MARIAN KENNEY

Miss Marion Keeney, who has died under leading authorities in this country and abroad, will open School of the Dance in Highland Park at the Y.W.C.A. on October from Hollywood where she has been loing intensive work in ballet with Carma Lita Maracci. Her previous have included work in rhythmic dancing with Jaques Dalcroze, in classical dancing under Nicholas Legat of Paris, Adolph Bolm, and Mariel Stuart, protege of Paylowa; and in modern techniques under Kretzberg, Doris Humphrey and Charles Weidman.

Several Highland Park girls have been in classes Miss Keeney has conducted at her Winnetka studio. They will be among those most interested in the convenience, during the winter months, of classes at the Y. 347 Laurel ave. Serena Seymour will not conduct classes this year as she is now in New Mexico so that the group who met her at the Y are planning on continuing under Miss Kenney

A short demonstration given by the local pupils of various ages will be given by Miss Keeney on October 6, followed by individual conference so that each student may be properly classified for the opening of class work on the following

Three classes will be offered on Tuesday afternoon. A beginners' group, open to tiny tots will meet at 3 o'clock, grade school girls and those who have had some work will meet in the 4 o'clock class, and advanced pupils will meet at 5 in the large Assembly room at the Y Mrs. Frank has already appointed Mrs. Lee Supple, Mrs. James Murphey, and Mrs. Albert Peterson as acquainted with Miss Keeney's methods to interest other mothers in the new Highland Park project."Daughters find pleasure and recreation in dancing as taught by Miss Keeney and mothers notice improved posture, poise and grace of movement as a result of her teaching," said Mrs. Frank in explaining her satisfaction in being able to offer classes in ballet and toe under such an authority. Advanced groups will do some modern work as well.

Margaret Gibbs Dies Burial Held Monday

Miss Margaret Mary Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gibbs, was born in Sherman, Mich., Feb. 4, 1899, and made her early departure of this life on Sept. 11, 1936, at the age of 37 years, 7 months and I days.
