ANNOUNCE BETROTHAL OF MARY WILLIAMS

Another bit of romantic news has hit the society columns again. Yesterday the Misses Yoe announced the engagement of their niece Miss Mary Wadsworth Williams, to Barrett Kerfoot Mason, son of Mrs. Henry Eager Mason of this city and the late Mr. Mason. Miss Williams' late parents were Col. Robert Cutts Williams - U.S.A. and Mrs. Williams.

Miss Williams, who attended Miss Wheeler's school in Providence, R. I., has lived with her aunts since the death of her mother and father. Mr. Mason is a graduate of Yale, class of 1932. He and his fiancée, accompanied by his mother Mrs. Mason are leaving today for Fort Wayne, Ind., where on Saturday he will be an usher in the wedding party of Miss Elizabeth Esther Bowerfind and Everett Randolph Harrington. Mr. Harrington is the brother of Mrs. Arnold Dale Kerfoot Mason of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mason and their daughter Phyllis left yesterday for Fort Wayne to attend the wedding and the parties which precede it. Mr. Mason will be an usher and Phyllis will be the flower girl.

JOHNSTON-HAIR WEDDING

Miss Ruth Johnston and Benjamin Morton Hair were married at eight thirty last evening in the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The Rev. Louis Sherwin, pastor of the church performed the ceremony. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker Johnston.

Miss Johnston's two sisters will precede her down the aisle this evening, Miss Katharine Johnston as maid of honor and Miss Margaret as junior maid of honor.

The bride's other attendants will be Miss Marjorie Hair, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Jane Hart, Miss Jean Williams, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, the former Dania Mavor; Mrs. Winthrop Robinson, the former Betty Buck, and Mrs. Daniel Boone the former Claire Seabury.

George Ray of Downers Grove will be Mr. Hair's best man, and S. Parker Johnston and Robert Adams Johnston, the bride's brothers, will be two of the ushers. The others, Evanston friends of the bridegroom, will be Rollin Keyes, Philip Gilbert, Roger Sherman, Arthur Frank, and Aubrey Whittemore.

A. JUDSON WELLS IS MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunter Gunn of Evanston are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Brewster, to Adoniram Judson Wells, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wells of 602 Vine ave.

The wedding took place at 8:30 Tuesday evening, August 31st, in the Chapel of Remembrance of the First Congregational Church of Evanston. The bride, whose grandparents joined that church in 1872, was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Buckingham Gunn, who wore white organdy and carried deep rose asters, and Mrs. A. H. Gunn, 3rd, who wore hyacinth blue crepe and carried pale pink asters. The bride wore white organdy with a finger tip veil. She carried a white bouquet of asters and gladioli. There were white flowers and palms in the chapel, which was lighted only by many candles and the chancel light. The ceremony was performed by the bride's cousin, Rev. Edward W. Wilcox, pastor of the Congregational church of Kent, Ohio. Her brother, Jan Varick Gunn, served Mr. Wells as best man, and another brother, A. H. Gunn, 3rd, as usher. Miss Marie Herzog of Rogers Park officiated at the organ.

Only the members of the two immediate families were present at the chapel and at the intimate reception afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Gunn, the bride's brother and sister.

This church service was the confirmation of the civil marriage which took place on April 2nd, 1938, in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells left the following day for Cambridge, Mass., where they have taken an apartment for the winter while Mr. Wells completes his senior year at Harvard college. Mr. Wells is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, having been elected during his junior year, and is majoring in chemistry. Mrs. Wells is a graduate of E.T.H.S.

where she was active in the Children's theatre and in several student operas. She has completed three years at Wellesley college and plans to take some lecture courses in Cambridge this winter.

MARY MAVOR MARRIED FRIDAY

Before a group of relatives and few close friends, Miss Mary Mavor and Richard Hedberg, exchanged their marriage vows, last Friday evening at eight o'clock in the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, minister of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, before the fireplace in the living room which was banked with palms, bronze colored chrysanthemums and autumn flowers.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton R. Mavor, wore a white organdy princess gown with a long train and a fingertip length veil which fell from a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Milwaukee - the former Dania Mavor, who is a bride of only a few months, attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Lucy Jane Hedberg, the bridegroom's sister was maid of honor. Both young women wore period dresses of pink lace chenille and delphinium blue velvet turbans. Their flowers were pink roses to match their gowns and blue delphinium. Mrs. Mavor wore platinum gray chiffon trimmed in chantilly lace.

Mr. Hedberg had as his best man,

Gilbert Younglove of Glencoe. The groom is the son of Mr. Henry E. Hedberg of Glencoe.

After a motor trip through the north woods Mr. and Mrs. Hedberg will be at home in Glencoe after Sept. 15-

SARGENT-WIEBOLDT NUPTIALS

In the garden of her parents home overlooking the lake, Miss Barbara Ann Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Sargent of Winnetka, became the bride of William H. Wieboldt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner A. Wieboldt of this city. The service was read by Dr. Samuel Harkness of the Winnetka Congregational church at four thirty o'clock. A large reception followed the ceremony.

Miss Sargent was attended by her younger sister, Miss Peggy Sargent as bridesmaid. Mrs. John F. Bentley, Jr., came here from Cheyenne, Wyo., to be matron of honor and the other bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Street of Winnetka, Miss Eleanor Culver and Miss Jean Miles of Evanston and Miss Army Veerhoff of Washington, D.C., Jane Sargent, the bride's little cousin and Pearl Ann Wieboldt, young sister of the bridegroom were junior bridesmaids.

The bride and her attendants came down a curving walk hedged with box to an improvised altar of greens under a spreading tree, the ceremony was performed. Twin pyramids of white gladioli flanked the altar, and pyramids of greens formed a background. It was here that Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. Werner A. Wieboldt, parents of the bridegroom, received with the bridal couple at the reception after the wedding service.

The bride was charming in a gown of heavy ivory satin fashioned in empire style with a high waist, heart shaped neck line and a court train of rose point lace that was part of her mother's wedding dress.

Rose point lace lent by her grandmother, Mrs. Frederick Sargent, who came from New York for the
