Tuesday Morning Bird Walks, Held

On last Tuesday morning it rained, and so Mr. Leech and his early morning bird walkers could not go on the scheduled trip. However, on Tuesday morning, May 11, we will go on our next trip. All bird walkers are to meet promptly at 6:30 a.m. on the road just west of Sunset Park near the tennis courts. From here the group plan to go in cars to the DesPlaines river. The hike will be along the river front for about an hour's duration. There will be only two more hikes this spring and so if you want to get in on this interesting activity you had better meet with us this Tuesday morning. Mr. Leech will gladly help you to see and identify birds and flowers seen along the way.

Ida M. Agruss To Receive B.A. Degree

Ida M. Agruss, formerly Children's Librarian in the Highland Park Public Library, will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree in June from the University of Illinois. During the past year she has received the following honors: Membership in Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, which is the all-university honorary, and Pi Delta Phi, the national French honorary society. She was also among those students to receive college honors in recognition of a straight five point average for three semesters, and has also been active in the French Club and University Chorus.
