

Young America

student at the Lincoln school.
From time to time the Press will carry pictures of attractive children in Highland Park, Ravinia or Deerfield. If you have a recent photograph, taken by Mr. Hecketsweiler, which you would like published, call the studio and ask him to let us publish it. Or perhaps you would like to have him take a picture of your child. The Press feels that this community is blessed with attractive children and is eager to prove this theory.

DEERFIELD GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

Seven years ago the eighth grade class felt a need for a school paper. Out of this need was born "The Highway." Each succeeding class has continued with its publication to the best of its ability. The present class has pledged itself to carry on. We ask your co-operation; pupils, teachers and parents. It can't be a success without you. We will do our best to get out the Highway the last Friday of each month.

A girls chorus and a boys chorus has been organized instead of the mixed Glee club we had last year. Every boy and girl of the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades are members.

The plan of having the children go from room to room in the seventh and eighth grades is working very satisfactorily, and will be continued.

The Junior Girls club has had three meetings so far this year. Miss Evenson has been chosen to help Miss Miller and Miss Card as sponsors. This year officers are: President, Gloria Segert; vice-president, Rose Mary Barrett; secretary, Ruth Jacobs; treasurer, Ann Jane Ritter. "Grand" plans have been made for our next meeting.

School children: We are asking you to help us keep our front yard looking neat. Please do not throw papers around. If you drop a paper, please stop and pick it up. Please do not run over, and play in the shrubbery. We have a very fine playground without using the front lawn at all. Won't you please help to keep our school grounds looking as neat and attractive as possible?

SPLENDID PROGRAM AT DEERPATH THEATRE

A perfect variety of movies await the theatregoer at the Deerpath next week. Jack Oakie's "Super Sleuth" is surefire for the children and those adults who are not too old to enjoy a hearty laugh and some thrilling suspense; Warren Williams' "Midnight Madonna" is the type for the drama lovers; Marlene Dietrich's "Knight Without Armor" is for the adventure and intrigue fans; and "San Quentin" with Pat O'Brien and Humphrey Bogart, presents power, drama, suspense, thrills, and all the rest.

With the mighty "Toast of New York" ending its engagement tonight, Jack Oakie remains to give his portrayal of "The Super Sleuth" Friday evening and Saturday afternoon. This comedy thriller tells the story of a screen sleuth who was confronted with a real mystery in which he was to be the next victim. Oakie as the sleuth and Eduardo Ciandelli as his friend and enemy lead the cast of prominent players.

"Midnight Madonna" brings to the screen two news stars: Mady Correll who achieved her fame as the heroine of the stage play, "Dead End," and Kitty Clancy, child prodigy. Warren William, as a gambler, has his life inextricably mixed with those of Miss Correll and Kitty, who seek his aid. The ultimate correction of an injustice done in court brings real drama to this picture which will be at the Deerpath Theatre Saturday evening, October 16.

Marlene Dietrich and Robert Donat! Names that strike a responsive chord in the hearts of all who have seen their fine pictures. Their thrilling interpretation of two people on opposite sides of a Russian controversy makes "Knight Without Armor" even more thrilling than the story itself. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday are the days of its tenure at the Deerpath.

The powerful story of the bitter feelings that are always prevalent in a large prison appears in "San Quentin". Pat O'Brien, Humphrey Bogart, and Ann Sheridan lead a fine cast of actors in this dramatic tale of love, strife, and the innermost workings of men's souls. "San Quentin" will be at the Deerpath Wednesday and Thursday, October 20 and 21.

The week will be topped off by a Wheeler and Wooley comedy, "On Again, Off Again." The boys outdo themselves in this latest of their masterpieces and the results are pleasing to say the least. It is crowded into a single day, Friday, October 22.

Ordinance Repeal Act of Council

At a recent meeting of the City Council, upon recommendation of Mayor William M. Dooley and the Corporation Council, the ordinance for the inoculation of dogs was repealed.

Dr. D. E. Rossiter, president of the Highland Park Board of Health who approved the original ordinance, which was referred to him before its passage, was not responsible for its repeal as was stated in last week's Press. Dr. Rossiter, however, believes in the "Control of Dogs" or the apprehension of all stray dogs with the penalty of a fine or impounding.

Former Officers To Conduct Work At Eastern Star

Past Matron's and Past Patron's night is to be observed, Wednesday evening, October 20th, by Campbell Chapter No. 712 O. E. S. Mrs. Blanche Muller and Mr. Henry Hanson will serve in the East. Other stations will be filled by past officers who will have charge of the initiatory work. It is hoped that there will be a goodly attendance.

The Junior Class of the Highland Park high school is sponsoring the first "Garrick Matinee" on Tuesday, October 19, at 3:40 p.m. in the auditorium. A one-act play, "Trifles" will be presented by Garrick members. Readings and music will supplement the program.

Miss Rinkenberger, high school dramatic coach, has selected Lorraine Weaver and Marjorie Harworth to direct the play. Sue Greenberg, Gail Sackett, Hilda Bein, Mary Elyer, Inga Leander and Nancy Van Bergen will handle make-up and costumes. Property managers and electricians will include Don Nichols, Phil Stokes, Mary Vercoe, Germaine Walsh, Betty Bowen, and Flora Hoffman.

The cast has not been definitely decided and will be announced in next week's Press.

Presiding Elder to Speak at U. E. Church

The Presiding Elder, Rev. W. E. Seesholtz, of Canton, Ohio, will preach Sunday morning at the First United Evangelical church, corner Green Bay and Laurel ave.

Communion will be observed. At the evening service the pastor will preach on Paul's First European Convert.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First United Evangelical church will present a reading with several musical numbers at their October birthday meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

Trial Board Of H. P. Music Club To Meet Monday

Monday afternoon, October 18th, at 3:30 o'clock, the Trial Board for admission to active membership in the Highland Park Music club will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bard, 531 N. St. Johns ave.
