

Prof. McGovern at Sisterhood Nov. 16

Professor William M. McGovern, teacher of political science at Northwestern university, explorer, and author of several important volumes on the life and religion of the East, will address the Annual Peace Meeting of the Sisterhood on Monday, November 16. The subject of his address will be "Clouds Over the Orient."

Dr. McGovern's intense study of the current international scene and his intimate contact with the life and thought of the people of the Orient on many explorations and travels in Asia assure a stimulating and an authoritative discussion. Everyone is cordially invited.

The day's activities will, as usual, open with sewing at 9 o'clock in the morning. There will be a box luncheon at noon followed by the business meeting and the program will start at 2:15.

Centrella Bowling League Advances Handicap Date

Scot Towels and Wilson Ideal Dog Food supported by the members of the Peacock 400 Club team petitioned the officials of the Centrella Bowling League to establish handicaps in order to strengthen the positions of these three trailing teams.

Old Monk and Linco Lead. The Old Monk team took the League leaders into camp winning two out of three games from the Town Crier Flour boys while Linco Products downed the Gebhardt Chill Gon Carnes two out of three, claiming a right to share the top position in the league with Old Monk, sending Town Crier into third place.

Chef Milani's moved down the Peacock 400 Club 3 straight games, as did Stewarts Coffee vs. Wilson Ideal Dog Food and not to be outdone by the coffee drinkers from Stewarts, the boys wearing the colors of Manor House Coffee downed their opponents taking all 3 games from Scot Towels.

League Standing table with columns for TEAM, Won, Lost. Lists teams like Old Monk, Linco, Town Crier, Gebhardt's Chill, Manor House Coffee, Stewarts Coffee, Chef Milani, Peacock 400 Club, Wilson Ideal Dog Food, Scot Towels.

Pairings for Thursday's Games. Town Crier Flour meets Scot Towels. Linco Products meets Old Monk. Stewarts Coffee meets Gebhardt's Chill. Peacock 500 Club meets Manor House Coffee. Wilson Ideal Dog Food meets Milani's.

Team and Individual Standings. League Treasurer Edwin F. Rugen announced that a printed schedule and a list of prizes will be made up in the near future, prior to the holidays.

W. C. Haltenhoff to Head County Council Religious Education

At a meeting of the Executive committee of the Lake County Council of Religious Education, held at Waukegan last Sunday, William C. Haltenhoff, of Lake Forest, was chosen president of the organization, to fill a vacancy created by the removal from the county of Rev. A. Melvin Tinker.

Some of the plans decided upon for the year include a county young people's conference to be held at Libertyville during the Christmas holidays, under the direction of the young peoples committee, headed by Baker Hamilton, Jr., of Highland Park, and Ruth Minto, of Millburn; a county institute for teachers of children, under the leadership of Dorothea Rasmussen, of Waukegan, and a county visitation campaign, when all Sunday schools and young peoples societies in the churches of the county will be visited by representatives of the organization.

Men's Club Plans Diversified Program

An unusually fine program of diversified interest will be given at the next meeting of the Men's Club
