Sisterhood to Hear Dr. Leo L. Honer

"New Trends in Jewish Education" will be discussed by Dr. Leo L. Honer at the next meeting of the Sisterhood of North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, on Monday afternoon, February 15, at 2 o'clock. Dr. Honer is now executive director of the Board of Jewish Education in Chicago and has been for some years head of the College of Jewish Education in Chicago and has been for some years head of the College of Jewish Studies. He is a speaker of force and ability with a background of practical experience and scholarship.

In addition, there will be a display of ceremonial objects of religious significance. If any Sisterhood member possesses interesting and valuable pieces which might be included in this exhibit, the program committee and the chairman of the museum will gratefully accept such articles and return them immediately following the exhibit. All suitable objects may be brought to the temple office a day or two before the meeting.

Saul Dorfman, young Chicago pianist, will give some interesting piano selections termed "an internationally known pianist" by the Chicago Tribune, praised by Arthur Schnabel as "A very great talent." Mr. Dorfman, still in his early twenties, is enjoying outstanding success both as pianist and teacher. He has been warmly lauded by lead-

Military Ball Feb. 22 at Army-Navy Club

The 6th Corps Area branch of the Army Relief Society will give a military ball at the Army and Navy club on Saturday, Feb. 20. There
