

DISTRICT CONTEST AT MAINE, APRIL 10

Playing at the district contest, a group of band soloists and ensembles from the Highland Park high school will compete at the Maine Township high school, Des Plaines, Illinois, Saturday, April 10.

These playing solos are Dorothy Utpadel and Robert Lundin, cornet; Jeanette Bryant, oboe; Shirley Ritzenthaler and Arthur Pier, clarinet; Leslie Rankin, tenor sax; and James Sanford and Frank Stuppel (or Earl Lahey), snare drums.

Because a harp is a string instrument, Joan Wichman, the band's harpist, will compete in the orchestra contest.

Those participating in the ensembles are as follows:

Brass sextet—Dorothy Utpadel, Alan Bede, Jerry Baum, Bob Jackson, Stewart Gail, and Hugh Suttle. Horn quartet—Jerry Baum, Kenneth Bergeson, Miriam Wichman, and Juel Stryker.

Thomson quartet—Hugh Suttle, Hudson Holtz, Kent Wonnell, and James Utpadel.

Clarinet quartet—Dick Spangier, Bill Bigley, Jim and Bob Black.

Woodwind trio—Shirley Ritzenthaler, Audrey Prindle, and Jeanette Bryant.

Deerfield Children Learn Village Duties

The upper grade children in the Deerfield Grammar school took over the duties of village officers last Thursday and directed municipal affairs for one day. The preceding Tuesday was a day of instructions, with Corporation Counsel George McGaughey as instructor on village government. The election was held on Wednesday and the following officers were elected:

President—Lois Palmer; Village Clerk, Patricia Stace; trustees—Phil Scully, Regina Klomp, Katherine Ramsdell, Jean Boyle, John Lidicker, Margaret Finch.

Treasurer—Ruth Herman. The following school children were appointed by the elected officers at a meeting held Wednesday morning:

Lavonne Davis, village collector; Eleanor Schoonover, auditor; Lester Hertel, chief of police; Edward Sticken, fire chief; Dan Hunt Jr., health officer; Jirah Cole, superintendent of water mains; James Kilcoyne, building commissioner; and Pearl Godwin, comptroller.

The Deerfield Rotary club sponsored this lesson in local civics. At the board meeting conducted by the youngsters, they condemned Greer's barn and wrote a letter notifying them of the action.

Presbyterians Hear Review of Past Year

Last Wednesday evening the elders and trustees of the Deerfield Presbyterian church were hosts to 150 members and friends of the church at the annual congregational dinner. Following the banquet was the yearly business session, at which time financial reports were made by all organizations.

In a review of the accomplishments were summed up:

The organization of the Woman's association. Installing of electric organ. Organization of the Dramatic club. Celebration of 60th anniversary of founding of church. The Eight-Day Preaching Mission. Reception of 35 new members. Decorating of all walls in downstairs rooms. Rejuvenation of the heating plant. A gift of $275 for 3 sets of hymnals and song books.

At the annual election three elders and two trustees were selected.

Elders are: George Stanger, Dwight Merrell and Captain John H. Wyman. Trustees are Mrs. Edna Stanger Orsborn and Donald Clark.

Newly elected officers will be ordained and installed at the Sunday morning worship service, with Dr. W. F. Weir, minister, officiating.

P.T.A. MAKES $35.50 AT SILVER TEA SUNDAY

The silver tea following the orchestra concert last Sunday at the Highland Park high school was well attended. The P.T.A. raised $35.50 toward a fund with which to finish the small room adjoining the English club room.

Members of the executive board of the Student Council conducted tours through the buildings to acquaint parents with the school their children attend.

Orchestra Competes in Contest April 17

As a member of the Class A group, the Highland Park high school symphony orchestra will compete in the district contest at Maywood high school, Saturday evening, April 17.

The soloists and ensembles will compete in the afternoon of the same day.

Those playing solos are Morton Raff, violin (Newton Hoffman, accompanist), Rosemary Holm and Betty Bingham, violinists (Joan Wichman, accompanist); Peggy Bingham, violinist (Mrs. Mannings, accompanist); Joan Wichman, harp; and Andrew Jacobs, piano.

Although Robin Gourley has won the right to go straight to the national contest, he has chosen to compete in the district and state cello contests for practice. His accompanist is Mrs. Mannings.

The ensembles to compete are: the Girls quintet, composed of Rosemary Holm, Betty Bingham, Gale Bray, Joan Wichman, and Peggy Bingham; string quartet, consisting of Morton Raff, Dorothy Burnham, Robin Gourley, and Louise Lyman; and a violin duet, composed of Joan Pier and Barbara Franzen (accompanied by Mary Francis Anderson).

Mrs. Mannings wishes to thank all those whose efforts helped to make the Sunday afternoon concert a success.

C.A.R. Senior Group Sponsors Puppet Show for Monument Fund

At the recent meeting of the senior group, Blackhawk society, Children of the American Revolution, the members planned an entertainment which they believe will be of general interest to young people of the community.

They are to sponsor the presentation of Betty Phelps Puppets at the Y.W.C.A. auditorium on Wednesday afternoon, April 28, at 4 p.m.

Tickets will be on sale for a nominal sum by all members of the C. A. R., with the profits going toward the beautiful Lincoln Monument being erected near Lawrenceville, Illinois, at the spot where Lincoln and his family first set foot in Illinois. Further details will be given later.

Deerfield Rotarians' April Fool Party

The wives of Deerfield Rotary members gave them a complete surprise last Thursday noon when they appeared ensemble to have luncheon with their husbands at Shrugers restaurant. The surprise April Fool party was planned by Harold Vant and Edward Reagan and was complete in every detail. Guests of honor were Mayor Harry E. Wing, Corporation Counsel George McGaughey and Her Honor, Mistress Mayor-for-the-day, Lois Palmer of the eighth grade.

Robert Anspach of Highland Park gave a very interesting travelogue on West Indies.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR JUNIOR PROM

Rapid progress is being made in the arrangements for the Junior Prom to be held May 1, at the Highland Park high school.

It is as yet undecided whether there will be a floor show. Linn Johnsons orchestra is being considered to furnish music for the occasion.

Meet me at the viaduct on North Green Bay road! Yes, right at the Moraine Grocery! Oh, yes, we might as well do our Sunday shopping while there.
