

DEERFIELD LOCALS

MEMORIAL DAY

The Deerfield Post of the American Legion will conduct the annual Memorial Day services on Monday, May 31, at 10 a. m. at the Deerfield Grammar school. The assemblage will march to the cemetery where the services will be completed at 10:30 that morning. School children are requested to bring flowers for the graves.

"BOY STATE"

This year the Deerfield Post and the Auxiliary are each sending a boy to the "Boy State" at Springfield from June 20 to 26. The two fortunate boys are Charles C. Kapschull Jr. and Harold A. Frost. The boys have been selected through co-operation with the high school and the merits are for scholarship, character and leadership. The experience gained is training in government. Last year the American Legion...

the trip and brought back a very interesting account of the convention.

LILACS

The first collection of lilacs from Deerfield and Bannockburn was on Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Albert Torbet and Mrs. Carl Frick are in charge in this locality for the season. Each Thursday morning contributions will leave here for distribution by the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild, to hospitals and institutions to cheer the sick. Deerfield residents who wish to share their gardens with the less fortunate are asked to call Mrs. Frick, who will make the collection each Wednesday evening.

PULPIT EXCHANGE

On Sunday there will be an exchange of pulpits in the Presbyterian churches of this vicinity. Dr. Louis W. Sherwin of the Highland Park church will attend the General Assembly in Columbus, Ohio, and his pulpit will be occupied by Dr. W. F. Weir of the Deerfield church. Rev. A. J. Wold of Northbrook will take Dr. Weir's place in Deerfield.

The many friends of Miss Jane Ashman were very much interested in the educational program which they have heard the past two Wednesdays at 9 p. m. over Station WGN, which she has assisted in preparing. The first of this series of thirteen broadcasts was on May 19, and at the conclusion of a sketch of how Theodore Roosevelt Jr. and his brother, Kermit, caught some very rare mountain sheep, Theodore Roosevelt Jr.'s own voice concluded the program, brought by telephone from New York. His clever comments on a WPA project "Who Is Who in the Zoo," showed the many fallacies in that book. Miss Ashman is staying at International House at the University of Chicago, while she is preparing these weekly broadcasts for the Field Museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boone of Osterman avenue had as their guests last Sunday, Mr. Boone's brother, George Boone, and Van Allen Payne of Portland, Tenn., who were en route to Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bailey were hosts at dinner for twelve on Saturday evening at their home on Knollwood road.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitehead and son, Robert, of Chicago spent Sunday at the A. J. Johnson home. The Leander G. Hvale family moved from Wilmet road to the King Wooten log cabin on Old Mill road. The new location is an ideal setting for the "Hvale Forge."

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Johnson were hosts to members of the Fireside club on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Pagel is entertaining the Bethlehem Woman's Auxiliary this afternoon at her home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frick spent the week-end at the H. T. Frick home in Crystal Lake, Ill.

The Junior Department of the Presbyterian Church school will sponsor a home baked goods sale on Saturday, June 5, in the Deerfield A. & P. Tea Co. Miss Louise Huhn is adviser for this group.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Beckman Sr. and daughter, Ione, and John Beckman Jr. and his fiancée, Miss Dorothy Strickland of North Chicago, attended the wedding of Mrs. Beckman's niece, Miss Norma Gents and Clelland Snider at the Baptist church in Valparaiso, Ind., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hutchison returned last Tuesday from a three months stay in San Antonio, Tex. Deerfield Post of the American Legion has assumed sponsorship of the newly organized Cub Pack. Milton Werner is Cub leader and three dens have been formed. Den leaders are Billy Olendorf, John Fordham and Buddy Piper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson had as their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomasik of Chicago.

Mrs. Elmer Clavey is getting along nicely, following her recent major operation at St. Luke's hospital in Chicago and is expected home next week.

Mrs. Harry Olendorf attended a bridge party on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Maurice Penny in Libertyville.

Mrs. Harry Baum and two children are expected home from Florida the first week in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Grant have moved to Chicago.

The Deerfield Cemetery association will hold its annual meeting on Friday (tomorrow) at 4 p. m. in the Town hall. Plans are being made for a "Perpetual Care or Trust Fund." Reports of the secretary and treasurer will be heard and other business transacted. Officers are: President, T. J. Knaak; secretary, J. L. Vetter; treasurer, C. A. Selig; trustees, Bert Easton, Herman Ludwig, and Mrs. Edith Osterman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Uchtman visited their mother, Mrs. Harriet Johnston at the Kenneth Holloway home in Lockport, Ill., on Sunday. Mrs. Johnston had just returned from a seven months stay with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Vickers in Texas.

Miss Dorothy Vetter and Miss Edith Sherman were among those from here who attended a tea at the home of Miss Lillian Tucker in Highland Park last Thursday.

Robert Savage, the six year old son of the Andrew Savages, is quarantined for scarlet fever.

The annual Deerfield Grammar School Day and Carnival were scheduled for Wednesday, May 26. Eighth grade pupils in the Wilmet and Deerfield grade schools were guests at the annual "Playday" at Deerfield-Shields high school on Tuesday.

An electric cookery demonstration is being held on Thursday (today) at 1:30 p. m. in St. Paul's recreation rooms. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church building fund.

Betty Mae Haggie celebrated her eleventh birthday anniversary last Tuesday at the Orville Endebeck home where she and her sister, Maxine, live.

The Just Sew club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Dr. Dorothy Sugden Davis.

Miss Vivian Haggie had as her over-night guest on Tuesday, Miss Billie Worman of Maywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Plagge and two children of Hines, Ill., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Plagge's mother, Mrs. Ella Rockenbach Plagge.

Miss Maida Northup and Miss Clare of Hammond, Ind., were Sunday guests at the E. G. Jacobson home.

Mrs. George Engstrom of Central avenue, with Mrs. A. T. Weinstock of Winnetka and Mrs. W. L. Walton of Highland Park, spent last week with Mrs. Walton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams in their new home at South Haven, Mich., returning home on Saturday evening.

Miss Mary Frances Anderson was hostess to the Junior Auxiliary on Saturday afternoon at her home on North Chestnut street.

Guests on Friday at the George Karch home were Mrs. Walter Karch Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Karch Jr. of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blume of Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwab of Hazel avenue have been in Melvin, Ill., this past month visiting their daughter, Mrs. George Dickmann.

Mrs. Oscar Schwab's parents from Fredericksburg, Iowa, spent the week-end with their daughter and son-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brand of Evanston visited at the Carl E. Olson home on Greenwood avenue on Thursday.

Members of the Deerfield Volunteer Fire department attended the monthly meeting of the Lake County Firemen's association on Monday evening at Grays Lake.

Misses Elinor Fischer and Jean Cowgill and Edgin Cowgill of Highland Park were Sunday guests of Mrs. Mildred Love Gunckel.

Sunday guests at the Elmer C. Anderson home on Fair Oaks avenue were Mr. H. H. Larson and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Soderburg and their two children, Gene and Lolita, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korenir were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Iverson in De Kalb.

Two highly respected Deerfield citizens will be celebrating birthday anniversaries in June. Mr. A. H. Muhlik, Deerfield's oldest native son, will be 75 on June 2nd, and Mr. W. H. Neville will be 77 on June 19th.

Mrs. Clarence Rollman is attending a bridge party today at the home of Mrs. ...

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sherman had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Forsythe and Charles Sherman of Chicago.

The Saturday Evening Neighborhood club met last week with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Uchtman. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston will be hosts this week to the group.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hertel and family were Sunday visitors at the Carl Bock home in Lake Villa.

Mrs. Christ Mentzer will be hostess to Dorcas Circle Four on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William C. Wing on Osterman avenue.

The Carl E. Olsons were Sunday dinner guests at the Theodore Peterson home in Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rhinehart (Marcelline Juhrend) have a son born on Wednesday, May 19, in Highland Park.

The Girl Scouts will hold a dinner on Friday evening at the Deerfield Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Penny are occupying Mrs. Charles Green's bungalow on North Waukegan road. The Milton Kahns have leased the Arthur Wagner house on Woodward avenue. The Frank Altman family recently vacated by Alexander L. Taylor, who now lives in the Robert Mau house on Forest avenue. Other new-comers on West Hazel avenue are the A. A. Easters and the W. G. Hartfords, living in ...

Quality Cleaners
Phone H. P. 178
RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

Warm days and the open road and new scenes calling. Now's the time it's fun to go a-motoring, and visit friends you haven't seen for a long time. But don't risk the disappointment of missing them. Telephone first to be sure they're there, so you will get full pleasure from your trip.

Remember, the telephone is your handiest ally in planning good times — at all times!

Typical Daytime Station-to-Station Rates

45 miles, about 40 cents
80 miles, about 50 cents
150 miles, about 80 cents

*Night rates after 7 P. M. and Sunday rates are still lower.

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Bull's Eye BRAND
PLAIN-COOKED PORK

WHEN YOU'RE INVITED TO A CHICKEN DINNER, ONE WAY TO MAKE SURE YOU'LL ENJOY IT IS TO TAKE YOUR OWN POULTRY WITH YOU

One way to make sure that your friends are in A-1 condition is to deliver to them every 30 days for a BEMERX BARK test! If there is any repeating necessary—we'll do it FREE!

DAHL'S AUTO RECONSTRUCTION CO.
322 NORTH FIRST ST.
HIGHLAND PARK, ILL.

"THE LAST DAY"

Friday May 28th will be the last day upon which taxes may be paid at this bank.

HIGHLAND PARK STATE BANK

Member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation