BETTY WAGNER - ED FERRING

Curtiss Airport is going to be the dogs, and will there be a howl, because Sunday, August 30, is the date of the Northbrook Dog Show. There you will see all breeds of dogs, from a tiny Mexican Hairless to a shaggy-haired St. Bernard. This event attracts dog owners from all parts of the country. Well the girls really took full charge of Curtiss Airport last Sunday and demonstrated to the people that they could run a first class air show without male help. It was probably one of the hottest days of the year so far, but that didn't keep the crowd away, and here's hoping that next year's show will be bigger and better. We wish to apologize for the mistake in last week's column about "Ham Kunath." This should have been Vincent "Shorty" Taylor, who was the former instructor at Sky Harbor and a member of the British Royal Air Force. Remember that very famous Ken Hunter of Hunter Brothers, who broke the endurance record at Sky Harbor in 1929? Well he has purchased himself a Keystone Patrician and is barnstorming about the country. We hope he will drop in and pay us a visit soon. Somebody asked Ken what he did with all the money he earned for making this endurance record, and Ken very nonchalantly said that the city guys swooped down and took it. North-west Airlines have made Curtiss Airport one of their regular stops, enabling the North Shore people to save considerable time. They are making stops almost regularly. Daniel Peterkin, Jr., is leaving in his Stinson next week for the National Air races, as is Mrs. Jane Meyers of Winnetka, who usually manages to take them all in. Dick Granger, of Sky Harbor, left Tuesday morning for the races. The only woman in this part of the country to own her own airport is Mae Wilson. Her airport, named the Wilson Airport, is situated on River Road and Bryn Mawr avenue. She flies her own Waco and does a very neat job of it. If you chance to pass by there on Sundays, you will probably see Mae carrying passengers on sight seeing Trips.

AIR NOTES

Ruth Chatterton is the only movie actress who has flown her own plane across the continent single handed. Miss Chatterton expresses a great interest in aviation, and has sponsored a great many races for women.

Louis A. Barr, 27 year old air enthusiast and member of the Washington Parachute Club, can't be bothered by superstitions. He chose Friday, March 13, to make his thirteenth parachute jump and bailed out of the ship at exactly 13 minutes to 6 from 13,000 feet. Before climbing into the ship to make the jump, he took the third light from a match, spilled some salt, walked under a ladder, induced a black cat to cross his path and climbed into the plane from the starboard side (which is ill omen enough), but he made a safe chute landing.

We heard a joke recently which we thought was worth printing:

A small boy was walking past an Army Air Camp, leading a mule by a rope which he held very tightly in his hand. Noticing him, one of the pilots decided to have some fun.

"What are you holding your brother so tightly for, Sonny?" he asked.

"So he won't join the Air Corps," was the reply.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my many relatives and friends for the sympathy and kindness extended to me and the floral offerings sent at the death of my husband, Edward Booth. I am extremely grateful to Mr. Brandellner, Miss Lois Brandellner and the pallbearers.

Mrs. Edward Booth

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our gratitude to those who extended their sympathy and kindness in our recent bereavement.

Mrs. G. T. Calvin and Mrs. Guthrie, John, and Charles

The mysterious prehistoric temple on Salisbury plain, England, known as Stonehenge, was erected by men of the bronze age. The great table of stone, each weighing tons, were jugged into place by brawn alone.
