Recital Series Is Fully Subscribed

The campaign for the Artists Recital Series resulted in a hundred per cent subscription list. At present the Winnetka Music club, which has charge of these recitals, is negotiating with prominent artists to perform at the four concerts.

The artist for the opening concert in October has already been engaged, and the committee is thrilled to present the name of a dramatic soprano, who made her debut this last season at the Metropolitan, and created a furore in the East, Gina Cigna. She is a French woman, married to an Italian, long known to European concert goers as a pianist of note. She has been singing for the past eight years, to enthusiastic audiences. Signora Cigna is an attractive young woman of thirty-five, whose notable successes have been in the operas, Aida and Norma. This will be her first appearance in the middle west.

Fort Sheridan to Lose Gen. Merrill

Brigadier General Dana T. Merrill, commanding Fort Sheridan, has received orders designating him to command the Washington Provisional Brigade, composed of troops stationed in and around Washington, D. C. General Merrill will turn over the Fort Sheridan command to his successor about June 1st.

C.M.T.C. Applications Must Be Filed Now

With more than 1500 applications for training in the Citizens' Military Training camps of Illinois already received, the quota of 2150 for this State undoubtedly will be filled much earlier than in other years. Therefore it is most important that those youths who intend to take the course this year get their applications in right away.

Eight hundred and thirty youths from Illinois this year will be trained at Fort Sheridan; at Jefferson Barracks, just outside of St. Louis, 1220 will be trained, while 100 will be sent to Camp McCoy, Sparta, Wisconsin. All these camps will open July 6 and last through to August 4.
