RETURNS FROM EXTENSIVE TRIP

Mr. Edward E. Kleinschmidt has returned to Deere Park after completing a six weeks' motor tour through Germany, Austria and Switzerland, with his family. Late in August he and his daughter, Doris, returned on the SS "Bremen" while Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Kleinschmidt extended the tour to include some weeks in Paris. So delighted, however, were Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Kleinschmidt with the ocean voyage enroute to Hamburg that they made the return trip to Highland Park via a 5 weeks sea voyage on the SS "Elbe" through the Panama Canal to Los Angeles, and thence by train across the continent. Now, with son Stewart, they are enroute to one of their favorite hunting and fishing spots in Minnesota. Between them all, they have collected some hundreds of feet of film record of their trips.

Miss Josephine Loewenstein of Highland Park, will enter her sophomore year at Randolph - Macon Woman's college this month.

The college will open its forty-fifth session on Sept. 17. Approximately 670 students have been enrolled, according to a recent statement from the Registrar's office.

"Easy Living" Is Two Day Feature at Deerpath Theatre

The amazing Marx brothers top the bill at the Deerpath Theatre this week in their latest maniacal production, "A Day at the Races."

A fine supporting cast including Allen Jones, Maureen O'Sullivan, Douglas Dumbrille, and others present the same part of the show which begins a three-day engagement at the Deerpath on Sunday, September 19.

On Thursday and Friday, the 16th and 17th, Jean Arthur and Edward Arnold in "Easy Living" present a sophisticated comedy that has the acclaim of all critics as tops for entertainment. It's a "rags to riches" story with a new twist and hilarious portrayals.

A single engagement is really too little for a picture of the quality of "Make Way for Tomorrow" which comes to the Deerpath on Saturday, September 18. Starring Victor Moore and Beulah Bondi, the powerfully dramatic story of family life is excellent fare for family entertainment.

After the Marx brothers get through tearing the screen apart on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, there comes another of the really fine musical comedies, "Pick a Star."

Jack Haley, star of "Wake Up and Live," leads a cast which includes such well-known names as Laurel and Hardy, Patsy Kelly, Mischa Auer, Lyda Roberti, Rosina Lawrence, and many others in a story of the struggle for success in Hollywood. Filled with popular tunes, many gags, and of course the inimitable and various types of humor as presented by its star comedians, "Pick a Star" has not a dull moment in it.

It will be at the Deerpath on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, from the 22nd through the 24th. Don't miss it.
