CHOOSES OCTOBER 9 FOR MARRIAGE

Miss Myra Jane Hutton and J. Edwin Sunderlund, whose engagement was announced at a May luncheon by Miss Hutton's mother, Mrs. Lydia V. Hutton have selected Saturday, October 9th as their wedding day.

They will repeat their wedding vows in the First Methodist Episcopal church of Evanston after they have been pronounced by Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle.

After the ceremony a reception for friends and relatives will be held in Glenna hall.

Mr. Sunderlund is the son of Mrs. E. M. Sunderlund of Omaha, Neb., and resides at 1140 Lake Shore drive. After his graduation from Central high school in Omaha, he attended Northwestern university where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. Miss Hutton is a graduate of Highland Park high school.

Both Miss Hutton and Mr. Sunderlund were members of the 1936 graduating class at Northwestern university.

Miss Hutton who is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, is the new student representative of the department of development at Northwestern university. Her fiance is associated with Booz, Fry, Allen and Hamilton a Chicago business survey firm.

Following their marriage the young couple plan to make their home in Evanston.

WILLARD MUNRO TO MARRY, SEPT. 25

On September 25th at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Martha Williams Jenkins and Willard Lowe Munro will be married in the Winnetka Congregational church. Miss Jenkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dickinson Jenkins of Hubbard Woods, while Mr. Munro is the eldest son of Mrs. Fayette Munro of this city.

A small reception will follow the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. After their honeymoon the young pair will make their home on the north shore.

Their engagement was announced early in May. Miss Jenkins is a graduate of Smith college and just before her sophomore year began in 1932, made her debut at a September tea party. Mr. Munro attended Colgate university for three years and took his degree at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

NETTIE GRIMSON TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. K. Grimson, of Highland Park, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Nettie to Mr. Fred W. Koebbeman of Bensenville, Illinois. The ceremony is to take place Tuesday, July 20th, in the chapel of the Evangelical church, Jackson, Michigan. Rev. O. Walter Wagner, a college chum and very dear friend of the groom will officiate.

Miss Ruth Koebbeman, sister of the groom and Mr. Peter Grimson, brother of the bride will be the only attendants. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Koebbeman will motor through Michigan on a two weeks honeymoon. They will make their home at 120 W. Green street, Bensenville, Illinois.

CARL F. DILL WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Carl F. Dill, who has just completed his sophomore year at Northwestern university, has been awarded a $150 scholarship by Northwestern for the coming year. Last year he was chosen treasurer of the Pearson House Griffins, the largest men's organization on the University campus. He will continue to hold this position next term. Carl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Dill of N. Second street.

HENRY BENEKE TO WED IN FALL

News of the recent announcement of the engagement of Margaret Ditmars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ditmars of Cincinnati and Henry Beneke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beneke of this city, reached Highland Park early this week. The engagement is the culmination of a romance which was started at Portage Lake, Mich., where the two families have summer homes. In the fall Mr. Beneke will bring his attractive bride to Highland Park to make their home.

Young Mr. Beneke and his fiancee will discuss wedding plans over week ends during the remainder of the summer.

Miss Ditmars is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Beneke prepared at Lawrenceville for Yale. He later attended Lake Forest college and the University of Chicago. He is engaged in business with his father.

MISS EMILY HARMON TO MAKE DEBUT

Another prospective September debutante party is the tea Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harmon will give in Highland Park for his daughter, Miss Emily Boulton Harmon. Miss Harmon was graduated from the North Shore Country Day school last year and will return to Smith college in the fall. John Harmon, Jr., who was a popular young beau with the Chicago debutantes before his business was transferred to Minneapolis, will return for his sister's debut.

BULLARDS TO VISIT HERE SOON

If the Sellar Bullards still were living in Highland Park instead of in Santa Barbara, their youngest daughter, Miss Clari-jean Bullard, might be having a debut tea at the Exmoor Country club this fall, as her sisters, Miss Caroline Bullard and the former Miss Barbara Bullard, now Mrs. Charles A. Storke II, did. However, the youngest Miss Bullard will be here the middle of next month to see some of her old friends.

She and Mrs. Bullard and Miss Caroline are on their way home from a round the world cruise. They are in France now, on the Riviera, and are expected to land in New York next month. Mrs. Bullard is anxious to return home to see how much her first grandchild has grown. Little Carol Storke was born shortly after her parents moved into their new Santa Barbara home about six months ago.

Miss Elinor Garetson, 811 Exmoor avenue, a student at Wells college, Aurora, N. Y., is devoting the summer to furthering her art education by studying at the American Academy of Art, Chicago. She is taking life drawing and advertising art during the eight week summer school session. The summer school enrollment at the American Academy this year is the largest in the school's history, according to Frank H. Young, director.
