20 YEARS AGO

Sept. 21, 1916

Ten thousand extra copies of the Highland Park Press containing John Randall Dunn's lecture on Christian Science were put into circulation since last week's issue. Mail and phone orders are still coming in for additional copies.

On Tuesday, Sept. 26, Illinois will celebrate its greatest good roads meeting by participating in "Sheridan Road Day."

Mr. Charles Gemmer is planning to move his grocery business from its present location on W. Central ave., to 6 South First st.

Mrs. R. Wardfield of Baltimore, Md., announces the engagement of her daughter Wallis to Mr. E. Winfield Spencer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Spencer of this city.

Mrs. Nathalie Van Riper announces the approaching marriage of her daughter Ethel Margot to Mr. Ralph Burton Britton, of New Britain, Conn., which will take place Saturday evening, Sept. 26th.

The Highland Park Business Men's association with their families, enjoyed their annual picnic at Werhane's grove, south of Deerfield, Sunday.

Up to 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, 55 aliens seeking citizenship had been examined in circuit court by Federal Naturalization Inspector Peter W. Blazer of Chicago. An interesting event transpired when father and daughter, Swan Johnson of Highland and his daughter Jennie Amnada Johnson applied for citizenship papers.

10 YEARS AGO

Sept. 23, 1926

Mr. Albert Franken has sold his home, furniture and property in Deerfield to Mr. Marshall Pottenger of Northbrook, who will take possession of it about the middle of October.

Mrs. V. C. Musser is the new instructor in Highland Park Council of Religious Education, which begins Oct. 1.

Dumaresq Spencer post of the American Legion has applied to the City Council and received permission to install in the temporary park between the two railroads, just north of Central ave., the big German howitzer, secured last spring from the War departments as a trophy of the World war.

The marriage of Miss Helen Irene Rhinehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rhinehart and Mr. Donald L. McCoy of North Dakota, took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. F. R. Cardwell, officiating.

Keith Kuhlman of Ft. Sheridan ave., and Henry Lauridsen of North ave., who started on July 15th and hiked to California, returned the second week of September, having been gone seven and one-half weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sobey are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born Wednesday, Sept. 22 at the Highland Park hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Beck of Racine, Wis., announce the marriage of their daughter Anne K. to John Patrick White, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White of Los Angeles, Calif.

"San Francisco" at Alcyon Theatre

"Nobody's Fool," a smart, swiftly paced farce comedy featuring Edward Everett Horton, will have its mad, merry run at the Alcyon on Friday and Saturday of this week. The wise-cracking Glenda Farrell, an excellent foil for the amusing Horton, portrays her character part with a pert sense of humor, while Cesar Romero is entertaining as a modern highbinder and Warren Hymer, the fellow who plays the eternal clown, is a valuable addition to the cast.

Millions have read of the hilarious exploits of Alexander Botts, the whimsical and egotistical tractor salesman and comedy hero of the famous series of stories, "Earthworm Tractor," written by William Hazlett upon for the Saturday Evening Post. Now Alexander Botts has been brought to life on the screen in the film by the same name, which is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Alcyon for Sunday and Monday. Botts on the screen is none other than the famous wide-mouthed Joe E. Brown.

A new and truly romantic team is playing in a glorious tale of the world's most colorful city "San Francisco." For the first time the rugged, two-fisted Mr. Gable of old and the lovely Miss MacDonald with the voice that thrills, are brought together, with Spencer Tracy sharing stellar honors. "San Francisco" has drama, love, interest and comedy. Clark Gable has the rough and tough type of role in which his public likes him best, while Miss MacDonald has the ideal part to give her opportunity to sing. Needless to say the direction of W. S. Van Dyke again sets a high in standard for production values. "San Francisco" guarantees entertainment for every member of the family. It is a picture not to be missed.

COMMUNITY CHEST

Charity gives itself rich; covetousness hoards itself poor." The old German proverb might well serve as a motto, or even a slogan, for the communities of America in the next few months. For we are approaching the period of the year when the more fortunate citizens band together to help and comfort those less fortunate.

This brings to mind Highland Park's Community Chest, and the drive for funds that will be launched here shortly. Last year's concerted effort, replacing by one combined appeal the ten separate demands made by independent organizations in former years, was eminently successful. With the experience of last year as a guide, this year's drive should be more successful.

But more than last year's experience should contribute to the greater success of the appeal this year. The people of Highland Park should be more fully aware this year than last of the real benefits that giving in this manner brings.

The money isn't the only thing. True, it is essential that money be raised, that it be well and wisely distributed. This activity in itself is of basic value to the community.

But there is another value which devolves to the community from concerted effort of this kind. Everyone who gives, who gives honestly what he is able, becomes thereby a more active participant in the life of the community. He feels a greater interest in his home town, his neighbors, the shops and stores, even the streets and parks. He watches with larger interest civic and governmental activities, and takes a more active part in them.

Even beyond this, however, is the benefit that comes to the individual. We get exactly what we give. We are not living in this world to get, for if we are we shall ultimately be sadly disappointed. An honest and wholehearted gift, commensurate with our ability to give, which makes us deny ourselves something in order to give it, will benefit us infinitely more than the pleasure we would have attempted to give ourselves by spending that money for our own gratification.

The hole through which we give is the hole through which we receive.

Chicago City Opera
Committees Meet

A tea was held at the home of Mrs. Peter Barton, 257 Kenilworth ave., Kenilworth, Monday, Sept. 21, at 3 o'clock for members of the Chicago City Opera Campaign Committee. Mr. Rudolph Ganz spoke of the increasing popularity of opera in this country due to its more finished presentation, better co-ordinating music, stage properties and acting.

The artists for the afternoon were Hortense Drummond, who sang an aria from "Samson and Delilah," and Janice Porter, who sang "O Mio Fernando" from La Favorita by Donizetti, and "Ah, Love But a Day" by Beach. Miss Drummond was accompanied by Maestro Spadoni and Miss Porter by Miss Rosalie Saafeld. Talks were given by Mrs. James G. McMillen, general chairman of the North Shore, and President Jason Whitney.

A tea is to be held at the home of Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt, 786 Greenleaf ave., Glencoe, on Monday, September 28, at 3 o'clock. The artists for the day will be Marjorie Livingston, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Butler, and Porter Heaps, well known Chicago organist, who will play selections on the organ. Mr. Saltiel, of the Board of Directors of the Opera, will speak.

3 Brothers Enroll
at Great Lakes

The authorities at the Naval Training Station at Great Lakes were treated to an unusual sight on Sept. 10 upon the arrival of a draft of recruits from the Navy Recruiting Station, Omaha, Neb. As the new apprentice seamen formed ranks for their first muster, the petty officer in charge took one glance at the muster roll and made a mental decision to consult an oculist. He saw the same name, not once but three times; however, despite a dimmed faith in what he had considered his perfect vision, he read Edward William Divis, Albert James Divis, and William Edward Divis, all of whom, to his great relief, answered present. The Divis brothers, age 22, 21, and 19, hail from Brainard, Nebraska, where their mother, Mrs. Mary Docwieler, resides.
