

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Catholic Activities

The women of the Holy Cross church, Deerfield, will sponsor a bake sale on Saturday, Jan. 23, at the A & P Tea Store. Mrs. Hubert McGuire and Mrs. Eugene Ender are heading the committee.

The Catholic young people are planning a card party and entertainment for Thursday evening, Jan. 22, at eight o'clock in the parish hall.

Drama Group

"The Three-Cornered Moon" is the intriguing title of the comedy-drama to be staged by the Presbyterian Dramatic club of Deerfield on Friday evening, Feb. 26, at the Deerfield Grammar school, under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher association. Rehearsals began this week, directed by Kenneth Hunter. There are nine members in the cast.

R.N.A. Installation

The Deerfield Camp of Royal Neighbors of America will hold a public installation on Thursday evening, Jan. 23, at the Masonic Temple. The four neighboring camps—Highland Park, Northbrook, Wheeling and Prairie View—will be guests of honor. Oracle Margaret Pettis extends an invitation to the community.

S. S. Convention

District One of the Lake County Council of Religious Education met Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's church in Deerfield and elected the following officers: President, Rev. Earl J. Bruso of Deerfield; vice president, H. D. Faxon of Highland Park; secretary and treasurer, Virginia Easton of Deerfield; children's division superintendent, Phyllis Dexter of Highland Park; young people's superintendent, Harry Skidmore of Highland Park; and Mrs. F. C. Norenberg is adult division superintendent. Dr. Frank McKibben of Northwestern university, delivered the address of the day.

Death

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Dec. 30, for H. J. Allardt, who passed away the preceding Monday in Chicago. Services and burial were at Graceland. Mr. Allardt was a son of the first pastor of St. Paul's church and came to Deerfield 62 years ago, with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. W. Allardt from Piqua, Ohio. Mrs. Josephine Rommel, his sister, is now the only remaining member of that family and she has spent all the 62 years in Deerfield.

Because of the success of their recent amateur show the Deerfield Chapter of the Eastern Star is preparing for another to be given on Friday evening, April 2. The date is being announced in advance so that contestants may interview Harold R. Vant, who will again act as master of ceremonies. Those interested in participating are asked to confer with Mr. Vant.

Ewart Goldring, son of Dr. and Mrs. James Goldring, former Deerfield resident, is a teacher in the Wyoming State Mining School in the chemistry department. The Goldrings lived for years in the George Antes house on Deerfield road. Their son, Ewart and his wife, reside in Wyoming and their other son, Dr. Willard Goldring, is a dentist in Marengo, Ill. The senior Goldrings now live at View Royal, Victoria, British Columbia, in Canada.

Mrs. Frank Schar was a Sunday guest at the John Baker home in Palatine.

Agnes Derby has been unable to attend high school but one day this year because of a severe knee injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger were Sunday guests at the Plagge home in Barrington.

Mrs. Anthony J. Mercurio, was the over night guest on Wednesday at the home of her brother, Mr. L. Mirabella, in Oak Park.

Mrs. E. H. Selig entertained at cards on Thursday afternoon at her home on Waukegan road.

Mrs. Wesley Stryker (Florence Page) was hostess at luncheon on Tuesday.

Miss Sylvia Johnson was given a surprise party by eight of her high school friends last Wednesday evening in honor of her fifteenth birthday anniversary at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson of Todd court.

Robert Hatch and Gilbert Douglas returned home from San Francisco on Saturday. They had gone west with a transport of automobiles.

Otto Trute suffered painful injuries last week when a tractor ran over one of his feet while he was working near Glenview. Mr. Trute is employed by Clavey's Ravinia Nurseries.

Ward Reichert Anderson received a head injury last Wednesday when he fell from a fence on the playground of the Deerfield Grammar school. This was the same day that his mother, Mrs. Carl T. Anderson, was injured in an automobile accident at Skokie highway. Troubles never seem to come singly.

A luncheon is being held today (Thursday) at the Deerfield Presbyterian church sponsored by the young matrons, a group from the Woman's association. A fine program has been planned for the afternoon.

At a meeting of the Holy Name society last Tuesday evening at the Holy Cross parish hall the following officers were elected: president, Richard Kress; vice president, Albert Bartels; treasurer, Arthur Ender; secretary, Fred Coleman.

Mrs. Helen Moore has been ill in the Waukegan Hospital. Her health improved, she is now at the Renner home in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter and son, Kenneth, visited Miss Doris Hunter at the University of Chicago on Sunday. Mr. Hunter left Tuesday on a business trip in Minnesota and the Dakotas.

There was no January meeting of the Bannockburn Garden club because of illness in many of the homes of that village.

Charles Kapschull, Jr., suffered painful cuts about the face in a recent automobile accident. Mrs. Kapschull and daughter, Barbara, who were with him, were fortunate to escape injury.

Deerfield Chapter of the Eastern Star will entertain members of the Masonic lodge and their wives at a party to be held this evening at the Masonic Temple. A Washington birthday party is scheduled for February 25 at the temple. The party will be open to the public.

The Wilmot Mothers' club is sponsoring a benefit card party tomorrow evening at the Wilmot Grammar school on West Deerfield road at the west limits of the village. Mrs. Leslie Behrens is general chairman of arrangements.

Mrs. Joseph Hanson of Half Day road underwent a major operation in Waukegan on Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Baum and two children will remain in Sarasota, Florida, until May. The family went south during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Baum has returned north, but the others will stay until the close of school.

William Weber of Washington, D. C., visited at the Jacob Ott home on Sunset court last week.

Mrs. Chester Wolf entertained her sewing club at luncheon on Tuesday at her home on West Deerfield road. John Derby and Samuel Joseph, who are in the employ of C. C. Kapschull, are leaving this week on a business trip to Oregon. Mrs. Joseph will visit her parents, the Isaac Cohens, in Winnipeg, Canada, during their absence. The Josephs have been staying at the Harrington home on Greenwood avenue.

Five Deerfield boys left for CCC service on Friday. Clarence Beckman is at West Allis, Wis., and the others went to Standish, near Chicago, in Michigan. The four Michigan boys are Edwin Johnson, Robert Carl Olson and Francis Schessler.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson of Galesburg have leased the lower apartment in the Fehr building on Deerfield avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roeder are occupying the east side of the Fehr house which is next to the apartment building.

The Glenn Taylors of Hazel avenue are planning to spend February in Florida.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Scully and Mr. Charles House of Chicago will be solemnized on February 20 at the Scully home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson are entertaining the Bethlehem Fide-side club this evening at their home on Central avenue.

The Mutual club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Floyd Stanger.

Mrs. Katherine Pantle is recovering from her recent illness at her home on Wilmot road. Mrs. Pantle will be celebrating her 73rd birthday anniversary in July.

Billy Krch will be celebrating his ninth birthday anniversary on Wednesday.

Leslie Fry of Niagara Falls, N. Y., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fry of West Deerfield road, last week. Mr. Fry is leaving February first on a business trip to Russia.

Edward Frost, who received the appointment as extra clerk at the Deerfield post office is not accepting the position as he is now employed in Chicago. The examination for this work was held in the Deerfield Grammar school last September. As this appointment is only for rush seasons such as Christmas holidays it would be only temporary work. Edward is the son of the Democratic precinct committeeman for precinct one, Earl Frost and Mrs. Frost of Osterman avenue. He was the highest of the ten who took the examination.

Anthony J. Mercurio has returned to his home on South Waukegan road from a trip to St. Louis.

Robert Pfister of Joliet spent several days of last week with his mother, Mrs. Mrs. Pfister, minister of North Chestnut street, Chicago.

Mrs. Anna Deane, who is a member of the Deerfield club, is in Chicago today at her home in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Cox (Barricett Stryker) will occupy the apartment vacated by Miss Jennie Olson, in the Stryker block. Miss Olson is staying at the Chester Westling home on Rosemary terrace.

Word comes from Thorp, Wis., that the Henry Solies have a baby son whom they have named Robert. There are two little daughters in the family, Janice, who is six, and Barbara who is four. Mrs. Solie will be remembered as Margaret Hansen, who taught both in the Deerfield and Northbrook grade schools before her marriage.

Mrs. Floyd Stanger was hostess to a group of her friends yesterday afternoon at her home on Forest avenue.

Mrs. E. H. Selig will entertain her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Roggow spent Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. William Ritchiger, in Cicero.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson attended a party on Saturday evening at the home of the Richard Jahnes in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Protine and children of Elmhurst, visited on Sunday at the Walter Page home.

The Joseph O'Connors of Osterman avenue were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wilson in Lake Forest on Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Siljestrom of Saunders road visited her mother, Mrs. Julia A. Seyl, at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mau and two children, Alice Jane and Frederick Simons, Jr., of Chicago, visited at the William D. Johnston home on Fair Oaks avenue on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mehriem and son of Cicero spent Sunday at the Clarence W. Reppening home on Greenwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Churchill of Merton Grove were guests at the Reppening home on Tuesday.

The Saturday Evening Neighborhood club met last week with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Uchman. They meet at the Samuel Rockenbach home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Varner of Highland Park were guests at the Louis E. Parker home on North Waukegan road on Wednesday.

Artistic PORTRAITS

Are very moderate in price at our studio. Phone for an appointment today.

HECKETSWEILER STUDIO Photographers

7 SOUTH ST. JOHNS AVENUE
TELEPHONE H. P. 435

Quality Cleaners
Phone H. P. 178
RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

January Clearance

25% REDUCTION ON ALL LAMPS

AT YOUR PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

ALL STYLES! ALL MODELS! BIG BARGAINS!

EASY TO BUY
Low, convenient terms, payments on your Electric Service bill.

● Hurry! Don't miss this chance! Beautiful, modern lamps—all styles... all sizes... all models—now being sold at drastically reduced prices. 25% reduction on all lamps! Lamps for every purpose... floor, table, study, boudoir, bridge and decorative models... for every room in the home. Many are I. E. S. Better Sight

Lamps—scientifically constructed to give adequate, proper light for every seeing need. Lamps that provide 6 to 10 times as much useful light. Save money while this great event is going on! Get an attractive new lamp for your home—at a saving of 25%. See the complete display at your Public Service Store.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

HAVE MODERN BUSINESS IDEAS? THEN YOU NEED NEW LETTER HEADS

If you are a progressive thinker and have an up-to-date organization, you will want a letterhead that tells the world of your attitude!

We'll design one for you!

The Udell Printing Co.
Phone H. P. 557

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM
43 NORTH SHERIDAN ROAD
Open: WEEK DAYS 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
SATURDAY 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.
SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS, 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
You are cordially invited to visit the Reading Room, where the Bible and authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.
Maintained by
First Church of Christ, Scientist
Highland Park

HOWARD MORAN
Plumbing and Heating
ELECTROL OIL BURNERS
512 1/2 Laurel Avenue - Highland Park
Shop Phone, Highland Park 271 - Residence, H. P. 439