

Rebekah Lodge Plans Party for February 15

Sheridan Rebekah lodge No. 801 will hold a public grocery and White Elephant Corn party on Monday night, February 15 in the Masonic temple.

On Monday evening, February 1, a school of instruction was held for new officers. Mrs. Gertrude Gossman acted as instructor, as she has for the past several years, and the evening was voted to have been of great benefit to all.

On Friday evening, January 29, Mrs. Edna Watkins, 216 Sheridan avenue, Highland, opened her home for the Alma club, an organization consisting of the noble grands, vice grands, and junior past noble grands of District No. 3.

Deerfield Club Plans Food Demonstration

The next meeting of the Deerfield Woman's club will be Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 9, at 2:30 o'clock in the Grammar school.

Mrs. Nellie P. Flynn, Social Service worker of Highland Park district, gave the club an interesting talk at the last meeting to familiarize the women with the work of the Social Service.

Mrs. Robert L. Johnston entertained the club in her own delightful way about a trip through the Panama Canal zone.

Township Government Is Subject of Talk Feb. 9 in Deerfield

The second in the series of talks sponsored by the Deerfield Unit No. 738, American Legion Auxiliary, will be presented in the auditorium of the Deerfield Grammar school on Tuesday morning, Feb. 9, at 9:00 o'clock.

These talks which are given for seventh and eighth grade pupils of the three local grade schools—Bannockburn, Wilmet and Deerfield—are also open to adult members of the community.

George McGaughey, corporation counsel for Waukegan and Deerfield spoke this week Tuesday on Village Affairs.

Deerfield C of C Elects New Officers

The Deerfield Chamber of Commerce met Thursday evening at Shugrue's restaurant for its annual election of officers, with Dr. C. R. Sugden presiding.

The board of directors is composed of the following members: Dr. C. R. Sugden, R. A. Nelson, J. R. Notz, M. A. Frantz, Earl Hurt, E. H. Selig, and Raymond Meyer.

Mid-Year Term At Waukegan School Begins February 1

Lake College of Commerce of Waukegan which starts its mid-year term February 1 in day classes, may have a record-breaking enrollment this year.

Equipment that will meet the requirements of a bigger and broader program of business education has been devised and installed.

In conjunction with this training, the personal satisfactions of the student are satisfied through individual lockers, recreational facilities, and club activities.

There are four courses, secretarial, accounting, stenographic, computation, and a filing and indexing course that is combined with the above four.

As previously announced, night school classes will open February 2 and 4, with the same standards and methods of instruction.

D. A. R. BETTER FILMS REVIEW

"Under Your Spell." Cast: Lawrence Tibbett, Wendy Barrie, Gregory Ratoff, Thursday, Feb. 4. A noted singer driven to distraction by the activities outlined for him by an over-zealous publicity manager, breaks away for a quiet vacation.

"Hideaway Girl." Cast: Shirley Ross, Martha Raye, Robert Cummings, Thursday, Feb. 4. The story of a bride who runs away at the end of the ceremony into a series of humorous and complicated situations and is involved in the disappearance of a valuable necklace.

"The Texas Rangers." Cast: Fred MacMurray, Jack Oakie, Lloyd Nolan, Jean Parker, Friday, Saturday, Feb. 5, 6. This is an out-of-the-ordinary western story of three outlaws, two of whom join the rangers, thinking it will aid them in their plundering game.

"A Midsummer's Night Dream." Cast: Ian Hunter, Dick Powell, Ross Alexander, Olivia de Havilland, Joe E. Brown, Victor Jory, music by Felix Mendelssohn, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Feb. 7, 8, 9. The Preview Board of Musical Films considers "A Midsummer Nights' Dream" a film of such unusual educational and artistic worth that it merits the support of those community leaders who wish to see the best in the literary and musical world in the cinema.

beautiful combination of Shakespeare and Mendelssohn such as could not be achieved except on the screen, is likely to be passed by the average moviegoer who may be dismayed by the classic portent of the title. Family.

"The Smartest Girl in Town." Cast: Gene Raymond Ann Sothorn, Helen Broderick, Eric Blou, Wednesday, Thursday, Feb. 10, 11. Fast moving comedy with a clever cast. A beautiful model plans to marry only for money, but finally finds both love and money. High entertainment value.

"General Spanky." Cast: 'Spanky' McFarland, Phillip Holmes, Ralph Morgan, Wednesday, Thursday, Feb. 10, 11. An amusing episode of southern life during the days of the Civil war, enlivened by pleasing musical selections, many of them plantation melodies. The slight story pleasantly burlesqued, concerns a small boot-black and his pal, befriended by a generous passenger on a Mississippi river boat. Casting, acting and direction are excellent, offering a fine balance of comedy and drama. Family.
