

TEACHERS' MEETING TO BE HELD IN EVANSTON FRIDAY

In order that the members of the faculty may attend the annual meeting of the Illinois State Teachers association at the Evanston high school on Friday, there will be no school on that day.

"The Little School House in the Foothills" will be the subject of a talk by Miss Ella Enslow at the morning session. Miss Enslow, who was raised in the Cumberland mountains in Tennessee, will relate her experiences as a teacher among the mountain people.

Later there will be a panel discussion on "The Work of the Illinois Education Association," with Mr. Brister as chairman.

Rabbi Charles Schulman will discuss "Civilization at the Crossroads." He is the leader of the North Shore Congregation Israel, of Glencoe, Illinois, and well acquainted with social problems of today.

The closing address will be given by Dr. No-Yong-Park. Dr. No-Yong-Park, a Harvard scholar, is a recognized authority on Oriental questions.

Miss Beckmire and Mr. Nelson will represent the Highland Park and Lake Forest high schools at the business meeting of the association.

Gen Peyton Gives Armistice Address at Lion's Club

The Lions Club will observe Armistice Day at the regular noonday luncheon at Mrs. Green's Tea Pot, where Philip B. Peyton, Brigadier General, Commanding Officer at Fort Sheridan, will be the speaker.

Captain Paul B. Kelly, the General's Aid-de-Camp, will also be a guest of the club.

The members of the Lions club are all very pleased in having with them as their guest speaker, General Peyton, and particularly so on Armistice Day.

General Peyton was in active service in charge of the Sixty-first Infantry in the St. Mihiel and Argonne offensives during the war, and accordingly, was on the field of battle when the Armistice was declared, and he therefore will be uniquely qualified to give the members the story of the Armistice in regard to what it meant to the boys at the front.

The General recently delivered, in his dynamic manner, a very fine and enlightening talk to the members of the American Legion at the Legion Hall, which talk was received with considerable ovation.

It is understood that he is rapidly becoming one of the most popular Commandants who has been at Fort Sheridan for some time.

Brigadier General Philip B. Peyton is a native of Tennessee. He was graduated from the Virginia Military Institute in 1901, and was commissioned from civil life from the State of Virginia in 1904. He served at various stations in the United States, Philippine Islands, and Alaska, until the World War, when he was ordered to France and served in the Fifth Division with the Sixth, Sixtieth and Sixty-first Infantry Regiments. At the Armistice he was in command of the Sixty-first Infantry with the rank of Colonel. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal and Silver Star Citation for service in France.

Since the World War, the Commandant has attended the Infantry School, the Tank School, the Command and General Staff School, and the Army War College, served with various units and on the General Staff. While in command of the 29th Infantry, the crack demonstration regiment at the Infantry School, he was appointed Brigadier General, August 1st of this year, and assigned to command Fort Sheridan.

Girl Scout News

The courses for Leaders Training and Tramping and Trailing were brought to a close last week when at a meeting at the home of Mrs. James Skidmore, final instructions in fire-building were given out of doors and Mesdames Raymond Laing, Everett Bellei, Fred Henning, Wm. Salem, George Straub, Bert Greene, Garfield Day, Jesse Ham, and Miss Jane McWhinney were invested as associate girl scouts and leaders.

On Tuesdays in November at 9:30 a handicraft class for any leaders who wish to attend will be held at the girl scout office. This Tuesday Mrs. Geo. Straub, Mrs. Garfield Day, Mrs. Everett Bellei, Mrs. R. Wire, Mrs. James Skidmore, Mrs. Arthur Mason, Mrs. Julius Laegler, Miss Jane McWhinney were there and started block prints and Christmas wrapping paper. Because of the inability to fit the leaders time to the use of the school building for meetings, the Lincoln school troops have had some difficulty in finding a place to meet, but rather than delay longer, Mrs. James Skidmore invited the girls to her home. Troop elections and organization results were:

Patrol leaders: Billie Marie Sal-yards, Lois Sundstrom. Corporals: Catherine Clark, Jean Skidmore. Treasurer: Dorothea Fischer. Scribe: Alice Swanson. Members of troop: Mary Elizabeth Grady, Betty Lou Montgomery, Betty Dean, Lois Belle, Joan Lillie, Virginia Brown, Virginia Shelton, Ann Rose Murfey.

Leaders: Mrs. James Skidmore, Miss Pauline Davis. Ridge School Troop held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Dunham.

Do You Know?
1. What kind of a sound a giraffe makes?
2. How a giraffe sleeps?
3. The name of a female fox?
4. The nearest wild relative of the domestic dog?

Answers to last week's questions:
1. Rattlesnakes usually add a rattle each time skin is shed.
2. Three toes to the front and one to the back.
3. With the aid of an "egg tooth."
4. The Chimpanzee.

Double or Nothing at Deerpath Theatre

Laughter, gayety, music, romance! All at the Deerpath theatre next week as "Life of the Party," "Double or Nothing," "Varsity Show," and "Riding on Air" come to Lake Forest.

Gene Raymond and Harriet Hilliard make a new romantic team in "Life of the Party" while Joe Fenner, Parkyakarkus, Victor Moore and Helen Broderick furnish plenty of delightful nonsense. The imitable Billy Gilbert, with a musical comedy troupe, and sensational Ann Miller, with her tap dancing deluxe, complete a perfectly entertaining show. Tonight and Friday night are its last showings at the Deerpath.

Bing Crosby and Martha Raye! Topnotch for popularity and coming to the Deerpath on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday in "Double or Nothing." Hear Bing sing six new song hits! Watch Martha strut her stuff! See the new Sing Band! You'll love it. It'll be a big weekend. Saturday, Sunday, and Monday at the Deerpath.

"Varsity Show" presents Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians with Dick Powell, Ted Healy, and Walter Catlett in the season's prize college picture. It's mid-week run at the Deerpath will include Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, November 16, 17 and 18. Joe E. Brown is now Elmer Lane, of Saturday Evening Post fame, in his latest rib tickler, "Riding on Air." A small town newspaper man, Joe finds time to do a little sleuthing and flying on the side and it all adds up to thrills and laughs. Guy Kibbee and Florence Rice (Grantland Rice's daughter) aid Joe in putting over a swell comedy. It will be at the Deerpath on Friday and Saturday, November 19 and 20.
