Whether it be history, economics, social questions or science it is unfortunate but none the less a fact that the Catholic view is woefully neglected in our public libraries." Plans for the parochial school are not as yet definite, but it is expected that a portable school will be placed on the grounds of the Holy Cross church. D. A. R. BETTER FILMS REVIEW

Feature No. 1—"Forlorn River". Cast: Larry Crabbe, June Martel, John Patterson; Thursday, July 29. Adventure and romance. Adults and young adults.

Feature No. 2—"Night Must Fall". Cast: Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, Dame May Whilly; Thursday, July 29. As a study of a criminal's mind, this picture would be very interesting to a psychologist. The possibilities portrayed of killing within one's self the human feelings of kindness and sympathy should give everyone pause. The picture seems to urge people to keep themselves sensitive to human needs and concerned for the happiness of others as a safeguard against mental and emotional derangement. Strictly adults.

"Charlie Chan at the Olympics." Cast: Warner Oland, Katherine DeMille, Krysie Luke. Friday-Saturday, July 30-31. Charlie Chan pursues thieves of a government airplane control device—from Honolulu to Berlin. Scenes of the Olympics events are well fitted into the picture and add greatly to its interest.

good cast supports Warner Oland. Family.

"I Met Him in Paris." Cast—Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglass, Robert Young. Sunday-Monday-Tuesday, Aug. 1-2-3. A gay, breezy and sophisticated comedy that fills with fun and charm an original version of the old plot of two men in love with the same girl. It is excellently directed—replete with amusing and refreshing situations, and acted by the principals with a naturalness and competence that is wholly delightful. Adults and young adults.

Feature No. 1—"Make Way for Tomorrow." Cast—Victor Moore, Beulah Bondi, Fay Bainter. Wednesday-Thursday-Friday, Aug. 4-5-6. This truly great picture is so simply and so convincingly made as to make a deep impression upon all who see it. The direction is so skillfully done as to avoid any maudlin effect. Entire cast highly commended. Adults and young adults.

Feature No. 2—"Hit Parade". Cast: Phil Regan, Frances Langford, Louise Henry, Edward Brophy. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Aug. 4-5-6. The plot of this glorified vaudeville show is rather thin—merely a means of introducing a number of special numbers by radio favorites. Adults and young adults.

Whatever size or style of home you want, whatever color or surface texture, you can build it economically with concrete.

TELL YOUR ARCHITECT you want a concrete home. Before you build, ask a concrete contractor or concrete products man to estimate your house with fire-safe concrete walls and floors. Be sure that your architect and builder are familiar with the new concrete technique.

You'll want the new, free book of beautiful designs!
