T. B. Aldrich.
Bronson—Pollwiggler's progress.
Development and life of a bullfrog.
Burgess—Animal book for children.
Old Mother Nature holds school for the various members of the rabbit family—to satisfy their curiosity concerning themselves and other animals in many parts of this country.
Burgess—Bird book for children.
Information about common birds in United States presented in reliable story form.
Burgess—Burgess flower book for children.
Not technical botany, but a delightful book about some of the more common flowers in the country. Written in reliable story form, it intends to arouse an interest that may develop into love for and protection of our wild flowers.
Curtis—Stories in trees. Legends of trees, as well as the use and pleasure of a wide variety of trees.
Doubleday—Birds worth knowing.
Sixteen chapters describing various birds, their habits, and ways of living. The birds are grouped under families, which makes the book useful as good, general information rather than for identification.

Gall—Ringtail. The life of a little raccoon.
Gall—Wagtail. The story of a tadpole as he changes to a frog.
Miller—Butterfly and moth book.
Informal discussions of moths and butterflies.
Patch—First lessons in nature study. A book for young children on sugar, animals, seeds, insects, fish, cotton, flax, spiders, birds, and trees.
Patch—Hexapod stories. Stories of insect life for young children. Each story carries a butterfly, bee, cricket, or other subjects through a year's cycle of changes, making a complete life story.
Shackelford—Now for creatures. A book on insects and animals, especially useful for parents to read to their children.
Sharp—The spring of the year. A naturalist's suggestions to older children. Will help in developing keen eyes and interest in outdoor exploring.
Sharp—Year out of doors. What to see, what to do, and what to hear out of doors during the various seasons of the year.

Suburban Real Estate Is Good Investment

With nearly every factor that has contributed to past periods of real estate recovery again in operation, suburban real estate is an excellent investment at the present time, in the opinion of Paul P. Pullen, Division of Land Economics of the Chicago Title and Trust company, and Lecturer in Land Economics Northwest ern university.

"Hundreds of Chicagoans are buying homes today in order to avoid rising rents," Pullen said. "Their reasoning is sound, for reliable studies show that residential occupancy in this area has jumped from 72 per cent in 1932 to over 96 per cent today. An actual shortage of desirable dwelling units is very rapidly approaching, and is perhaps already here."

Other factors which influenced past booms and are once more in operation today include low interest on real estate mortgages and a generally low rate for all money, large amounts of funds available for real estate financing, and the widespread general industrial recovery.

Pullen also directed attention to certain new factors and to old influences which are stronger today than during former rising real estate markets. Government aid is readily available to home builders, a condition which has never before obtained. The sustained rise of the stock market, while not a unique influence, is a strong one. Large sums are being distributed in the form of dividends and bonuses to avoid corporate income taxes.

There is an abnormal accumulated deficiency in new construction at the present time. Also, a recent sharp upturn in the marriage rate indicates that marriages postponed during the depression years are now being performed in large numbers. Population has grown, too, and lastly there is the fact that many persons are buying real estate as a hedge against inflation.

"The public's realization that real estate improvement is in progress always lags well behind actual developments," Pullen stated. "I believe it is timely to inform people of changes in this very important market, and Chicago Title and Trust company is glad to have the opportunity of presenting the facts."

Baseball-Tennis Gain in Interest at High School

Baseball and tennis are coming into their own as more than 60 boys at the Highland Park high school are drilling at the athletic field under the guidance of Coaches Hamill and Cannon, faculty sponsors of these two spring sports.

The baseball team has already played New Trier and Oak Park in Suburban league contests. New Trier won the first 2-1 at Winnetka while Hamill's proteges trailed Oak Park 2-0 in a two-hit loss here last Monday. Schiller of Oak Park and Rogan of Highland Park, pitched stellar ball and each allowed but one hit. A couple of costly errors proved the downfall of the locals.

The net team, twenty strong, is preparing for the district meet at Oak Park Saturday and their first dual meet with New Trier, last year's state and league champions; here next Monday afternoon. Bob Jackson, John McIntosh, Ken Jones, Bob Hirsch, Carroll Binder, and John Todd will probably be selected to represent Highland Park in the meet Saturday.

Members of the North Suburban Stamp society are urged to attend the meetings which are being held the first and third Mondays of each month at Peaso drug store.

New Officers Are Elected by P.-T.A.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 27, the Girl Scouts of Ravinia provided the program and acted as hostesses to the Ravinia School Parent-Teacher association. They gave a demonstration of their song; signaling, trail finding and first aid. The girls also served tea, the refreshments being made by some of the scouts, or their mothers.

Officers for the Ravinia P. T. A. for the coming year were elected and are as follows: President, Mrs. Roy Weeks; vice-president, Mrs. John DeWolf, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. Mason Armstrong; recording secretary, Miss Stella Dammen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. P. Hart.

Joseph Condon to Attend Coronation

Joseph Condon, 240 Washington avenue, Highwood, who is an inspector of Navy material in the U. S. Navy with offices in Chicago, has been appointed to attend the Coronation as Deck Officer on the Battleship New York, flagship of the Atlantic Fleet.

He will sail from Hampton Roads Saturday, for Bordeaux, France, where the ship will dock for six days, going direct to the coronation from there.

Condon is a graduate of Deerfield-Shields high school and holds the degree of electrical engineer at Northwestern university.

Exhibit Art Work of Children in Winnetka May 2

A reception from 3 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 2, in the North Shore Art League studio in Winnetka Community House, will open the annual exhibition of the work of children and juniors enrolled in the league's classes. The league found, last year, that many who had no direct connection with this exhibit were greatly interested, and expects that the same will be true of the coming show, which is to remain until May 12.

Officers and board members will be elected at the annual meeting to be held Tuesday evening, May 4. Rene Lavenant of Evanston, president of the league, has called a board meeting for 7:45, preceding the annual session, which is to be at 8:30 o'clock.

Fashion Show at "Y" Is Huge Success

Much of the success of the fashion show which was given last evening by the Emanon League of the Y.W.C.A. was largely due to the fashion commentator, Miss Elyse Rinkenberger and the musical trio composed of Margaret Esniz, violinist, Alina Galassini, pianist, and Vivian Campbell, saxophone.

All of the wearing apparel displayed were from the Highland Park shops, and were modeled by Highland Park girls who are members of the club, and proved themselves most attractive mannequins.

This was an entirely new venture for the club, which proved most successful.

Deerfield Merchants Plan Shorter Hours

Starting on Saturday, May 8, Deerfield food stores will close at 7:30 p.m. on Saturdays and at 6:00 p.m. on week days. The four stores included in this plan for shorter hours on Saturdays are Deerfield Grocery and Market, R. A. Nelson, National Tea Co., and the Great A & P Tea Co.

Modense Society Adds to Membership

Four new members will be admitted into the Modense Mutual Aid society at its regular monthly meeting Friday evening, April 30. The applicants, Mr. Marco Ugolini, Carlo Carani, Paolo Carani and Renato Carani, are all residents of Highland Park.

As a compliment to the members, George Natta, who is celebrating his birthday, will serve refreshments after the meeting.
