

Boy Scout News

Scout Membership Grows
The number of boys becoming for the first time Scouts is very large this fall. The indications are that the membership of the North Shore Area Council as of the end of this calendar year, well exceeds 2,000 Scouts, 700 Cubs and 525 men for a grand total membership in excess of 3,225.

The names of the new Scouts in Highland Park since Sept. 1st are as follows: Troop 33—Martin Baum, Dennis McHenry, Robt. Puzin, and Philip Randall. Troop 35—Peter Gillett, Bob Gressmans, and Bruce Johnson. Troop 324—Donald Hintz, Louis Schemmel, David Sloan, Colt Spalding, Edward Uhlmann, Harry West and David Worth.

The new Cubs in Highland Park since the first of Sept. are: Pack 65—Edmund Andrews, Donald Johnson, John Wall, and James Weber. Pack 86—Bud Blake and Bobby Lake.

On the Way to Eagle
That Highland Park is making great strides in the Scout Advancement Program is revealed in a list recently compiled by Council Headquarters of Life Scouts. These boys have but one more rank to obtain to achieve the highest rung in the Scout Advancement Ladder. Many of these boys have but two or three more Merit Badges to acquire before they become Eagles. The following is a list of Highland Park Life Scouts and their Troop affiliation:

Troop 33—Bill Aiston and Hugh Reading.
Troop 35—Max Hart, Dick O'Connor, Bruce Wagner and Dick Zurwelle.
Troop 324—Milan Cobble, Bill Lott, James Rankin and Bill Smith.

Scout Leaders Believe in Training
One of the most successful training courses in the history of the North Shore Area Council was held this last Saturday and Sunday at Camp Doddridge. Approximately 180 men were in attendance from five councils, namely, North Shore Area Council, Evanston Council, Oak Park Area, West Suburban Council, and Northwest Suburban Council.

The four courses presented were: "Elements of Cub Leadership," "Elements of Scoutmastership," "Principles of Scoutmastership" and a Specialization course on "Troop Problems."

Highland Park—Howard F. Copp, Cub Commissioner, Dr. Frank Trangmar, Pack Committeeman Pack 65; Oliver S. Turner, Chairman, Troop Committee Troop 35; John Udell, Scoutmaster Troop 30; John Davis, Asst. Scoutmaster Troop 33; Roy Fidler, Cubmaster Troop 86; Mark Panther, Scoutmaster Troop 33; Baker Hamilton, Scoutmaster Troop 324; Julius Laegler, Jr. Asst. Scoutmaster Troop 324; J. R. Bankhardt, Chairman Pack 86; and M. L. Rahrner, Committeeman Pack 65.

Deerfield—Maurice Cazel, Scoutmaster Troop 51.

Six Receive Eagle Merit Badge at Court of Honor

The biggest Court of Honor ever held in Highland Park was staged last evening at the Lincoln school auditorium. Dumaresq Spencer post No. 145 of the American Legion sponsored this successful event.

One of the high lights of the evening was the presentation of the highest badge in Scouting, namely, the Eagle, to 6 Highland Park boys. The presentation on behalf of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, was made by Mr. Henry Fowler the president of the North Shore Area Council. The boys receiving this high award are Bob Earhart and Amory Moore of Troop 33, Bruce Wagner and Dick Zurwelle of Troop 35, Julius Laegler and Leslie Rankin of Troop 324. Second class awards were presented to Richard Bresler, Jerome Schlabusko, James Siljeström of Troop 30, Jim Fleager, Dave Haworth, Bill Hill, Geo. Hurd, James Monat, Dick Nelson, Robert Newman, Anthony Pantelis, Chappie Stukeley of Troop 33, Walter Kohn, William Mann, Tom Stein, Jim Wonnell, Warren Waggett of Troop 35, Robert Clark, Donald Garguhar and Donald Burnham of Troop 324. The rank of first class was attained by the following: Channon Bowes, Richard Bresler of Troop 30, Bill Hill, Bob Newman, Bill Moran, Chandler Webster of Troop 33, Robert Hoffman, Walter Kohn of Troop 35, Edgar Vinyard of Troop 324.

In the Merit Badge field the recipients of Star award and those who received the Life award are as follows: Troop 30—James Black, Troop 33—Bill Aiston, Tom Dingle, Bruce VanGuilder, Chandler Webster; Troop 35—Ray Johnson, Stan Turner; Troop 324—Junior Hutchinson, Jack Snobble, Milan Cobble, James Rankin. The Merit Badges, Second class and First class awards were presented by Baker Hamilton of Troop 324, Dr. R. L. Price chairman of Troop 30, Harry G. Pertz, chairman of Troop 33, and Oliver S. Turner chairman of Troop 35. The Star Scout awards were presented by Mr. John Davis, vice chairman of Highland Park district and the Life Scout awards were presented by Dr. C. V. Nichols chairman of the Highland Park district.

The committee in charge of the presentation representing the American Legion was Harry B. Aiston chairman, Harry Earhart, John Davis and Harry Pertz. The chairman of the Court of Honor was Harry B. Aiston. The opening and closing of this special function was in charge of Commander William C. Heinrichs.

The principle speakers of the evening were the Hon. Mayor William M. Dooley who gave the address of welcome, Mr. Tom R. Wyles the national secretary of the Citizens Military Training Camp association and Art Guepe, all-American quarterback 1935, assistant coach Marquette university who told some very interesting football stories. One special event was the presentation of a special feature by the Sea Scouts of Ship 39 under the direction of Skipper Arthur J. Gourley and the presentation of the charter to this ship by Mr. Will C. Huggins the commodore of the North Shore Area Council.

Mr. Henry Fowler, president of the North Shore Area Council presented Burton Beers of Troop 324 with the Eagle bronze palm. The Lincoln school auditorium was packed to the doors for this splendid occasion.

The music for the evening was by a unit of the Highland Park High School band of 30 pieces under the direction of the bandmaster, Harold N. Finch.

Break Ground In Zion City For New Shiloh Tabernacle
Overseer Wilbur Glenn Voliva of the Christian Catholic church in Zion broke ground Sunday for the fireproof $35,000 temple which will be erected on Twenty-seventh street between the college building and the gymnasium. The new church home will replace Shiloh tabernacle, which was burned on April 2.

Construction work began today, and the tabernacle will be complete by May, it has been announced. A performance of the Zion Passion Play is scheduled for the first Sunday in May and will be repeated each Sunday thereafter through the month of July.

The temple will be 155 feet long and 80 feet wide including the platform. The seating capacity will be 2,300.

In the ground-breaking ceremony yesterday, Overseer Voliva used the same silver spade with which Dr. John Alexander Dowie, his predecessor, turned the earth for the first tabernacle on July 14, 1900.

Bakery Sale, Nov. 6
The Ladies' Aid society of Grace M. E. church will hold a bakery sale, Saturday, Nov. 6, in Laegler's drug store, in Highwood. A complete line of home cooked foods suitable for Sunday's meals, will be on display.

Cardinal Mundelein To Dedicate New Evanston Church

St. Athanasius' Catholic church, North Evanston, will be solemnly dedicated on next Sunday, Nov. 7, at 12:00 o'clock noon by His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein, assisted by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Daniel J. Frawley, pastor of St. Jerome's, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Daniel Byrnes, pastor of Visitation church, Chicago, Very Rev. Mgr. Joseph P. Morrison, rector of the Holy Name Cathedral, Rev. Patrick Hayes, master of ceremonies. The officers of the Solemn Mass of Dedication will be the Very Rev. Mgr. Francis M. O'Brien, celebrant, Rev. Francis J. Magner, pastor of St. Mary's, Evanston, deacon, Rev. James Naughton, assistant pastor at St. Ferdinand's, Chicago, master of ceremonies.

The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Thomas Barry Horne, of the Archdiocesan Mission Band. The musical program will be under the direction of Mrs. Frank B. Johnson, the chanters for the dedication ceremony will be from the Priests' choir of the archdiocese.

St. Athanasius' parish was formed by Cardinal Mundelein in 1921. The first mass was sung in the Lincoln-wood public school on Palm Sunday, March 20, 1921. The Rev. Thomas J. Murphy was the first pastor. In the spring of 1922 land was purchased and a building erected, the cornerstone being laid on October 29, 1922 and the first mass in the new building was on Christmas day the same year.

In 1930 Rev. Patrick J. Buckley was appointed to assist Father Murphy. In 1931 Rev. Leo M. Hartke was appointed to the pastorate of St. Athanasius after the resignation of Father Murphy on account of ill health.

With the growth of the parish from sixty families to nearly four hundred Father Hartke has been able, with the help of his parishioners, to erect a permanent church at Lincoln street and Ashland avenue, executed in the Old English Gothic, a style of architecture distinctly Catholic in origin, and dating back to the middle ages. It has a seating capacity of 750.

Helping Father Hartke in his plans for the dedication are his assistants, the Rev. Joseph F. Byrne and the Rev. Kenneth D. Hoffmann.

Alcyon To Present 'Captains Courageous'

The screen has not presented during the current season a more completely entertaining picture than "Make a Wish," featuring the very young singing star, Bobby Breen. In no way has anything been neglected to make the picture a thoroughly enjoyable one, having a pleasing mixture of comedy, romance, tuneful songs and beautiful background. Basil Rathbone, no longer the suave villain, plays a truly romantic role and contributes a performance which stamps him as a versatile actor of unusual attainments. The leading feminine role is portrayed by Marion Claire, famous radio singer. The explosive Italian, Henry Armetta, is vastly humorous in a characterization that is literally a comedy gem. Showing at the Alcyon on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Rudyard Kipling, world's master story-teller, presented us with a pulsating drama, "Captain Courageous", and it now thunders across the screen just as he wrote it. Here is a story of one boy and many men against the sea, a picture to stand alongside the very finest of all film entertainment. It comes to the Al-cyon Theatre on next Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore, Mickey Rooney and many others giving portrayals that will long be remembered. The players, individually and collectively, have grasped their respective parts with a remarkable depth of understanding. "Captains Courageous" is surely a magnificent and stirring version of Kipling's sea epic.
