

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Easter Vacation

Among the young people who will be coming home from college for the Easter vacation are David Inman, Jr., Georgetown college in Kentucky; June Nelson, DeKalb Teachers college; Olive Frantz, North Central at Naperville; Jane Agnew, Wheaton college; Doris Hunter, University of Chicago; Charles Orsborn, Bradley Tech in Peoria; Freddie Boone, John and Helen Engstrom, Jean Brand, Richard Merner, Elizabeth Hoffman, and Virginia Farmer, all of University of Illinois; David Stryker, Edgeley Todd, Walter Metcalf, Jr., from Lake Forest. A great many are too far from home to make the trip for the short vacation.

Winfield Nevins entertained the kindergarten class and his teacher, Mrs. Harry Muhle, and several other playmates last Tuesday, March 16, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nevins of Orchard lane, at a party in honor of his sixth birthday anniversary. Decorations and favors were in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

Mr. Ellis Hartness is bringing his family up from Missouri and has leased the Petersen apartment on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Robert E. Pettis will entertain her contract bridge club at luncheon on Thursday next.

Elmer Clavey and his father-in-law, B. H. Kress, have gone down to Florida to join their wives who went south several weeks ago. They are visiting at Lakeland and Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bailey of Knollwood road have had as their guests this past week, Mrs. Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Soady of Minneapolis.

Miss Ella Walker of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. William Wing of Osterman avenue.

Among those from here who attended the Regional Conference of Christian Education at Salem church in Barrington on Sunday were Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Bruso, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Frantz, Mrs. John Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merner, Mrs. Edwin Beckman, Miss Edna Fritsch, and Miss Anna Marie

Mrs. Jack Morton entertained her club on Thursday evening at her home on Somerset road.

Dorothy Jean Anderson celebrated her twelfth birthday anniversary on Tuesday evening, March 16.

Supervisor James O'Connor and his two sons, Frank and Joseph, attended the funeral of Martin Blake in Chicago on Wednesday. Frank and Joseph acted as pallbearers for their uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sherman had as their guests last Sunday, Edward Bach of Marion, Iowa, Walter, Elso and Wilbur Bach of Center Point, Iowa, who had come here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sherman's brother, John Bach, in Northbrook. The older residents of Deerfield will remember that Edward Bach's father, Caleb Bach, was a local business man many, many years ago, having a harness shop in the building now occupied by the Knaak pharmacy, which then stood on the site now occupied by Olendorf's Dry Goods store. Mr. Bach sold out his business to the late Philip Rommel, who continued the trade until his death.

Frank Spannraft, Deerfield tailor, is among the newer local mechanics advertising in the Press. He has purchased the shop from Mrs. Carl J. Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Calkins of Chestnut street spent the week-end with relatives in Sharon, Wis.

There will be a C.C.C. enrollment the first two weeks in April. Young men between the ages of 17 and 28 are eligible. Those desiring to enroll are requested to get in touch with Supervisor James O'Connor.

Circle Three of St. Pauls church will hold a chicken-noodle luncheon on Monday noon, March 29, at the church followed by a card party.

Another after Easter party is to be held on Wednesday, March 31, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Christ Petersen and Mrs. Henry Peterson on Hazel avenue. This party is being given as a benefit for the Holy Cross church by the four Klemp sisters, Martha, Theresa Frances and Anna. It is to be a dessert-card party.

Mayor and Mrs. Harry E. Wing and their daughter, Shirley, and Gladys Page, visited at the home of Mayor Mancel Talcott in Waukegan on Saturday and also called on Corporation Counsel George McGaughey's wife who is ill in the hospital in that city. Many Deerfield people heard Mayor Talcott on Sunday on Jack Benny's radio broadcast.

S. P. Hutchison in San Antonio, Texas, saying they had had enjoyable visits in Weslaco, Texas, with the Emil Giss, Green, and Lincoln Pettis families. The Hutchisons also visited in Old Mexico.

The Deerfield Chamber of Commerce will meet on Thursday evening of this week for the monthly dinner meeting at Shugrue's restaurant. Carl E. Bates, principal of the Deerfield Grammar school, will present a proposition to the group concerning the purchase of a motion picture machine and the showing of the summer out-door shows. The C. of C. is receiving many inquiries from out-of-town people concerning the opportunities offered in Deerfield since they put on their recent "boosting" campaign for the village. A two-page letter has been prepared by the Chamber which the secretary is mailing to all inquirers.

St. Paul's church will have its annual German service on Good Friday at 7:30 p.m. with communion. At one time all services were conducted in German, then gradually they began to get farther and farther apart until now there is but one service in the foreign tongue each year.

Dr. William F. Weir has recovered from his recent severe illness and is back in the pulpit in the Presbyterian church. On Good Friday evening Dr. Weir will preside at the communion service and the reception of new members.

The annual Presbyterian church dinner will be held on Wednesday evening, March 31 at 7 o'clock. The congregation and friends of the church will be the guests of the trustees and elders. The business session will include the election of officers and annual reports of all societies.

Class pictures of all the grades from first through seventh were taken on Monday in the local grade school. The annual spring concert will be given by the pupils of Mrs. Virginia Engels Hardacre on April 9. Plans are being made to take the grade school orchestra to the district contest in Maywood next month.

A Wing family party was held on Sunday with a dinner at the Union hotel in Wheeling after which they spent the afternoon and evening at the Harry Wing home. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wing and Miss Gertrude Moore of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neriem and daughter Nancy, of Highland Park, Mr. and Mrs. William Wing and their houseguest, Miss Ella Walker of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wing and daughter, Shirley.

Ground was broken on Monday for the erection of two five-room bungalows on West Osterman avenue on the Harry E. Wing property.

Miss A. J. Wood is attending the University of Chicago.

Miss Irene Roekenbach and H. D. Faxon of Highland Park attended a meeting of trustees and general officers of the Lake County Council of Religious Education at the Waukegan Y.M.C.A. on Thursday.

Mrs. May Entorf has returned from a visit in Aurora and is staying at the home of her nephew, Floyd Stanger. Mrs. Stanger has returned home from the Highland Park hospital and is recuperating from her recent operation.

Mrs. Dwight Merrell entertained Dorcas Circle Two yesterday afternoon at her home on North Chestnut street.

Miss Violet Wood of Ravinia was a Sunday dinner guest at the Arthur Lee home.

on Sunday were: Emma Geist, Jean Goodman, Louis Ott, Grace Lewis, Ruth Evans, Maria Huehl, Tone Beckman, Lois Palmer, Richard Evans, John Lidicker, Glenn Kapschull, John Bock, Arthur Stilke, Edward Sticken, Robert Anderson, and Daniel Hunt.

A new and very modern amplifying system is being installed in St. Paul's church this week to take care of the overflow audiences which are now attending the services. There will be microphones from the pulpit and the organ to transmit the services from the auditorium to the social rooms in the basement so that all may participate in the meetings. The amplifying system will be in use on Easter Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandenburg (Helen Roekenbach) have a daughter, Sally, born March 12, in the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago.

Mr. A. C. C. Timm, who has had a long siege of illness in the Highland Park hospital, is getting along nicely and is gaining daily in strength.

Frank Heybeck of Lake Zurich who won first award in a county contest conducted by the County Life Insurance Co. in Grays Lake last Tuesday, placed second with his saxophone at a regional contest conducted in DeKalb the latter part of the week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heybeck (Almira Roekenbach) former local residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dobbins and family of Arlington Heights spent Thursday at the William Neville home. It was Mrs. Neville's birthday anniversary and because of her illness the party which had been planned in honor of the occasion has been postponed, so only her daughter, Mrs. Roy Dobbins, came from out-of-town for the day, with her family.

Mrs. Raymond Dobbins of Elm street entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

William Johnston has received word of the recent death of his brother-in-law, William Vickers, in Beaumont, Texas. Mrs. Harriet Johnston has spent the winter at the Vickers home.

The Saturday evening Neighborhood club met last week at the John Reeb home. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

Your Kitchen Stays Clean When You

COOK WITH ELECTRICITY

A modern electric range gives spotless heat—and it's as easy to keep clean as a china dish!

Of all the advantages of electric cooking—enthusiastic electric range owners rate this the highest... it's clean! Utensils retain their original gleam and sparkle... so clean you can actually set them on white linen without leaving a mark. Think of the time this saves in eliminating unnecessary scouring and cleaning of pots and pans. Then, too, the smooth white surfaces of the new ranges are wiped spotless with a single stroke of a cloth. No ridges or crevices to catch and hold dirt.

But electric cooking offers more than mere cleanliness. It's fast—you save hours of time in preparing meals. It's cool. Kitchens stay fresh and cool—you can cook in comfort during even the warmest weather.

Come in and inspect the new modern Electric Ranges on display at your Public Service store. You'll find three well known makes to choose from. General Electric, Hotpoint, and Westinghouse. Get full particulars on our liberal 4-star plan now being offered for a limited time!

LIMITED TIME OFFER

Here Are the 4-Star Features That Make an Electric Range Easy to Own!

- ★ Free Installation—No wiring cost (except in unusual cases and even then a liberal allowance is made).
- ★ 3 Years to Pay.
- ★ Liberal Trade-in Allowance—your old range is worth from $10 to $15 depending on the cost of the new electric range you select.
- ★ As Little As $5 Down—balance monthly on your Electric Service bill.
