terested may attend. Each class discussion is complete in itself, and anyone wishing to come in next Monday may do so.

sion of the Contract Bridge class next Monday night, Mrs. Miner will give a special lecture on Leads Against No-trump and Suit Bids. Mrs. Miners is especially capable in this phase of the game, having studied

Town Crier Meets
Defeat in Centrella
Bowling Program

The Town Crier team just couldn't stand prosperity as league leaders and it took the Wilson Ideal Dog Food team who up to last Thursday's round had not won a game to humble the leaders by a score of 2 and 1. Linco Products, captained by Ed Rugen and manned by boys from Glencoe, continued its winning streak taking all 3 games from the Town Criers.
Stewart's Coffee advanced at the expense of Chef Milani's taking 2 out of 3 games. Manor House Col-fee also drew the attention of the gallery by dropping the hard hitting team from San Antonio, Texas, Gebhardt's Chili Con Carnes, who went down to a 2 and 1 count.

Old Monk had a busy evening trying to entertain Peacock 400 Club. After taking the first two games, they dropped the third by 54 pins.

New High Individual Mark Adolph Peterson, captain of the Town Criers, after watching his team lose two games to the lowly Wilson Ideals gave a splendid exhibition of what it takes to come back by rolling a neat 274, establishing a new mark for the sharpshooters to shoot at. The Town Criers led by their hard hitting captain registered a total of 888 for their third game which is taken as a notice that from here on the Town Criers will be heard from.

Applications for the 200 Club Following Adolph Peterson with his 274 mark came a repeater in the person of the league's chairman, Frank Waber, of Gebhardt's Chili team, with a score of 216. C. Foss Winter, Jr., captain of the Wilson Ideal Dog Food team, was the next applicant for membership in the 200 club with a score of 211. He was closely followed by Norman Witt of the Old Monk team who had a score of 210. The Stewart Coffee team presented Bob Bernstein for membership with 208 and Linco Products presented their captain, Ed. F. Rugen, with a total of 204.

The new rule governing starting time has been approved unanimously by the league officials and team captains. Every team must be on hand at 7 o'clock p.m. ready to roll. Any team not ready to bowl at 7:15 p.m. is to be assessed a dollar penalty for delay.

This rule was asked for by the management of Bleser's Bowling academy as a delayed start interferes with the Knights of Columbus Bowling league which has contracted for the use of the alleys at 9:15 p.m.
