The Deerfield Parent-Teacher association will sponsor its annual fall card party, Friday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 2:30 o'clock. A very lovely party is being arranged by the chairman, Mrs. O. F. Burnett, Jr., and her committee. The community is urged to lend its support to the party.

The association met Friday, Nov. 13, at the school auditorium. Mrs. Elsa M. Lord of Chicago Milk Foundation was guest speaker and gave a most instructive talk on "Protective Foods." Milk, vegetables and fruit are the "protective foods" for the growing child to which a fourth—eggs—may be added. These foods should be included in the daily diet to the extent of a quart of milk, a leafy or yellow vegetable besides potatoes, and a fresh fruit. To this list are added, bread, a whole wheat cereal, meat or a protein substitute, fats, which include butter and natural sugar. In conclusion, Mrs. Lord added that with correct foods, proper rest is essential for the building of healthy bodies and alert minds.

The attendance prize was awarded for the October meeting to Miss Moffitts third grade group.

Tea was served by the seventh grade mothers with Miss Leta Toll and Mrs. E. F. Segert pouring.—Contributed.
