DEERFIELD LOCALS

Card Parties
Two card parties are scheduled for this week-end in Deerfield. On Friday evening, the St. Paul's Men's Club will sponsor a public card party in the social rooms of St. Paul's church, at 8 o'clock. The following night, Saturday, at the same hour the Deerfield American Legion and Auxiliary will give a public party in the Masonic Temple.

Elections
February 5 is the first day for filing petitions for the April election. Township offices to be filled will be for supervisor, town clerk, justices of the peace, etc. Reports predict an interesting contest.

Red Cross
Mrs. Donald Easton, Deerfield chairman of the Red Cross, is receiving donations of clothing and money. The Deerfield Woman's Club voted $10 and the Deerfield Grammar school children gave over $30. Because each church and the various organizations are all collecting and sending to other headquarters it is difficult to determine the local total gift of money. However, Deerfield has responded most generously, both at home and in Chicago.

White Elephant Sale
The Bethlehem Woman's Auxiliary will give a pot luck supper for the members of the church and families on Friday evening, Feb. 12, in the church. Following the supper there will be a white elephant sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bach and Mr. Bach's sister, Mrs. Ross Sherman, celebrate January 31 each year together. It is the wedding anniversary of the Bachs and the birth date of Mrs. Sherman. Last Tuesday evening the event was observed in the Bach home in Northbrook and on Saturday evening the occasion was celebrated in the Sherman home. Mrs. August Mueller (Pearl Bach) of Foley, Alabama, has been visiting in this vicinity and is prolonging her stay because the floods have made the return trip south impossible. Another party recently was the birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. Hattie Bach, who was 83 on January 11.

Mrs. Ross Sherman had as her guests on Monday Mrs. Walter Toll, Mrs. Louis Soefker, Mrs. Edwin Palmer, and Mrs. Earl Frost.

Mrs. Mona Desmond Benson and children, and Mrs. Caroline Becker of Waukegan spent Thursday with Mrs. August Mueller of Foley, Ala., at the Sherman home and were dinner guests that evening at the Eugene Becker home on Warrington road.

Rev. Edward Henninger of the South Shore Evangelical church in Chicago will be the guest speaker on Sunday at the 4:30 vesper service at the Bethlehem church. The service is in national observance of Day of Prayer. Following the vesper service the young people of the church will be hosts at tea. Rev. Henninger will speak again at the Young Peoples Forum in the evening. The forum is the combined C. E. and the Y. P. M. C., all young people of the church having united into one organization.

Mrs. Maurine Kennedy of Seattle, Wash., a niece of the late Mrs. Carl Stadler, has been in this vicinity for the past several months and has been assisting in arrangements for the two Stadler girls. On Friday, Elizabeth Ann and Belinda Stadler enrolled at the Park Ridge School for Girls.

Deerfield Legion Auxiliary members will attend a tenth district meeting in Lake Forest on Wednesday, Feb. 10, at the Lake Forest Legion Home. The meeting will be preceded by a dinner honoring last year's state president, Mrs. Ada Muckelstone.

The Altar and Rosary society met Friday evening at the Holy Cross rectory, with Mrs. Earl Frost, the new president, presiding. Mrs. John Welch was appointed social chairman; Mrs. Hubert McGuire, altars; and Mrs. Alex Willman, publicity chairman. The next activity of the group is to be a bake sale on February 20. Mrs. D. J. Ginter and Mrs. Thomas Mooney are in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Ralph Dunham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter in Ettrick, Wis.

Mrs. Lewis Mills and three daughters of Diamond Lake were Sunday guests of their aunts, the Misses Viola and Irene Rockenbach.

Roy Baxman, nephew of Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and Miss Bertha Freese of Deerfield road, passed away Monday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. C. Johnston Davis was hostess to the members of the Just Sew club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Molly Carolan Pfister has received word from her son, Stephen and his family, from the flooded area at Harrisburg, Ill., saying that they are safe. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pfister and baby moved out just in time and went to Carleton, Ill., to stay with relatives. Water reached the eaves of their home at the peak of the flood. Just what condition the home will be in for future use is problematical.

Henry Clifford Hawes of Brier Hill road is reported seriously ill in the Highland Park hospital.

Miss Pearl Wilson of Saunders road spent several days of last week with Miss Evelyn Hallstrom.

The Wellmer family moved from Downers Grove to the upper flat in the Fehr building on Deerfield road. The lower flat is now occupied by the Charles Petersons of Galesburg.

Mrs. Robert E. Pettis will give a short talk on Social Service Work in Deerfield this noon following the weekly luncheon of the Deerfield Rotary club. Dr. Walter Metcalf is in charge of today's program.

A clothing depot is open every Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Phil Scully, 1103 Osterman avenue, for those who need clothing. Mrs. Scully is Community Service chairman of the Deerfield Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Ralph Dunham will entertain the older girls of the Junior Auxiliary at her home on Tuesday, February 12.

Mrs. G. A. A. Willen is entertaining her contract bridge club at luncheon today, at her home on Springfield avenue.

Elizabeth Ann and Belinda Stadler, the two little daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stadler, are attending the Park Ridge School for Girls.

Rehearsals are in progress for the comedy-drama, "The Three-Cornered Moon," which is to be presented on Friday evening, Feb. 26, by the Presbyterian Dramatic club at the Deerfield Grammar school, for the P.T.A. The lovely old garments of the past generation which were Mrs. Marie Ward Reichelt's grandmother's, have been given by the daughters of the late Mrs. Reichelt, to the Deerfield Dramatic club director, Kenneth Hunter, for use in future period plays. These dresses have been worn by dramatic groups of both Highland Park and Deerfield this past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin (Gertrude Beckley) have moved from the Beckley house on Fair Oaks avenue to the home of Mrs. Peter Leist.

The next meeting of the Deerfield Woman's club is to be an open meeting. Two local merchants will sponsor a food demonstration. Young Matrons, especially, are to be most cordially welcomed, according to Grocer Clarence Wilson. An invitation is extended to the entire community for this unusual program, which Mrs. Walter Metcalf is arranging for Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 9, at the Deerfield Grammar school.

Mrs. Fred Protine (Susie Easton) and children of Elmhurst spent Saturday with relatives in the village.

The Deerfield Village Board of Trustees will meet on Tuesday evening, February 9, in the Masonic Temple. The Deerfield Fire Department room, adjoining the temple has been newly decorated.

Mrs. Earl Hurt entertained her bridge club yesterday afternoon.

Jessie Mae Page was hostess to twelve little girls on Saturday afternoon in honor of her thirteenth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Eugene Cooks opened her home on Friday for a meeting of Presbyterian Dorcas Circle Four. Mrs. Raymond Dobbins, who was to have been the hostess, has the flu.

Mrs. George Richards, who now resides in California, has been visiting former neighbors in this vicinity the past week.

St. Paul's Guild is meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. G. Klemm in Highland Park. Last evening, the guild gave a party for the husbands at the home of the C. V. Steiners of Rosemary terrace.

The Eastern Star Guild will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Chester Wessling.

Richard Merner who attends the University of Illinois, will spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merner.

Raymond Meyer is progressing nicely following a major operation at the Augustana hospital in Chicago.

Mrs. Ambrose Cox (Harriett Stryker) was given a bridal shower last Thursday by the Bethlehem Woman's Auxiliary following their regular monthly meeting, at the home of Mrs. T. G. Johnson. Officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Mrs. Chester Wessling; vice president, Mrs. Robert Page; secretary, Mrs. Clarence Scott; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Giss.

The Independent Social Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., in Deerfield road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson and son, David, of Whiting, Ind., were Sunday guests at the John Stryker home. Mrs. Gibson is Mr. Stryker's youngest sister. Miss Edith Stryker has returned from a visit with the Strykers in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Philip Scully and daughter attended the funeral of Mrs. Le Roy Scully's grandfather, Otto Andler, in Chicago on Tuesday.

The Wednesday luncheon bridge club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. G. A. A. Willen.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jahnke of Evanston and Mrs. J. T. Peterson of Wilmette were Sunday guests at the C. E. Olson home on Greenwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holloway (Dorothy Johnston) and daughter, Shirley, of Lockport, Ill., visited at the William Johnston home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richter have as their house guests, Mrs. Richter's sister Miss Alice Bass and her gance Roman Zimmer, both of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Mary Beardsley of Northbrook spent Friday with Mrs. John A. Hoffman.

Mrs. Albert Antes of Chicago was a guest on Thursday at the home of her brother, Milton A. Franz. In the evening she attended the Deerfield R.N.A. installation in the Masonic Temple.

A dessert luncheon and card party will be given Thursday afternoon (today) at the Holy Cross rectory by the women of the church with Mrs. Earl Frost and Mrs. Hubert McGuire as hostesses.

Beginning Saturday, February 6, the Deerfield Post Office will close on Saturdays at noon.

Mrs. James Mailfield, Mrs. Frank Berning, and Mrs. John Ott will be hostesses today when the Ladies' Aid society meets for its monthly afternoon session at St. Paul's church. Mrs. John Beckman is program chairman.

The next Sunday Evening club program will be held February 14, at St. Paul's church with a musical entertainment by John Burdette, baritone.

John Engstrom was home for the week-end from the University of Illinois. Next week-end both John and his sister, Helen, will visit their parents, the George Engstroms of Central avenue, as it is the mid-semester vacation.

Mrs. Albert Roggow attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Henry Eberlie, in Chicago on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose K. Cox were hosts to a group of their friends Tuesday evening at their home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Richard Walsh has returned from Woodstock where she spent the week.

George Engstrom is in St. Louis on a business trip.

Miss Olive Frantz who attends North Central college, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Frantz. They returned to Naperville with her on Sunday.

Dr. William F. Weir will lead a discussion in the Chicago Presbyterian Minister's Fellowship on the subject "Christianity—A Perpetual Act of Judgment."

Mrs. Milton O. Olson of West Deerfield road, will open her home for a social for the Presbyterian Woman's Bible class, of which she is the teacher, on Thursday, Feb. 11.
