5. Build for Permanence in a New Lawn

If your grass has never got a good start, or if it's full of weeds, the chances are you'd better figure on building a new lawn this spring. know that isn't a pleasant prospect, in Car Collision but if you do it and once get a fine new lawn established, I'm sure you'll trouble and disappointment.

Now, the first thing to do in building a new lawn, of course, is to apade up the soil. Then go over it with a hoe and rake to pulverize son, the driver, left wrist sprained; that you can give some thought to the nature of your soil, because its mother, cuts on leg. The Alversons, texture is mighty important in establishing a good stand of grass. If it's too sandy, you can correct it by spading in peat moss. If there's too much clay in it, you should mix in some sand or finely liam C. Henrichs, of 1641 S. Green sifted ashes.

After you've finished the grading it's a good idea, if you have time, to let the ground settle a couple of days so that if any low spots develop you can level them off.

Insure Ample Feeding Next comes the most important step of all-feeding. Very likely the old troubles you've had with your lawn were caused directly or indirectly by lack of nourishment in the soil. Your grass didn't get all the food elements it needed. It

D. A. R. BETTER FILMS REVIEW

Feature No. 1

"Maid of Salem." Cast, Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray, Harvey Stephens, Thursday, Friday, Sept. 6 7. One of the most fascinating chapters in early American history, that of Salem in 1692, is unfolded in a tense drama in which historical accuracy and human interest are so skillfully blended that the spectator is transported into those stirring case? times. The production is authentic, direction able, cast excellent, scenery beautiful, especially the rocky "New England" shore line. In all, this is a picture of absorbing interest. Adults and young adults.

Feature No. 2 "Criminal Lawyer." Cast, Lee Tracy, Margot Grahame, Edward Ciarrelli," Thursday, Friday, May 6, 7. A young lawyer who has shrewdly learned to mix law and politics for his own advantages comes to realize the hollow mockery of his career. A tense, melodramatic travesty of criminal court procedure, which holds the attention. Adults.

"Man Of Affairs." Cast, George Arliss, Romilly Lunge, John Ford Renee Ray, Saturday, May 8. Fans of George Arliss will be pleased with his newest picture, in which he plays a dual role, that of distinguished, pompous member of the House of Lords and his clever, unconventional, devil-may-care - twin brother. The interest in the picture lies in the clever acting of the inimitable star, who masterfully establishes the two characterizations. Family.

"Love Is News." Cast, Tyrone Powers, Loretta Young, Don Ameche, Slim Summerville, Dudley Digges, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, May 9, 10, 11. A breezy, romantic comedy with an original slant on a newspaper story. Direction, acting and photography excellent. The assured comedy of Stepin Fetchit and Slim Summerville is delightful and the ingenious plot moves quickly and without a dull moment. Family.

"A Doctor's Diary." Cast, George Bancroft, Helen Burgess, John Trent, Ruth Coleman, Wednesday, Thursday, May 12, 13. This story is told in a sincere, convincing manner, with suspense well sustained and the climax a dramatic one. Intelligently directed and excellently cast. Adults.
