Highwood Scouts Hold Court

The Scouts of Highwood held a Court of Honor last Friday evening at the Oak Terrace school. Judge Perry L. Persons of Waukegan was the speaker. Mr. Paul Muzik, commissioner of the Highwood district of the North Shore Area council, was in charge of the arrangements and program and procured a large number of men to assist in the awarding of the badges and the other business of the court.

Among those present and assisting were: J. E. Enquist, district chairman; Otto Fisher, finance chairman; Frank Graun, chairman Court of Honor, both of Waukegan; Mr. Bederman of North Chicago Boys' club; Henry Foval, commander second division American Legion; J. B. Jackson, commissioner; Honorable John Meyers, mayor of Highwood; Guy Viti of the Holy Name society; Arthur A. Kehrwald, member of the school board; Marshall Williams, troop 36; Roy Russell, troop 37; Paul Blum, adjutant, Highwood American Legion; Clyde Cameron, commander American Legion; Louis Young, scoutmaster troop 38; Lloyd Moon, scoutmaster troop 37, and C.
