

Playground Activities Continue Until August Twentieth

Five weeks of playground activities have successfully been completed on the playgrounds maintained by the Park board of Highland Park. Children who have been out of town or have been busy with other interests during the first half of the playground season are still registering and it is hoped that before the season ends on Aug. 20 every child in Highland Park will have taken advantage of the recreation program offered on the playgrounds.

Registration will continue up to the final day of the season for the program has been so arranged that anyone may enter into the activities at any time during the season. Registration to date shows a considerable increase over that of last year. There is no charge for the playground activities as it is the aim of the Park board to provide recreation for every individual in the community.

The feature of next week's program will be the Annual Playground Golf tournament which will be held at the Sunset Valley Golf club next Tuesday morning, Aug. 3. Teams will be selected from all the playgrounds to compete in this tournament.

Birth of Child Ends Mystery at Hotel

A week ago Saturday a young woman entered the Park hotel in Highwood and wrote the name and address of Frona Wiese, Route 2, Box 68, Reedsburg, Wis., on the register.

She paid the proprietor, Frank Fortunato, $3 to occupy a room for one week. Miss Wiese, 26, who said she was unmarried, proved to be a solitary person, rarely venturing out from her quarters on the third floor.

The proprietor and his wife were a little suspicious about the inactivity of their Wisconsin guest. They recalled the time when a drug addict registered at their hotel who never once to their knowledge left his room.

She's in Pain
Saturday at 3:30 a.m. Fortunato was awakened by a tap on his door. It was Miss Wiese who said she was in severe pain and would he "please call Dr. A. L. Buck immediately."

Dr. Buck arrived a short time later and with the proprietor and his wife went up to Miss Wiese's room. As they opened the door the cries of a baby were heard. Investigating, they discovered that the young woman without any assistance had just given birth to a boy.

The doctor rendered aid, told Mr. and Mrs. Fortunato to keep the mother in bed a few days, and left.

At 8:30 a.m. the same day the patient arose, straightened up the bed and room and walked four blocks to a taxi stand. Being an acquaintance of the driver he asked her to answer phone calls for him while he made a trip. This she did and upon his return she asked him to call for her and the baby at the hotel, to be taken to the doctor's office. This is where William Steele, supervisor, came in the picture. The baby had no clothes. It was up to him to meet this need which he did. He also arranged to have the mother and baby taken to the County hospital at Waukegan.

Grocery Clerks to Organize Union

Intensive organization of the estimated 1,800 grocery clerks and meat cutters from Evanston to the state line under the banner of the American Federation of Labor will commence soon.

According to Harold Ross, a Highland Park organizer for the recently-incorporated Retail Clerks International Protective association, 250 clerks, chiefly from Highland Park south, already have taken out union cards.

Within the next few weeks the Retail Clerks organization along with its affiliate, the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher-Workmen of North America, will concentrate on bringing employes from Highwood north to the state line into the union fold. Libertyville and Deerfield are included.

Ground work was laid in the northern part of the county last week when leaders in the movement at a meeting of Waukegan clerks and butchers explained the aims of the new A. F. of L. member. Union officials declare that their platform calls for a 52-hour week, minimum wages, and provisions for apprentices and journeymen. A minimum wage of $30 weekly has been set for grocery clerks, while butchers demand $40. There is a sliding scale for apprentices.

Hold Victory Work Shop Sale Friday, July 30

One of the finest homes on the North Shore will be opened for the Victory Workshop Sale on Friday, July 30th from 12 to 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Harry Humin is donating her gracious, rambling home overlooking Lake Michigan to this charity sale. The house, located at 1201 S. Sheridan road, Highland Park, is set way back from the road, in the midst of a spacious, highly cultivated old park, one of the beauty spots of the North Shore.

The Victory Workshop was started four years ago in answer to a long felt need... that of training deaf and hard of hearing young people who have finished their academic school work, and were untrained for any occupation. Because of the terrible handicap of deafness, those unfortunate young people have difficulty finding employment. Through the cooperation of the Board of Education and the W.P.A. rooms are now provided at the Haven school in Chicago for conducting the workshop.

Girls are taught fine sewing, painting, and weaving. Boys are taught how to make furniture. The training has been so successful that many of the students have been placed in industry, and are holding jobs along side of normal, skilled workers. Several of the boys are in cabinet shops. One boy is earning a good wage as a professional weaver. Several of the girls are working in lingerie and dressmaking shops.

While students are working at the Victory, they get all the profits on the merchandise sold. In addition, they are provided with car fare and milk daily.

The committee, composed of thirty active, charitable-minded women, expends a great deal of time and effort in raising funds to buy materials and provide the car fare and milk. The women also work at the school, create the ideas for the articles made, and themselves play sales girl at all of the sales. The committee is headed by Mrs. M. Clarence Goldman, founder of the Victory Workshop.

Individually designed, hand painted or finished pursery furniture is a specialty of the Victory Workshop. Other articles made are aprons, dollie sets, knitting bags, bathroom rugs, baby gifts, and novelties of all kinds. All articles are original, well-made, and reasonably priced.

Miss Elizabeth Wells Robertson, art director of the Board of Education, is vitally interested in the project, and is sponsoring the July 30th sale. Among the patronesses for the sale are: Mrs. Robert Adler,

Mrs. Frank Beals, wife of the superintendent of Chicago Public schools, Mrs. J. Rose Beatty, Mrs. George Bowden, Mrs. Harry Casman, Mrs. Melville Keim, Mrs. E. J. Loewenthal, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, Mrs. Louis Pelton, Mrs. Joseph Radlick, Mrs. Sylvan Robertson, Mrs. Alfred S. Trude Jr., Mrs. Victor Weil, Mrs. Robert Lacharias, and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson.

Former sales have been held at the homes of Mrs. George Pick and Mrs. Edward J. Loewenthal, Highland Park, at the Moraine and Chicago Beach hotels, and various country clubs. During the fall and winter seasons, exhibits and sales are held frequently at Women's club land Park at the Moraine and Chicago Beach hotels, and various country clubs. During the fall and winter seasons, exhibits and sales are held frequently at Women's club meetings.

Deerpath Theatre Program for Week

A new type of murder story, "Night Must Fall," is unfolded on the screen with a technique as different from any employed before as was "The Thin Man." "Night Must Fall" features Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell. The play will be shown at the Deerpath theatre Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31. Besides Montgomery and Miss Russell, the cast includes three members of the original stage troupe, Dame May Whitty, Kathleen Harrison, and Merle Tottenham, and also Alan Marshall, and E. E. Clive. Girl meets boys, and so begins one of the year's most uproarious comedy-romances, "I Met Him in Paris"—which stars Claudette Colbert in the type of role which she made famous in her two previous smash comedy hits, "It Happened One Night" and "The Bride Comes Home." "I Met Him in Paris," which also features Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young, will be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 1, 2 and 3, at the Deerpath theatre.

Letter of Gratitude, Mr. and Mrs. Dooley

Dear Friends:
Now that our Golden Wedding celebration is a thing of the past and we have settled down to the old custom of life, we find ourselves swamped with a volume of congratulations and felicitations so great that it is impossible for us to acknowledge our gratitude in a personal way, within a reasonable limit of time, much as we would like to do may we, therefore, ask you, our good friends, to accept this letter as our sincerest expression of grateful thanks to you for your kindness to us on the occasion of our celebration. Thanking you once again, we are,
With love from the bottom of our hearts,
Mr. and Mrs. William M. Dooley.
