Pretty Wedding Is Held

At eight o'clock on Saturday evening, May first, in St. John's church, the marriage of Miss Grace Arlene Flint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Flint of North Second St., and Mr. George Ludolph Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz of Northbrook, took place. The impressive ceremony was read by Rev. F. Piepenbrok of Deerfield. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and vericolored snap dragons.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil fashioned in cap effect, trimmed with orange blossoms worn 58 years ago by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Glos of Northbrook. She carried a shower bouquet of white tulips and fever few.

Her sister, Mrs. Alice Flint Theimer of Chicago served as matron of honor and her cousin, Miss Alice Kathryn Flint of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Margaret Esmis of Highland Park served as brides maids.

Mrs. Theimer wore blue lace and carried pink carnations and snap dragons while the brides maids wore pink lace and carried lilacs and lavender snap dragons.

Mr. William Lutz served his brother as best man and the ushers were Mr. Victor Theimer of Chicago and Mr. William Baune of Elgin.

A reception to the bridal party and immediate families followed the ceremony. After delicious refreshments Mr. and Mrs. George Lutz left for a honeymoon trip south to New Orleans. Upon their return they will reside in Northbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Blanchard, Sr., of Walker avenue had as their guest over the week end, Walter S. Drysdale, Jr., son of Colonel and Mrs. W. S. Drysdale, Infantry, U. S. Army. Colonel Drysdale is in command of Spokane Barracks, in Washington.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Meredith of Deerfield last Sunday at the Highland Park hospital.
