25th Anniversary of Girl Scouts to Be Celebrated March 12

Mrs. William Mann and Mrs. Roy O. Nereim who have been attending as delegates, the Girl Scout 22nd annual convention in Cincinnati, Ohio, which was held under the presidency of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, returned to Highland Park with their message. Plans are being rapidly completed by the national organization for the celebration in 1937 of the Girl Scout 25th anniversary.

"There will be birthday parties on March 12 in every town where there is Girl Scouting." "In July there will be an international encampment at Camp Andree, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y., to which girls from the 26 nations which share the Girl Scout program have been invited by the American Girl Scouts. Lastly there will be the anniversary convention next October in Savannah, Ga., home of the late Juliette Gordon Low, the Girl Scout founder, who on March 12, 1912, gave the famous tea-party for eleven girls who, proved to be the first of the 14,432 troops now found in every state of the Union and all American territorial dependencies."

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the recent convention was the report on the nationwide program study which the organization initiated two years ago under the direction of Charles H. Young of McGill and Chicago universities and an advisory committee of educational and social work experts.

"Mr. Young reported to the convention on the findings of the study which was the fourth made by the organization during the 24 years of its existence." "The program is the instrument which the Girl Scouts use to attain their objective which is the development of the girl along physical, emotional, mental, moral and social lines so that she may become an intelligently participating citizen in a democratic social order. Naturally, we have to examine this instrument ever so often to see whether it is being kept in good repair."

The nationwide study had proved once again on what good foundation the leaders of the Girl Scout movement had built.

"The basic principles and philosophy of the movement remain unchanged." "The experts have recommended some changes in method for which, as Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady, chairman of the board, stated in her speech, the organization is ready."

A three-decker program, which would not change the activities but would adapt them better to the needs of the different age levels in Girl Scouting, was the main change recommended by Mr. Young and his committee.

"We need more adequate work for what might be described as the two end-groups in Girl Scouting." "That means the Brownie of 7 and 10 and the older Girl Scout of 14 to 18, for we have tended to concentrate on the middle group, aged 10 to 14. Now we have to shift the emphasis on the different program features and also on the method of presenting them, in order to suit the older and younger groups. Child care, for example, is one of our most popular activities. With a Brownie it would have to be presented in the form, perhaps, of play with dolls. With the middle-age Girl Scout it can take the form of really learning to handle a live baby, while the older girl might make a new approach through work in a clinic or a baby welfare station."

"Parties, discussions of current affairs and possible vocations in a grown-up world are matters which particularly interest the older girl might make a new approach through work in a clinic or a baby welfare station."

"Parties, discussions of current affairs and possible vocations in a grown-up world are matters which particularly interest the older group."

Mrs. Herbert Hoover had been re-elected national president by unanimous vote of the convention.

D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

"His Brother's Wife." Cast: Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Taylor, Jean Hersholt, Thursday, Nov. 5. A tense melodrama with its action alternating from sophisticated night clubs to fever-wracked jungles. The story tells of a girl's revenge which soon turns into a boomerange. Although the production values are excellent, the story is highly improbable. Adults.

"Without Orders." Cast: Sally Eilers, Robert Armstrong, Frances Sage, Friday, Saturday, Nov. 6, 7. A film with plenty of sky thrills. Good but rather tense. Adults and young adults.

"China Clipper." Cast: "Pat O'Brien, Beverly Roberts, Ross Alexander, Henry B. Walthall, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Nov. 8, 9, 10. Dynamic and powerful is this drama of aviation history, which tells of the heroic life work of a war time pilot who dared to dream of trans-oceanic travel. An excellent cast gives inspiring and realistic characterizations, with Pat O'Brien' outstanding as the determined, courageous pilot. This picture, engrossing in its entertainment value, merits wide acclaim. Family.

"Mary of Scotland." Cast: Katharine Hepburn, Frederic March, Florence Eldridge, Wednesday, Thursday, Nov. 11, 12. Mary of Scotland" is a film that the young people should not miss. It is bound to stir an interest in history and the authenticity of the settings, the fidelity, in the major events at least, to historical tradition, make it worthwhile. Family.

Safety Consciousness Should Be Aroused

The desire for reckless speed is still in the minds of many drivers. Speed to get somewhere at a wild pace, although when you get there you have nothing better to do than turn around and return. Needless, heedless chances. Cutting all corners, taking all the chances that might be taken, beating every light and signal, driving like a demon through the crowded streets. Trying to pass everybody, laughing, talking, eating, drinking, and in the next minute a crash. What is the sense of it? Who is to blame? Such an occurrence or description of speed is a common report in newspapers daily. The American public shrugs its shoulders and reads on. Not until we arouse a safety consciousness in the minds of the entire public will such recklessness stop.

One hundred cubic yards of crushed stone to cover the entire playground has been brought in this week. Gravel, sand and cement to make a new driveway and to make an entrance into the new kitchen has also arrived. Paint for all outside woodwork, and to paint all inside work not already done is on hand. We are looking daily for new slate blackboards for all the old part of the building, and new light fixtures have also been ordered.

One hundred yards of new rubber matting has been purchased by the board to lay on the main aisles of traffic on the floors. It is hoped that this will not only save the floors but that it will prevent children from sliding and deaden the noise somewhat.

INVITATION TO BURGLARS

"Mr. Thief:

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Doe will NOT be at home on the evening of the fifteenth. There are valuable securities, silverware and jewelry lying unprotected in the house. You are invited to be present."

No one would write such an invitation.

But the mere act of leaving valuables unguarded in your home is an open invitation to burglars.

Why run this risk—when the rental of a safe deposit box in our vault is only a cent or two a day?
