

Failure to Pass Reciprocity Bill Renews License War

Failure to pass a truck license reciprocity bill, which went through the Wisconsin state senate unanimously only to become lost in the closing rush of the state house, ended reciprocity in the matter of truck licenses between Illinois and Wisconsin, with the result that all Illinois truck drivers going into Wisconsin must have licenses from both states.

Attorney Grant Stevens of Madison, Wis., engaged by the American Trucking association, has been fighting the case before the Wisconsin Warehouse commission since the Wisconsin license became due on July 1. Then when the commission last Monday night ruled against further delays, Illinois trucking concerns were forced to pay the license fees for all their trucks operating in Wisconsin.

Frank Webber of the Webber Cartage company in Waukegan, one of the leading proponents of a reciprocity agreement between Illinois and Wisconsin, sped to Madison yesterday with a certified check for $4,400 to buy Wisconsin licenses for his trucks that operate in Wisconsin in order that several of them, on trips in Wisconsin, would not be held up by the police.

Other local trucking concerns affected by the license war are Interstate Motor Freight system, local branch of Keshin Motor Express Co., North Shore Motor Express Co., Fred Olson and Son, Rauser Motor Express, Roosevelt Cartage Co., S. and D. D. Transfer Co., and Stewart Cartage Co.

Wisconsin is now the only state in the Union, Webber states, that does not have a reciprocity agreement. As a consequence, trucks from other states must be licensed in Wisconsin as well as their home states and in addition, all Wisconsin trucks moving into any other state, must be licensed in the state in which they are traveling.

In addition to buying state licenses for Illinois trucks in Wisconsin, the owners must pay an additional mileage tax computed on the number of miles the out-of-state truck travels in Wisconsin.

Because the reciprocity agreement was ended abruptly by the Wisconsin Warehouse commission ruling, Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes of Illinois state police to enforce the payment of the Illinois license and mileage tax against all Wisconsin trucks moving in Illinois.

With the reciprocity measure by the Wisconsin senate, efforts are being made to have the Wisconsin legislature called into special session to permit the house to pass the bill and rush it to the governor for signature. As even a special session would require considerable time before the law could be approved, Illinois truckers were left no alternative but to buy the Wisconsin licenses for all trucks moving into the Badger state.

"Another Dawn" Is Feature Next Week at Deerpath Theatre

Displaying a popularity completely indicative of its hilarious humor, "Mountain Music," in which Bob Burns and Martha Raye play hill-billy, completes a three-day run at the Deerpath theatre on Thursday and Friday of this week.

"The Last Train from Madrid," appearing Saturday, is an amazingly timely story involving the lives of a few Americans in war-torn Spain. Starring Dorothy Lamour, Lew Ayres, Gilbert Roland, and Karen Morley, the picture gives an accurate and terribly clear picture of conditions in that unfortunate country.

The desert, wild and hostile Arabs, a besieged garrison, fighting, airplanes, love, drama, dashing Errol Flynn, glamorous Kay Francis, and handsome Ian Hunter. "Another Dawn" is not, however, just another "desert picture." It enjoys the ranking of one of the season's best.

Hunter and Flynn both love Miss Francis. One of them must make the suicidal attempt to rescue the garrison. The climax is one of breath-taking action and drama. Daring airplane flying adds to the excitement and thrills. The picture is at the Deerpath Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

Teaming Robert Young and Florence Rice for the third time, "Married Before Breakfast" appears at the Deerpath on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Followers of Dick Powell will have their fondest wishes come true when they see "The Singing Marine" which comes to the Deerpath on Friday and Saturday of next week. In it, Dick presents one of his finest pieces of work.

- Insist on Sweet Cream Butter. Look for the U. S. Govt. Certificate of quality... it is your protection.

A STRIKING EXAMPLE!

You wouldn't stop in an auto agency and say, "I want a car." Nor would you pay for a Ford or Chevrolet and expect a Packard or Cadillac. The dairy farmer is paid more for sweet cream than for sour cream... naturally you pay a little more for sweet cream butter, but the value is unexcelled. Ask for Pride of Dairy States or Pride of the Lake Shore Butter and note the difference for yourself.
