ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT AT TEA SATURDAY

At a tea given Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Bard and their daughter Miss Janet, their guests Mr. and Mrs. Sellar Bullard of Santa Barbara, Calif., formerly of this city announced the engagement of their eldest daughter, Carol to Richard Hubbard Howland, son of Carl Badger Howland and the late Mrs. Howland of Providence, R.I.

It was not unusual that the announcement should be made at the Bard home, for the majority of the Bullard's close friends are in Highland Park, where they had made their home for many years, and these two families have been close friends for a long time. Miss Bullard, Miss Bard and the former Miss Barbara Bullard, now Mrs. Charles A. Storke II, all were introduced to society at a party given jointly by the Bards and the Bullards five years ago. Mrs. Bullard and her two daughters Miss Carol and Miss Clari-Jean are spending a few days in Highland Park on their way back to their home in California from a trip around the world.

Mr. Howland is a fellow of the Agora Excavations of Athens. He was not present at the announcement party, because he is still in Greece, where he and Miss Bullard met two and a half years ago. After their marriage, he and Miss Bullard will return to Greece to make their home for a year.

The young couple have not set a definite wedding date, but it will probably be in the late fall.

Miss Bullard attended the Roycemore school and Wells college, and is a provisional member of the Santa Barbara Junior league. Mr. Howland was graduated from Brown university in 1931 and received his master's degree at Harvard in 1933.

WENTWORTH-MILLARD NUPTIALS

Before a low stone wall banked with cineraria, agapanthus, and delphinium, Miss Margaret Hill Wentworth and Malcolm Stuart Millard repeated their wedding vows last Monday afternoon. The ceremony took place in the gardens of the Berkeley, Calif. home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wentworth.

Following a reception in the garden, Mr. Millard, son of Mrs. Everett Lee Millard of Highland Park, and his bride and their attendants went upstairs to have breakfast at a table set on an open balcony overlooking the scene of the wedding.

The stone wall enclosed a semi-circular terrace, on which the ceremony was read by Dr. Robert French Leavens, before an antique Spanish altar, decorated with fruit. The bride's dress was made of hand embroidered handkerchief linen brought from Porto Rico many years ago, and she carried an informal bouquet of daisies. Miss Elizabeth Millard, sister of the bridegroom, was one of the bridesmaids, and Everett L. Millard Jr. was best man.

Following a month's wedding trip in Mexico, Mr. Millard and his bride will be at home in Chicago.
