ERICSON-WESSLING WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Jean Ericson, daughter of Willard E. Ericson of 506 N. Sheridan road and Mr. Kenneth Wessling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester I. Wessling of Rosemary terrace, Deerfield will be solemnized Saturday afternoon, Sept. 18th at four thirty o'clock in the Highland Park Presbyterian church. Dr. Louis Sherwin, pastor of the church will read the service.

Miss Kathryn Kearns will fly here from East Orange, N.J., for the wedding and will serve the bride as maid of honor.

The bridesmaids will be, Mrs. E. M. Tomlinson of Plainfield, Ind., a classmate of the bride at Earlham college in Richmond, Ind.; Mrs. Paul Kettenburg (Charlotte Bassler) of Evanston and Miss Helen Jean Abercromby and Miss June Stockwell of Highland Park.

Mr. Richard Dennier of Merrill, Iowa, who was a class mate of Mr. Wessling at Iowa State university, will serve as best man.

The ushers will be Mr. Wesley Stryker of Deerfield, Mr. Paul Kettenburg of Evanston, Mr. Donald Ericson and Mr. Richard Hawley of this city.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom will receive their friends in the Narthex of the church. A bridal supper for the bridal party and immediate families will follow later at the Ericson home.

Numerous parties have been given during the past few weeks, among them being a bathroom shower given by Mrs. Wesley Stryker of Deerfield; Mrs. Elmer Ericson of Evanston gave a dinner for the young couple; Mrs. Clarence Bassler and her daughter Mrs. Paul Kettenburg, were hostesses at a personal shower, while Miss Kay Johnston and Miss June Stockwell gave a kitchen shower for the bride to be. Mrs. Leo Edelmann of Rogers Park gave a miscellaneous shower Saturday and Tuesday evening Miss Helen Jean Abercromby entertained at a miscellaneous shower. The bridal dinner is to be given by Mrs. Ericson of Libertyville, Friday evening.

PRETTY WEDDING SATURDAY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at four thirty o'clock in Trinity Episcopal church, when Miss Betty Sellery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Sellery became the wife of John Stratton Gregg of Milwaukee, Wis. The service was read by Dean Edwards.

The church was simply decorated in bouquets of white gladioli and lighted candles.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white velvet with a yoke of seed pearls. She wore a long tulle blush veil and carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Her attendants, Miss Louise Gehr who was maid of honor and Mrs. Robert A. Sellery of Hickory, N. C. who was matron of honor and the two bridesmaids Miss Joan Walker and Miss Ruth Westrich wore frocks of pink and blue taffeta with old fashioned hats to match and carried old fashioned bouquets of garden flowers.

Gordon Gregg of Milwaukee served the groom as best man and the ushers were, Harry H. Sellery, Jr., Robert A. Sellery, Robert Gregg of Buffalo, N.Y., and E. Beebe.

Following the service the young couple went up on the balcony where the young people who attended the wedding sang several appropriate songs for them. A reception followed at the Sellery home, 215 Bronson lane. Mr. Gregg and his bride will live in Milwaukee.

LOCAL GIRLS MAKE DEBUTS

At a tea dance given Saturday afternoon at the Exmoor club, Emily Boulton Harmon and Annette Roberts Jones, were presented to society by their parents Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Jones.

Among the assistants were Elizabeth Low, Lydia Hastings, Nan Reid, Nancy Blaine, Ellen Bull, Helen Schumacher, Margot Webb, Virginia Creigh and Janet Gregory.

JOHNSTON-HAIR NUPTIALS

Beneath an arch of lilacs and white gladioli, backed by palms and ferns, with candelabra either side of the arch, the bridal vows of Ruth Johnston and Benjamin Morton Hair were exchanged last Wednesday evening in the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The service was read by the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, minister of the church.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white all over lace, with a long tulle veil held in place with a white lace Juliette cap trimmed in orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The brides two sisters, Katherine as maid of honor and Margaret as junior maid of honor wore frocks of french blue satin with halos of yellow satin ribbon and short face veils to match. They carried yellow gladioli.

Miss Marjorie Hair, the bridegroom's sister, Miss Jane Hart, Miss Jean Williams, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Winthrop Robinson and Mrs. Daniel Boon, bridesmaids, wore frocks of french blue satin with pink halos with face veils to match and carried bouquets of pink gladioli.

George Ray of Downers Grove served the groom as best man and the ushers were, the bride's two brothers, Robert and S. Parker Johnston and Rollin Keyes, Phillip Gilbert, Roger Sherman, Arthur Frank, and Aubrey Whiteman.

A reception followed at the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hair are now enjoying a wedding trip to the White Mountains.

LORRAINE-MARIE ROACH MAKES DEBUT

Yesterday (Wednesday) morning, Mrs. Webster Stafford and Mrs. Conrad Schreire, gave a breakfast at Exmoor club for Miss Lorraine Marie Roach and her assistants. Miss Roach made her debut at a reception given that afternoon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs.

Edward A. Roach, 199 Ravine drive. She had as her assistants Nancy Leigh Bowes, Babs and Jean Tennant, Francigene Sheridan, Marjorie McDonald, Virginia Creigh, Sally Crowder, Katie Lou Vail, Helen Schumacher, Barbara Austin, Gertrude Smith, and Jane Weary.

PLANS HOUSE PARTY

Eleanor Jane Collette, the lovely young daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William H. Collette of Fort Sheridan is planning one of the numerous house parties for a group of her contemporaries, to be given at the fort over the horse show weekend, Sept. 25 and 26. Before that time, Eleanor Jane will be enrolled at Sacred Heart college in Lake Forest, which is a short distance from her parents' home at the army post.

SMYTH-O'BRIEN WEDDING

A quiet wedding was solemnized last Wednesday afternoon, when Rosalie Smyth of Chicago and Hayes O'Brien of this city were married in Our Lady of Mount Carmel church, Chicago. Monsignor Joseph Casey read the service. A reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt the James T. Boyles, with whom she had made her home since the death of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smyth.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien have gone to New York for their honeymoon and after October 1 will be at home at 40 W. Schiller st., Chicago.

THAYER-MURRIE MARRIAGE

In a quiet ceremony at eight o'clock last Wednesday evening Miss Laura E. Murrie was married to Lawrence Thayer of Antioch at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blanchard 725 North ave. The Rev. John Snapp of Gurnee performed the ceremony.

The Misses Margot Brent Wrenn and Barbara Wrenn will attend Miami university in Oxford, Ohio, during the coming year.

Mr. W. E. Brand and son George W. Brand have returned from Three Lakes, and Eagle River, Wis., where they spent a week fishing. While there they saw a 28 pound Muskie caught, but were not fortunate enough to land one themselves.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson, 440 Lincoln ave., who has been ill for the past ten days is fully recovered. Mr. Johnson who was home over Labor day week-end, returned east, Sunday.

HESTER ANN THOMAS TO WED SEPT. 22

Miss Hester Ann Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Cary Wood Thomas and Mr. Raeburn F. Hay of Paris and New York city have chosen Wednesday, September 22, as their wedding date. The ceremony will be solemnized at four thirty in the afternoon at the Exmoor Country club. Miss Martha Jane Thomas will serve her sister as maid of honor and the bride's brother, MacPherson Thomas, will serve the groom as best man. Due to the fact that Mr. Hay's friends and relatives all live in Europe, the six cousins of the bride will act as ushers. The romance of this young couple began two years ago when Miss Thomas was studying in Paris.

Among the assistants at the tea dance given yesterday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Bull at the Indian Hill club for their eldest daughter Miss Ellen Prindiville Bull were, the Misses, Virginia Creigh and Emily Harmon and Miss Annette Jones, three Highland Park girls who made their debuts to society during the past week.
