The Highland Park hospital building committee has chosen the west end of the block between Homewood and Glenview aves. as the site for the proposed hospital.

Miss Gladys Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Spencer is leaving next month for France where she will be placed in the distributing station in Paris, to handle much material being made for the French wounded by American women.

The Rev. F. L. Gratiot, a post graduate in the Western Theological seminary, Chicago has been engaged by the Vestry of Trinity church to assist the rector.

Alan Flynn was elected president of the Young Men's club at a meeting Tuesday evening.

10 Years Ago, Sept. 30, 1926

The Blue Goose Fruit store will open for business Oct. 2 at 516 Central ave.

Considerable damage in the aggregate was done in Highland Park by the record breaking deluge of rain which fell last Thursday. Every low place in the city was a lake, streets were flooded, sewers backed up, basements filled with water and viaducts made impassable.

Mrs. Mary L. Flinn, pioneer citizen, widow of the late William Warren Flinn, passed away at her home, Sunday. She had been an invalid for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lawrence of Ridgewood dr., celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary Saturday evening.

Miss Edith Ralph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, was married to Stanley Peter Peddle of Lake Forest, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hintz of N. Second st., celebrated their 5th wedding anniversary on Saturday.

Announce Winners of Football Contest

Considerable interest was manifested last week in the football contest conducted by the Highland Park Press in co-operation with a group of advertisers.

This contest has been run by The Press for a number of years, and the number of answers received this week, far exceeded all expectations.

Tickets for the Northwestern vs. North Dakota State game will be given to the two having the most correct answers to the sum of scores made by all the teams listed this week. The second prize will be a 6x8 portrait photo by Hecketaweller studio, and the third prize will be theatre tickets.

The winners of last week's contest were: Jim Foley, C.N.S. & M. R.R., 11 N. St. Johns ave., 177; Frank Elwell, 599 Homewood ave., 178; Richard Mau, c/o Purnell & Wilson, 179; H. F. Anspach, 396 Central ave., 173; Robert Anspach, 396 Central ave., 180.

H.P.T.M.C. to Play Highwood, Sunday

With the brilliant Art Bock serving as playing coach, the Highland Park Young Men's club football team will travel to Highwood Sunday to play their initial game of the season against the powerful Tavern City eleven.

Although the local team has been hampered by the lack of practice, Coach Bock has been very pleased with their display of speed and pep. Practices are held every Tuesday and Friday evenings and Bock says he could still use a few more men to round out the squad.

The starting team which contains a heavy line and a light backfield consists of Roy Rhinehart, Dave Swan, Jake Repholz, Gordy Kreas, Joe McCraren, Bill Mannelli, Coach Bock, George Hall, Amelio Cadamagine, Paul Allen, and Vince Shini. Sunday's game will start at 2:30.
