William Kilpatrick Noted Educator to Speak Here Nov. 17

The Highland Park League of Women Voters is most fortunate in having secured Mr. William Heard Kilpatrick for its speaker on Wednesday, Nov. 17th.

Dr. Kilpatrick is one of the foremost interpreters of progressive education today and ranks with Mr. John Dewey as an outstanding thinker.

Recently he gave a series of lectures at New Trier High School before North Shore parents and teachers which was sponsored by more than 70 schools cooperating with the North Shore branch of Progressive Education Association.

Dr. Kilpatrick's subject will be "Citizenship and Freedom of Speech and Study."

Another Football Contest This Week

In today's issue of the Highland Park Press appears another football contest. Rules governing the contest will be found in a full page advertisement.

Two tickets for the Notre Dame-Northwestern game on Nov. 20 at Dycbe stadium will be awarded as first prize, while a portrait at Hecketsweiler studio is second prize.

What Your Dollars Subscribed to Chest Fund Accomplish

For the benefit of the many newcomers to Highland Park, as well as many of the older residents and supporters of the Highland Park Community Chest who may be interested as to what good is accomplished by their dollars subscribed to the Chest, the following brief resume of the purpose and work of each of the twelve welfare agencies supported by the Chest is given:

Prevents and alleviates human suffering, recognizes no personal, political, racial or religious prejudices. A world-wide service to mankind. Last year in Highland Park: conducted class in first aid at High school, 37 pupils receiving certificates; 3400 home accident inspection blanks distributed to students in all schools during Accident Prevention Week; established additional emergency first aid stations in Highland Park area; 75 Senior and Junior Life Savers were trained in Life Saving courses; conducted home hygiene and care of sick courses; added seven Highland Park Volunteer "Gray Ladies," who serve in Chicago hospitals, during the year; Junior Red Cross well represented, gave valuable assistance in flood relief.

Arden Shore

Summer camp and Training school for Underprivileged Mothers and Children, located at Lake Bluff, Illinois, conducts in addition all-year-round training camp for undernourished boys, where character and good citizenship is developed, holds classes in life saving, nature study, craftsmanship, etc. 2177 women and children registered at camp this summer. This great summer camp has long been recognized as North Shore's "Home Missionary" project, paying large dividends in character.

Boy Scouts

An all-year leisure and character building program of activities is conducted by the Boy Scouts, directed by the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. There are 7 successfully operating units; 4 Scout troops, for boys of 12 years and over; 2 Cub Packs for boys, ages 9-11; a Sea Scout Ship, newly organized for boys 15 years and over. 266 boys registered and active, 68 men volunteer leaders giving many hours of work. Last year's program included valuable assistance during Ohio floods, camping program, with training in swimming and life-saving at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan. 13 people were rescued at Green Bay this summer by 4 boys, three of whom were trained at this camp.

Dorcas Home

A home for half orphaned children who temporarily must have help and shelter, situated two miles west of Highland Park. Comfortable buildings. Homelike environment. Capacity to care for 40 children. Majority of children cared for are from Highland Park and immediate vicinity. Children enjoy good school privileges, and special training in music and various forms of handicraft.

Girl Scouts

Provides character building activities for the girls of Highland Park. This year Highland Park has its own Girl Scout office and director. There are 9 Girl Scout Troops in Highland Park, Ravinia, West Ridge and Braeside, and 1 High School Troop and 1 Brownie Troop in Ravinia. The Girl Scout program includes home-making, cooking, nature study, first aid, baby care, world fellowship—with special work in health and citizenship. Girl Scout camps are provided. Skokie House Day Camp, the Hickory, or Pottawanna Hills Camp are all attended by local girls. 21 girls attended these camps and 22 Brownies attended the Skokie Day Camp this season.

Hospital

This modern, well equipped and efficiently staffed hospital is one of the finest on the North Shore. It stands ready to give prompt, careful and interested help when the unexpected occurs. It occupies an indispensable position in Highland Park.

Hospital Auxiliary

This highly efficient and dependable adjunct to the Hospital and community welfare service is composed of 225 Highland Park women. They do all the sewing for Highland Park Hospital, which saves the hospital more than $1,000 a year. They finance the expense of surgical operations and hospital care of patients of all ages who are recommended as needing assistance by Highland Park doctors; pay for medicine in some cases, loan money in other cases and see that milk is supplied for children in needy homes.

Infant Welfare

Provides counsel, medical attention, clothing, nourishment and care for unfortunate mothers and their babies. Maintains Baby Health Stations in 18 districts where high infant mortality rates are prevalent. At these stations, mothers during the prenatal period, babies, and children under school age receive regular medical examination with health instruction to the mother. Nurses and nutritionists follow up the work in homes, giving instruction in home sanitation, care of the health, etc., and budgeting, and selection and preparation of food.

Saves infant and material lives, prevents sickness, and lays foundation for independent citizenship in years to come. Alice H. Wood Station at 1964 North Halsted St. is largely supported by the Highland Park Community Chest. Number cared for at this station: prenatal, 182; infant, 867; pre-school, 495; total, 1,544. Highland Park members also contribute sewing for Infant Welfare babies; 1,452 garments were provided last year.

N. U. Settlement

Serves thousands of needy neighbors at a time when perhaps more than ever in their lives they need understanding. Brings hope to people whose ambitions have been killed. Interprets understandingly the conditions which have brought them into difficulty. Trains them to face changing economic and industrial conditions. Gives classes in various trades, and furnishes the only social life enjoyed by hundreds of young folks from blighted homes.

Social Service

A welfare center where Highland Park citizens needing assistance can be placed in contact with the proper agency supplying the relief needed, or where in cases of emergency, the need can be met without delay, while State or County action is pending. It also furnishes special aid which State or Federal agencies cannot give, and endeavors to meet the individual problems of those who come to it for advice or aid.

The Salvation Army

This international organization is known to all for its work in developing character through religious endeavor, education and recreation. It gives supplementary material relief, wherever needed. The local unit, supported by the Highland Park Chest, has its headquarters at Waukegan and carries on its work in Lake county. This year the Salvation Army in Lake county has furnished relief to 51 families; 335 meals and 118 lodgings to transients; 1,220 Christmas dinners, and toys for 200 children. Its Social Service department reports 10 girls from Lake county cared for at the Woman's Home and Hospital in Chicago; and an attendance at religious meetings in the open air, jails, and other institutions, of 16,181 people.

Y. W. C. A.

Has served the womanhood of Highland Park for a quarter century, ministering to the practical and evident needs of young and old, for friendship, intellectual and social stimulation, recreation and inspiration. More than 200 women of the Community are members of the Association, while several hundred women and girls are enrolled in activities. Membership and activities are open to all.

Copies of this information in booklet forms may be obtained from Chest Headquarters, 390 1/2 Central Avenue, or from any campaign worker.

Announce Schedule for Basketball

Chas. F. Lauer, Fresh-Soph basketball coach at Highland Park High last year, will succeed Coach "Solmie" Thurston as varsity mentor this season. Child Slightly Hurt Sunday as She Runs Into Car

Eileen Moroney, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moroney of 137 S. Greenbay road, was slightly injured Sunday morning, in front of the Immaculate Conception church, when she ran into the rear of a moving car. She suffered a bump on her head and other scratches and bruises. She was treated at her home by Dr. Theodore Proxmire.

The youngster ran from between parked cars and was struck.
