CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Life" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 17.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou wilt shew me the path of life" (Psalms 16:5, 11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God" (Psalms 90:1, 2).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I Am, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (p. 289-290).

D. A. R. BETTER FILMS REVIEW

"Follow Your Heart." Cast: Marion Talley, Michael Bartlett, Henrietta Crossman, Thursday, January 21, Marion Talley, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera company, makes her screen debut in a lavishly staged musical production featuring familiar operatic and specially arranged dances. Miss Talley's singing and that of Michael Bartlett is of fierce artistic calibre and the Hall-Johnson choir is impressive. Adults and young adults.

"Back To Nature." Cast: Jed Pronty, Shirley Dean, Dixie Dunbar, Tony Martin, Friday, Saturday, January 22, 23. When Mr. Jones is selected to make the most important speech of the Druggist's Convention, the members of his family decide to accompany him and "go back to nature" in a modern way, so they buy a trailer. Naturalness on the part of the cast, some lovely photography of the out-of-doors, clean comedy and a good story are the outstanding features of this very human production. Family.

"Oh! Hutch." Cast: Wallace Berry, Eric Linden, Cecilia Parker, Elizabeth Patterson, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, January 24, 25, 26. A man who hadn't "gotten round to going to work" in twenty years finds a reason for trying it. A homely story of backwoods folk full of human interest and held together with exceeding humorous dialogue. Family.

"The Big Broadcast of 1937." Cast: Jack Benny, Burns and Allen, Bob Burns, Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. Wednesday, Thursday, January 26, 27. Leopold Stokowski and the Philadelphia orchestra make this film one to see and hear, the inside story of broadcasting and the close-up of orchestral instruments, with explanatory comments, are illuminating. There is a light touch in the plot which, with the best music played by one of the world's finest orchestras, will put over the film with both movie and music fans. Family.
