

DEERFIELD LOCALS

Bake Sales

The Deerfield Grammar School P. T. A. will sponsor a bake sale on Saturday of this week at the A. & P. Tea Co., on Waukegan road. Mrs. William Cruickshank is chairman of the sale.

On the following Saturday, April 24, there will be another bake sale in the same store under the auspices of the Holy Cross Catholic church. Mrs. Clarence Anderson and Mrs. Alex Willman are in charge.

Card Party

The Wilmot Mothers' club members will be hostesses at a benefit card party at the Wilmot Grammar school on Friday evening, tomorrow, at 8 o'clock. There will be table prizes, refreshments and special prizes, among which are a permanent wave, an electric toaster, shrubbery, ham, bacon, cakes, etc. Mrs. James Mailfald is in charge of refreshments; Mrs. Otto Trute, cards and tables; Mrs. Leslie Behrens, general chairman and Mrs. Harry E. Wing, publicity.

School Nurse

Mrs. Judith Kerrhard of Hazel avenue, Deerfield, a graduate of the Evanston hospital, has received the appointment as nurse at the Deerfield Grammar school and began her duties on Monday. Supervisor James O'Connor was instrumental in securing the nurse for the school. It is expected that an assistant will be in her office before long, as the project has been accepted. The school crossing guard was also obtained through the supervisor's direction.

Book Review

"Yang and Yin" by Alice Tisdale Hobart, author of "Oil for the Lamps of China," will be reviewed by Mrs. Raymond Dobbins, on Thursday (today) at a meeting of the Deerfield Presbyterian Woman's association. There will be the monthly work meeting in the morning with a luncheon at one o'clock, followed by the program. In addition to Mrs. Dobbins' review there will be special music.

School Elections

Raymond Meyer defeated O. F. Burnett, Jr., in a close contest on Saturday for school director of the Deerfield Grammar school. Mr. Meyer received 211 votes and Mr. Burnett, 173. Other members of the board of directors are C. W. Boyle and W. K. Hout.

In the Town Hall at the high school election, 238 votes were cast for Edward R. Seese and 196 for E. J. Fucik. As there was no opposition, both men were re-elected. Mr. Burnett received one vote for member of the high school board of education.

Bannockburn returned Harold Norman to office of director of that grade school and held a social meeting at the close of the election on Saturday evening to discuss the general problems of the school.

Wilmot school re-elected C. M. Willman at their annual evening election.

Open House

Mrs. William C. Wing will open her home on West Osterman avenue for a tea on Friday afternoon, April 23, from 2:30 to 4:00 o'clock. The crocheted bedspread, made by Circle Four of the Deerfield Presbyterian church, will be disposed of at this time. The tea is open to the public.
