

Charles W. Hadley Candidate, to Speak in North Chicago

Announcement has been made that Charles W. Hadley, candidate for attorney general of Illinois, will speak at North Chicago on Thursday evening, Oct. 1, at 9 o'clock p.m. Although Mr. Hadley will address a rally sponsored by his Republican friends, and he is a candidate on that ticket, yet his speech will be heard with considerable interest by all citizens regardless of party affiliation; for Attorney Hadley has always been known throughout the state as a fearless and constant defender of American principles of government.

Hadley is an accomplished orator, and has an important and timely message which should be of interest to every citizen. He is an experienced lawyer, and is known throughout the state for his ability as a prosecutor and a law-enforcing officer. His record as State Attorney of DuPage county for four terms, as Assistant Attorney General for seven years, including his activities in successfully prosecuting crime and vice rings in Rock Island county in 1922, and as chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission for two and one-half years, has left no doubt concerning his ability to occupy the office of Attorney General of Illinois with credit to the State and to the voters who elect him to that position on Nov. 3.

Whether Candidate Hadley has the qualifications which his many friends ascribe to him can best be proven to the voters of Lake county by their attending the meeting in North Chicago on Oct. 1.
