Mildred Cable in Recital

Barbara Balke presented Mildred Cable in a brilliant song recital last week, which was so delightfully received that a second appearance was given Wednesday evening. Miss Cable, who has been a protegee of Mme. Marcella Sembrich, won a scholarship and was a student and graduate of Julliard Foundation of Music in New York, and also at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia.

After completing her studies at Curtis she went to Europe for three years where she concentrated and coached operatic roles with the late Professor Dr. Franz Ludwig Woerth of the State Opera of Berlin. Miss Catherine Guthrie, who is Miss Cable's accompanist, is a guest at the Balke home with Miss Cable.
