

DEERFIELD LOCALS

P-T-A. CARD PARTY

The annual benefit card party sponsored by the Deerfield Grammar school Parent-Teacher association will be held on Friday afternoon, November 5, at 2:30 o'clock in the school gymnasium. There will be individual table prizes, door prizes and many more attractions. The price of the party is very nominal this time and the cause is a very worthy one. Mrs. Charles Pope is general chairman and is very ably assisted in the various committees. Mrs. Jirah Cole Jr. is publicity chairman.

Peter J. Juhrend has sold his business, the Reliable Garage, on Waukegan road to Albert Bartel, local manager of the A.P. Tea Co., who will take possession on November 1. P. J. Juhrend has been in business in that location for fourteen years, having purchased the garage from the late Herman Frost. The residence to the south of the garage, which the Juhrends purchased from Robert E. Pettis, has been leased to the Bartels, who will move from the old Biederstadt house, south of the Deerfield cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Juhrend are planning to go to Compton, California, in December, where their son and his wife have been living since September. The A & P store will lose a genial, very popular manager. Mr. Bartel's many friends wish him luck in his new venture. The Juhrends will be keenly missed and their friends hope they find health, wealth and happiness in the west.

Ann Birk Kuper Presents Second of Reading Series Nov. 1

The board of directors of the North Shore Congregation Israel will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, November 1st, at 10 a.m. On the same date at 2:15 in the afternoon, Ann Birk Kuper will give the second of her play reading series. Mrs. Kuper's selection for the occasion is "George and Margaret" by Ger-ald Savory, which was a tremendous comedy success in London last season. It is being presented currently by John Wilson at the Morosco Theatre in New York City to capacity audiences, and has been judged one of the outstanding plays of light vein running on Broadway at present. In these days of falling stock-market and alarming international complications, it is a welcome respite to witness the unfolding of an amusing play. John Anderson, dramatic critic on the New York Journal has written of "George and Margaret": "delightful . . . an un-falling source of amiable un-failing merriment."

The customary nominal fee will be charged for admission to Mrs. Kuper's reading, which will be followed by tea served informally in the lounge of the temple.
