DEERFIELD CHURCH

Rev. J. L. Garrity of Iowa, who spent all his early years in Highland Park, will preach at the Holy Cross church in Deerfield on Monday evening, May 3. Father Ward of Highwood will follow on Thursday evening and the former pastor, Rev. C. L. McDonough will preach on Saturday evening. The occasion is a Novena in preparation for a parish feast day (The Finding of the Holy Cross) which will be celebrated on May 9. This feast commemorates the finding by St. Helen, the mother of Constantine, of the very cross on which Our Lord died. It is in keeping with the spirit that has led peoples of all ages and races to hold in veneration anything connected with the suffering of Christ.

The Novena will open on Saturday, May 1, at 8 p.m. and continue each evening until May 9. Services will consist of the Way of the Cross, sermon, benediction and veneration of the Relic of the True Cross. Rev. G. P. Scanlon, former head of the C.Y.O. and one of the outstanding preachers of Chicago will open the Novena. The Reverend Father James T. Murphy is pastor of the Holy Cross church in

Deerfield. The Novena program: Saturday, May 1—The Finding of the Holy Cross. Rev. G. P. Scanlon, St. Brendan. Sunday, May 2—The Trial of Jesus. Rev. W. J. Buckley, presentation. Monday, May 3—Christ Meets His Afflicted Mother. Rev. J. L. Garrity, Lost Nation, Iowa. Tuesday, May 4—Simon of Cyrene. Rev. J. Cashman, St. Anastasia, Waukegan. Wednesday, May 5—The Women of Jerusalem. Rev. J. P. Hayes, Barrington. Thursday, May 6—Veronica Wipes the Face of Jesus. Rev. J. Ward, Highwood. Friday, May 7—The Good Thief. Rev. F. Murphy, presentation. Saturday, May 8—The Descent from the Cross. Rev. C. L. McDonough, Precious Blood. (Continued on following page)
