

Skywriting

Betty Wagner with Ed Ferring
Flying time is here again, as is proven by all the new planes that are being bought and sold. A beautiful new addition to Sky Harbor's already rapidly filling hangar, is a Ryan S T, owned by Bob Klien of Chicago. This silver stream lined model is powered by a Menasco motor and tops 160 m.p.h. Incidentally, the Ryan people built Col. Lindberg's plane with which he made his epoch flight ten years ago this coming May. "Hank" Klien,

Bob's brother has followed him to Sky Harbor in Mae Wilson's former green Waco F., which he recently purchased from Mae. . . . "Eddie" Hedler who is connected with the Bendix Corporation is bringing his Great Lakes Trainer to Sky Harbor, and will have a new Menasco engine installed. Eddie is the crack carburetor man for Bendix and has successfully designed several. He also holds the record for the most consecutive tail spins—fifty-two in all. . . . Pictures of the parachute jump made by Johnny Wickum will be published in Life Magazine very soon. . . . "Jack" Koehne, of the Koehne Studios, may be good at flying his Robin, but he needs lessons in kite flying. Jack is planning a trip to New York very soon. . . . Art Schelter's Fleet students have been keeping him very busy. . . . "Ham" Kunath thrilled the late visitors at Sky Harbor, stunting the new Ryan. "Ham" does everything but turn it inside out. He has promised to give his one-man show every Sunday. We advise you not to miss it. Ground school classes are being held at Sky Harbor every Tuesday evening, under the directorship of Mr. Kunath. Ground work is very essential to flying. All those interested may attend.

The Navy have been very busy this winter and spring, getting their quarters ready out at Curtiss Airport. They hope to have their administration building completed soon and move their equipment down from Great Lakes. . . . The plane owned by Mr. Bata of the Bata Shoe company, that had a forced landing in Riis Park, on the North side of Chicago several weeks ago, has been taken apart and hangared at Curtiss airport until further plans can be made. We write with regret of the death of Clem Sohn, who fell to his death last Sunday, in France, when his chute failed to open after completion of his act. He was known as "America's Birdman" and has thrilled thousands with his bat-like wings and his performance of a bird in flight. Sohn was to appear at the coming Air Show at Sky Harbor, July 3rd and 4th. Our home-made potato salad has made a hit. We always have a good supply over the week-end. Moraine Grocery and Market.
