

understanding a satisfying sense of omnipotence, omnipresence, and omniscience, as reflected and repeated in all identity and individuality.

It may be that you never have actually stood on the shore of the Red Sea as did Moses in ancient days, with every human hope cut off. But you have stood upon the shores of your own red seas, with all avenues of escape seemingly closed—hopelessness staring you in the face.

Thou has the vision to attain, Thou hast the Mind to know. God never gave the tiniest thought without the means to execute it.

troubled about your business, worried about the evils of limitation and affliction. Remember that the identity of all things—and this includes your business, as well as your health—is maintained not in matter or material sense, but as the true idea of the creative Mind, or God; and that, as such, it reflects the perfection, capacity, and inexhaustible resource of the creative cause forever.

In the joyous experience of demonstrating Christian Science man's view is ever widening. New fields, more winning objectives, are continually beckoning.

It is not said in the great day of man's creation: "Behold, I have given you . . . every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed?" The fruit of a tree, "yielding seed"! Eternal instinct and ability to multiply and to grow, interpreted so well in the Glossary of Science and Health as "The structure of Truth and Love; whatever rests upon and proceeds from divine Principle." In this scientific translation of thought—the ever-widening realization of Life's affluence—one may truly say (Hymnal, No. 149):

"Wherever He may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim;
He knows the way He taketh,
And I will walk with Him."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alas Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 30.

The Golden Text was, "I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the Lord. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible" (Jeremiah 15: 20, 21).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord" (Isaiah 54: 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Whoever uses his developed mental powers like an escaped felon to commit fresh atrocities as opportunity occurs is never safe. God will arrest him. Divine justice will manacle him" (p. 105).
