

DEERFIELD LOCALS

CARD PARTY

The mother's club of the Wilmet school will give a card party and penny sale at the school house, at the corner of Wilmet and Deerfield rds., on Friday evening, October 16, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Leslie Behrens is chairman of the club. Mrs. Harry Wing and Mrs. Robert Page are in charge of the party and Mrs. Ben Siljestrom and Mrs. Ray Horenberger, the refreshments. It is a public party and for the benefit of the Wilmet school.

Deerfield Auxiliary

Mrs. Harry Mau will be hostess to members of the Deerfield unit of the American Legion Auxiliary on Monday evening, Oct. 19, at her home on Deerfield rd. Mrs. Nicholas Wagner will be the assisting hostess.

Residents of West Deerfield Township will be able to register on Tuesday, Oct. 27, in the three precincts. The polling places will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night.

Dr. C. E. Pope of Evanston has purchased the A. C. C. Timm house on Deerfield rd. just west of the Brier Hill Golf clubhouse. Miss Margaret Byrne of Highland Park was the realtor.

Mrs. L. A. Dondanville and two children, Louis and Patricia of Moline, Ill. spent the past week with Mrs. Dondanville's aunt, Miss Clara Ender.

Dr. V. W. Spriggs, Oliver Burnett Jr., Kenneth Ross, and Bert Mastri of Deerfield with Oliver Burnett Sr. of Maywood spent eight days at Camp Namescoggin at Webb Lake, near Spooner, Wisconsin, enjoying a fishing trip. They returned Sunday.

The Fireside club will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 22, at the Beth-lem parsonage, with Reverend and Mrs. Earl J. Brusco as hosts.

Alfred Mitchell, who had spent the summer in England, was the guest of his brother, Albert Mitchell last week and has gone to Philadelphia to join his wife.

Mrs. George Frey of McHenry was the guest of Mrs. John Welch on Wednesday.

Mrs. John Welch of Chestnut st. entertained at a luncheon on Thursday at her home.

Mrs. Elmer Clavey and son, Jack, and Mrs. Alex Willman and her son, Kress, drove down to Notre Dame university in Indiana, on Saturday, to visit Gordon Clavey.

Kenneth Wessling will attend Home Coming of Iowa State at Ames, Iowa, the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Kenneth Hoover of Terre Haute, Ind., was the guest of Mrs. Alex Willman on Friday.

Samuel and David Speller of Monmouth, Ill., and Miss Bessie Harrison of Chicago were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Joseph of Chestnut st.

Miss Hazel Rapp, who spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rapp, was accompanied to Belvidere by her cousin, Miss Ione Rapp of Ames, Iowa, who had been visiting in Kentucky and was en route to her home in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Easton went up to Moose Lake, Wis., last week where Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stryker (Florence Page) are honeymooning. Little Marlene Easton remained here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker. When the Eastons return, Mrs. Easton and her sister, Miss Harriett Stryker are planning a several weeks visit with their sister, Mrs. J. Kynett Haehlen in Dysart, Iowa.

Miss Virginia Bruce has issued invitations for a Halloween party on October 31 in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and two daughters, Shirley and Roberta, and Marcia Smith of Highland Park spent Sunday at the Jay Miller home in Franklin Grove, Ill.

Barbara Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bahr of Ridge rd. entertained eight little guests in honor of her fourth birthday anniversary on Friday, Oct. 9.

Card parties are scheduled for tonight at the Masonic temple and the Holy Cross Catholic church Parish hall. The Deerfield chapter of the Eastern Star will have the party at the Masonic temple, and the Young People's club, at the Parish hall. Both affairs open at 8 o'clock.

On Oct. 20, the 66th annual Lake County Conference of Churches will be held at the First Congregational church in Mundelein. A young peoples conference will be held at the same time and same place.

Mrs. Eugene Ender left on Thursday for an extended visit with relatives in Rochester and Oswego, New York.

Ward Anderson has been ill this past week with bronchitis and flu.

Mary Therese O'Connor has returned home from the Highland Park hospital where she underwent an appendectomy. She is the 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor of Osterman ave.

Mrs. Louis Anderson of Woodward ave. entertained her 500 club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. G. Reed Bassinger will be hostess at a party on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. F. L. Peterson of Beardstown, Ill., who has been visiting relatives in Battle Creek, Mich., spent the week-end at the home of her son, Harold Peterson of North Chestnut st.

George Stanger II was one of a group of high school boys who went to Kenyon college in Gambier, Ohio, last week-end to visit. Mr. R. F. Hamill, also of Deerfield, and a faculty member of D.S.H.S., and Mr. E. R. Seese of Bannockburn, who is an alumnus and trustee of Kenyon college and a member of the D.S.H.S. board of education, spent the week-end there. Among the other boys who enjoyed the trip were Bill Baum of Lake Bluff, Howard Longren of Lake Forest, Wallace Carr and Bill Bigley of Highland Park.

Mrs. George Converse of Forest Glen spent Friday with Mrs. Jirah Cole. Mrs. Converse is a former resident of Fair Oaks ave.

Mrs. Arthur Borchardt (Margaret Galloway) left on Sunday to join her husband in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Sarah Clavey of Waukegan has been visiting her niece, Mrs. James McNeill (Eva Lange) this past week at her home on West Deerfield rd.

Mrs. Alma Kent Reichert of Los Angeles, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Peter Van de Velden of Osterman ave.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Nordoff and daughter Nancy of Wilmette were Sunday guests at the Floyd Stanger home.

Miss Luella Plagge of Chicago spent Sunday at the Floyd Stanger home.

Mrs. Wally Schar of Prairie View spent Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Schar, who is recovering from a several week's illness.

Mrs. George Stanger spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Plagge in Rogers Park. Mrs. Plagge is Mrs. Stanger's sister.

Tuesday, Nov. 10, is visiting night at the Deerfield-Shields high school in Highland Park. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Donations for a rummage sale are being requested by the Woman's Association of the Deerfield Presbyterian church for a benefit on Oct. 28 and 29. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. W. F. Weir or any member of the association.

Mrs. Forrest J. Kepler (Jean McCombs) of Marquette, Mich., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. E. Pettis of Chestnut st.

The dahlia exhibit at the P. J. Duffy property on North Waukegan rd. has been attracting many flower loving motorists the past week.

A. L. Frey of West Deerfield rd. returned recently from a five month stay at Las Cruces, New Mexico, on the ranch of his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Petrie of Milwaukee were guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Huh of Deerfield rd. on Saturday. The Petries were en route to Chicago to visit a daughter. Mrs. Petrie is Mrs. Huh's cousin and before her marriage was Clara Iehl.

Milton Frantz has a huge sunflower in the window of his plumbing shop that was grown in his garden. The stalk was fourteen feet high and the blossom is twelve inches in diameter in the seed center. "The sunflower is a Landon emblem," said Mr. Frantz.

The Barretts of Wilmette were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Weir of Deerfield rd. on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and sons of Chicago were in the village on Sunday to attend the 60th Anniversary service of the Presbyterian church and spent the day with Mrs. Reeds' sister Mrs. C. Holmes. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchinson, are on an extended visit in Missouri.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf has been in the Highland Park hospital this past week.

Vincent Fore, Richard Hoffman, and George Horenberger left on Tuesday for enrollment in the CCC.

The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church is meeting Thursday (today) at the church. It is an all day meeting. There will be an exhibit of antiques.

Vonita Frost and Lena Thompson acted as hostesses on Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Y.P.M.C. at the Bethlehem church. Kenneth Vetter and Caryl Frantz were in charge of the program.

Bobby Moore is staying at the Arthur Merner home while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore are filling speaking engagements in the middle west. The Moores are missionaries home on furlough from Africa. They are to be in America until the first of January.

Mrs. D. N. Lidgerwood and her younger daughter, Mrs. Wayne Thomas (Dorothy) have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Lewis Coons in Blomossan, Vermont, and with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Bachus in Putnam, N.Y. They returned home on Sunday.

A. C. C. Timm has been ill this past week. Mr. Timm will be celebrating his 73rd birthday anniversary on Nov. 18.

Mrs. Mary McDevitt, who teaches the upper grades in the Bannockburn school, is living at the Edwin A. Wood home on Rosemary ter. Mrs. C. R. Sugden of Westgate rd. is also teaching there. Mrs. Richard Hamill is principal.

The Arthur Merner and Floyd Stanger families will celebrate their wedding anniversaries in October.

These neighbors have been observing this jointly for many years. The Stanger's anniversary was the twelfth and the Merner's is the twentieth of the month, so the party is usually held about middle of October.

More new residents in Deerfield: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Capitani, in the J. W. Lundquist house on Greenwood ave.; Victor C. Carlson in the W. J. Amendt house on Stratford rd.; the Vergne D. Mertz family in Mrs. Henry Pope's home on Landis lane; Mr. and Mrs. Olen Olmstead in the Bleimehl apartment formerly occupied by Richard Easton. New tenants will be moving into E. D. Bleimehl's bungalow on Deerfield road the latter part of this week. F. B. Williams was the realtor for the latter leasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fio-Rito have returned to Chicago after spending the summer at the Richard W. Farmer home in Bannockburn. They had leased the home from June 24 to Sept. 24. Mr. Fio-Rito is a famous orchestra leader.

Gus Klemp has sold his interest in his garage in Highland Park to his partner, Lester Stanger. Both young men are former Deerfield boys.

Dr. W. F. Weir was guest speaker last evening at a dinner meeting in Chicago Heights, where he organized a class in Church Administration for that presbytery. On Friday evening (tomorrow) Dr. Weir will deliver an address at a dinner meeting for Elders of the Chicago Presbytery to be held at the Central Y.M.C.A. in Chicago. On Oct. 25, church on Sunday evening, Oct. 25. Her subject is to be, "St. Paul's Teachings About Women." Rev. E. J. Brusco is minister of the church.

Mrs. Charles Hagblom fractured her wrist on Saturday, when she tried to crank her automobile. She was taken to Dr. C. J. Davis for X-rays and treatment.

Mrs. Sophia Brusco and Mrs. H. G. Oberg of Chicago spent Monday with their son and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Earl J. Brusco.

C. C. Kaphull was awarded a paving contract on Big Hollow Road in Lake county Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Stem and two children have gone to Albany, Ga., to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Smith. Mr. Stem will remain with the senior Stems. Ralph Stem, who has been attending a business college in Bowling Green, Ky., is now employed in Berkeley, W. Va.

David Stryker is staying at the home of Professor Williams on the campus of Lake Forest college where he is entering his Junior year.

Mrs. Robert L. Johnson has returned to her home on Brier Hill road from St. Francis hospital in Evanston, where she underwent a recent major operation.

Mrs. C. Johnston Davis opened her home on Monday afternoon for a meeting of the Girl Scout committee. Plans were formulated for the year's work. Troop One meets Wednesdays at 3:45 p. m. and Troop Two on Mondays at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Davis is captain of the junior troop and Josephine Schessler, the seniors.

Mrs. Molly Pfister had as her Sunday guests her sisters, Misses Margaret and Florence Carolan of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. George Vernal of Chicago were her guests on Tuesday.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Bethlehem church will meet Thursday, October 22, at 2:30 p. m. in the church. Mrs. Roscoe Westling and Mrs. John Vetter will be hostesses. Members will make contributions triple the size of their stockings to be used for church work.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stupey of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Juhrend of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul McHugh and family of West Lake Forest were guests on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rhinhart (Marcelline Juhrend).

Growing Every Day

Bring your children to us today for the photographs you, and they, will treasure through the years.

HECKETSWEILER STUDIO Photographers

7 SOUTH ST. JOHNS AVENUE

TELEPHONE H. P. 435

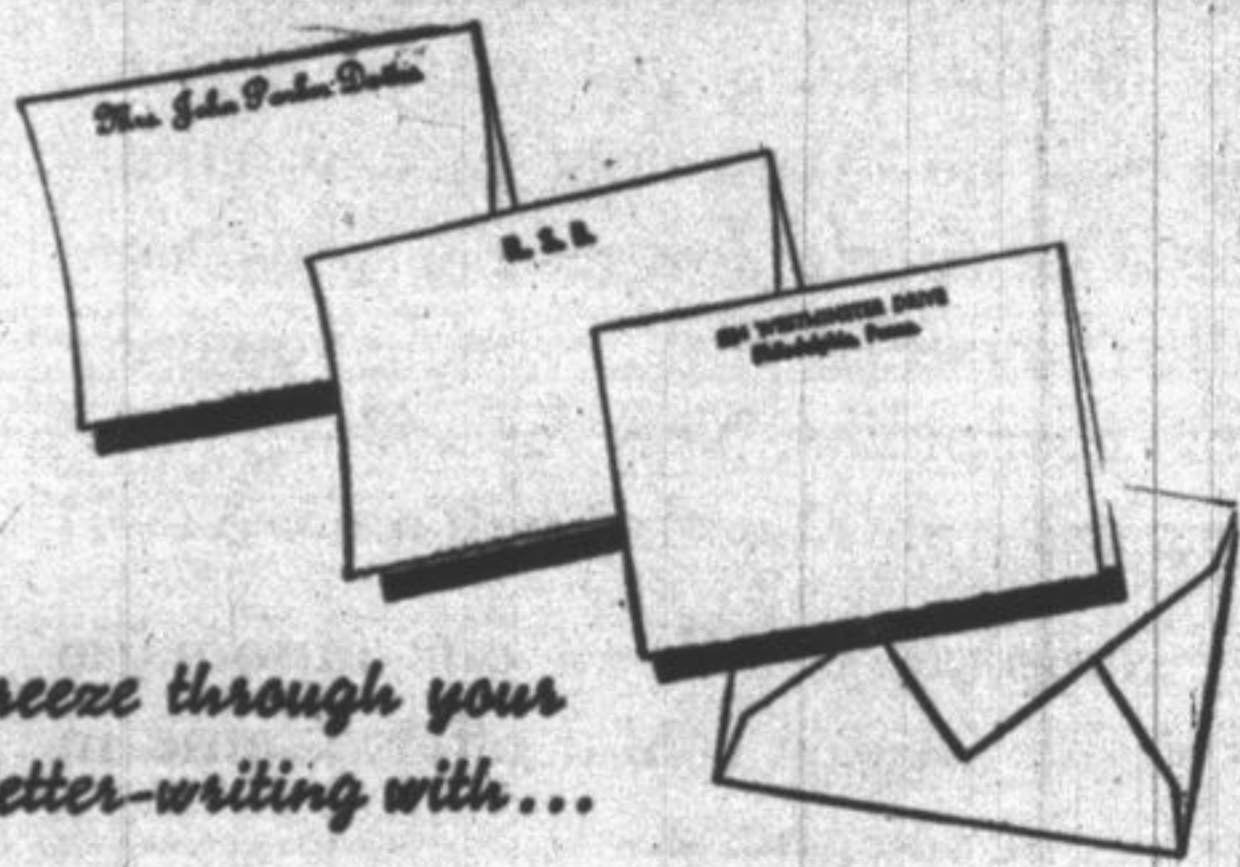

Hidden Values and Assets Revealed by Correct Landscape

Have your estimates for Fall developments taken care of at once.

Franken Bros. Inc.

Phone Deerfield 241

Breeze through your letter-writing with...

October Only!

Clever little deckled edge informals - gaily bordered... indispensable for short letters, informal invitations, "thank-you" notes... and delightful for gifts.

October Only!

100 INFORMALS
100 ENVELOPES

$1

Printed with Name, Address or Monogram on Informals in smartly correct lettering styles.

White, Vellum, Grey Threadloom or Ivory Threadloom... borders in blue, green, red and brown.

At this special low price be sure to buy a supply for future use and for Christmas gifts.

The Highland Park Press

536 Central Avenue

CALL ON THEM—by telephone IT'S QUICKER!

When you want to interview out-of-town customers around your sales territory in a jiffy—use your telephone to talk to them. It will save you many a trip—and take but a fraction of the time, energy and expense. Telephone calls keep you in close touch with your customers between trips and often save sales that might otherwise slip away. You can cover more territory in less time—by telephone. Try it a month and see.

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY