who no longer could sit on their parents' knees. Comparison of the two pictures is interesting.
